Respondents.

AFFIDAVIT OF TAYLOR SMITH, ESQ., AS TO ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

Personally appeared before me Taylor M. Smith IV, who, first being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. My name is Taylor Smith. I am an attorney for the Petitioners in the above-captioned matter.
2. The fee agreement that my firm has with Petitioners is for billing at an hourly rate for our representation of his in this case.
3. With our firm, Plaintiff incurred $656.03 in costs in this action.
4. I spent at least 87 hours working on this case, including time Ms. Rhonda Schaub, litigation paralegal at Meriwether Law, assisted me in this matter. At my hourly rate of $350/hour (and hers at $200/hour), that comes to $23,266.53 on Meriwether Law's behalf. The internal record of this time and costs is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
5. The six factors South Carolina courts traditionally consider in determining the amount of attorney's fees to be awarded are (1) the nature, extent, and difficulty of the legal services rendered; (2) the time and labor necessarily devoted to the case; (3) the professional standing of counsel; (4) the contingency of compensation; (5) the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services; and (6) the beneficial results obtained. E.g., Baron Data Systems, Inc. v. Loter, 297 S.C. 382, 383, 377 S.E.2d 296 (1989).
6. These factors, as applied in this case, are as follows:
    a. Nature, Extent, and Difficulty of the Legal Services Rendered. This was a highly difficult issue to resolve on behalf of the petitioners in this case, which originally began back in 2020 in the underlying action from where the original motion to quash was filed. As shown by the other exhibits to motion for attorneys and costs, the efforts began at the trial level, originally to quash the subpoena issued to my client's banking institution, but also concerned concurrent motions to rule my client into contempt of court that were filed in the trial court while this matter was pending in this Court. Accordingly, this case involved significant research, preparation, drafting, and attendance at a court appearance.

b. Time and Labor Necessarily Devoted to the Case. The legal questions raised by this case were novel, and this case was tried to judgment. This resulted in having to do quite a lot of work. Accordingly, the time and labor devoted to this case were necessary to properly protect our client's interests in this case.

c. Professional Standing of Counsel. I am a licensed member of the Bar of the State of South Carolina. I was admitted to the South Carolina Bar on May 19, 2014. I practice with the law firm of Meriwether Law, LLC where I concentrate my practice in civil litigation, with a particular emphasis on SCFOIA cases, constitutional/civil rights and free speech cases, and appeals. My work has also included representing clients in SCFOIA matters, criminal defense matters, defamation (slander and libel) cases, freedom of speech cases, real property litigation, and landlord-tenant cases. I have been a presenter at continuing legal education seminars, including the South Carolina Bar Convention. I am lead attorney for the South Carolina Press Association which serves more than 95 percent of the state's newspapers. I am also the author of several open government guides for the Reporters Committee for the Freedom of Press. In addition to my legal work, I teach Media Law and Ethics at the University of South Carolina. After graduating from law school, I became an associate with what was then the firm of Harrison & Radeker, P.A., then Harrison, Radeker & Smith, P.A. where I was made a shareholder in 2018. I have been a shareholder in Meriwether Law since its founding in 2024.

d. Contingency of Compensation. While we have taken this matter on an hourly basis, our client is not wealthy, and whether attorney's fees are awarded in this case may have a significant bearing on whether my firm is fully compensated for the work we have done on the case.

e. Customary Fee Charged on the Locality for Similar Services. I spent 87.6 hours working on this case through today. My firm's total billing (fees and costs) comes to $23,922.56 through this point in the case. My hourly rate is $350.00. These hourly rates, as well as the total of fees, are normal and customary for attorneys' services in South Carolina area for litigated civil cases. Accordingly, these rates and the total of fees are in line with those customarily charged in this locality for similar services.

f. Beneficial Results Obtained. On the Petitioners' behalf I was also able to procure an order of this court stopping the issuance of a subpoena to my client's banking institution. In addition to stopping the subpoena's issuance, Petitioners have now (with the Court's ruling) protected the identifying information of sources and methods central to his work as newsgatherer. Both stopping the subpoena and protecting Petitioners' information are beneficial results.

