Ms. Shealy,

Attached is a document listing the parties & their counsel. We tweaked the case caption to more clearly reflect all of the parties and their position in the case. Let us know if this gives you the information you need. Also let me know if you still think we need to submit an amended petition with this more fulsome caption.

Thanks,

That might be helpful. I went by the title and it lists Horton as a petitioner and then as third party plaintiff. I don't have the capability to put third-party-plaintiff as a breakdown on counsel. I tried to use the proof of service breakdown which shows Mr. Braddock as a respondent and Robert Lyles, etc. for plaintiffs which the title shows as third party plaintiff. That's where I was getting my info from.

Anything to be sure I have this correct is certainly helpful. In view of our emails, does the designation of the parties need to be changed when you add defendants to the case?

Thank you so much,
Brenda Shealy

Ms. Shealy,

I viewed the case on C-Track. Do you need us to submit a table showing all of parties and their corresponding counsel, will that be helpful? I noticed D.R. Horton is currently listed as Plaintiff, I believe that should be Robert Baddorf.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. Paavola:

I have gotten permission to make the above case public. You can now see the parties that I have entered. Use 2026-002503 as the tracking number and it will come right up. I have already tested it. Maybe this will make it easier for us to coordinate counsel with the petition and motion.

Thank you,
Brenda Shealy
