re: State v. Debra Kay Scott Appeal
Appellate Case No. 2013-002746

Dear Ms. Scott:

Enclosed, please find a copy of the appeal paperwork that was filed on your behalf and a letter that I received from the Court of Appeals.

An appeal is a request to the higher Court to review the decisions and sentence of the judge in your case because you believe that the judge's decisions and sentence were based on a mistaken application of the law regarding your case. I do not believe that there are any grounds for your appeal but I filed the paperwork because you and I did not have an opportunity to discuss this and I believed that you would have wanted me to file this paperwork.

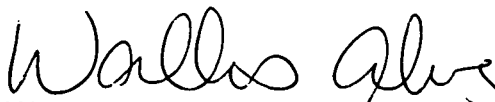

If you want to pursue this appeal, it will be your responsibility to provide the court with your reasons for why you want an appeal and you must show the court that any issues for appeal were preserved for review by the appellate court. This means that any issues you want to argue on appeal must have been objected to or placed on the record prior to or during your guilty plea.

You must provide the Court of Appeals with a written statement of your appeal grounds within 20 days of the date of this letter. Any correspondence should include your case number. You must send your statement to the court at:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
Post Office Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

Wishing you well, I am

Sincerely,

Wallis Alves
