Dear Court,

The main issue that should be taken into consideration is the fact that my plea counsel insisted that I plea guilty when in fact, as I testified, there IS mitigating evidence that shows I am not guilty of that which charged (pg. 77 of Appendix). One example that was before the P.C.R Court is "Applicants co-defendant was given a much shorter sentence than Applicant, although the description of the shooter fit the co-defendant" (pg. 92 of Appendix). I have been charged, convicted, and sentenced as if i'm the principal when, according to the facts, i'm no more than an accessory. In my false confession I stated the front door was wide open, however, there is photo evidence of the back door kicked in with a shoe print on it (forced entry)... I stayed in school the entire day, and my co-defendant left early because he was "sick, yet, when law enforcement went to question him he was at work...

Even though I didnt fully express the mitigating "factors" or evidence in my testimony the above-mentioned, and then some, is what I was speaking of. Which is why I was initially, and am yet again, adamant about going to trial. I supremely appreciate the Court for the opportunity to raise/address these issues I previously failed to address, and I ask respectfully that the Court grant relief.

Sincerely,
Aaron Jordan