7. Petitioners are the prevailing parties in this action. All of the law firm's efforts contributed to the success we had in this case.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Taylor M. Smith IV

SWORN to before me this

Petitioners,

v.

PNC Financial Services Group, INC d/b/a PNC Bank, Renee S. Beach, Phillip Beach, Robin Beach, Savannah Tuten, and Seth Tuten .....
Respondents.

AFFIDAVIT OF SCOTT J. SHOLDER, ESQ., AS TO ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

Personally appeared before me Scott J. Sholder, who, first being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. My name is Scott J. Sholder. I am an attorney-at-law in the state of New York. I have represented Petitioner Gregg Roman for many years in various media and litigation-related matters, including providing advice relating to the case underlying this appeal.

2. Between May 2, 2025 and July 8, 2026, my firm incurred $7,156 in attorney's fees advising Mr. Roman—alongside his South Carolina counsel, Mr. Taylor M. Smith IV—in connection with our appeal to this Court over Appellees' subpoena to PNC Bank.

3. I reviewed my firm's billing records and compiled the hours worked, billable rates, fee totals, and descriptions of work that makes up the above total.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a spreadsheet with this data. Any redactions in this Exhibit are to protect attorney-client privileged information.

5. The six factors South Carolina courts traditionally consider in determining the amount of attorney's fees to be awarded are (1) the nature, extent, and difficulty of the legal services rendered; (2) the time and labor necessarily devoted to the case; (3) the professional standing of counsel; (4) the contingency of compensation; (5) the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services; and (6) the beneficial results obtained. E.g., Baron Data Systems, Inc. v. Loter, 297 S.C. 382, 383, 377 S.E.2d 296 (1989).

6. These factors, as applied in this case, are as follows:

a. Nature, Extent, and Difficulty of the Legal Services Rendered. As explained in the affidavit of Mr. Smith, this dispute began as a motion to quash the subpoena issued to Mr. Roman's banking institution but also concerned concurrent motions for contempt while this matter was pending in this Court. We assisted in providing research, drafting, and strategic advice relating to complex procedural and substantive issues.

b. Time and Labor Necessarily Devoted to the Case. The time and labor devoted to this case were necessary to properly protect our client's interests in this case and were proportional to our role as advisory counsel to Mr. Roman.

c. Professional Standing of Counsel. I am a licensed member of the Bar of the States of New York and New Jersey. I was admitted to the New York Bar in 2007 and the New Jersey Bar in 2008. I am a partner with the law firm of Cowan, DeBaets, Abrahams & Sheppard LLP, where I focus on litigation and dispute resolution in connection with entertainment, media, and intellectual property matters, with a focus on copyright and trademark law, business and contract disputes, and First Amendment defense. I am a frequent writer and speaker on copyright issues, particularly at the intersection of generative AI, as well as ethics issues related to the use of AI in the practice of law. After graduating from law school, I clerked for Hon. Peter G. Sheridan of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey and Hon. Leonard I. Garth of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. I then became a litigation associate with Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, where I worked for four years before moving to my current firm. I was promoted to partner in 2016 and co-chair of the firm's litigation practice in 2018.

d. Contingency of Compensation. While we have taken this matter on an hourly basis, our client is not wealthy, and whether attorney's fees are awarded in this case may have a significant bearing on whether my firm is fully compensated for the work we have done on the case.

e. Customary Fee Charged on the Locality for Similar Services. My firm spent 9.2 hours working on this case through today. My firm's total billing comes to $7,156.00 in fees through this point in the case. My hourly rate is $830.00, and my colleague Josef Ghosn's hourly rate is $670.00. These hourly rates, as well as the total of fees, are normal and customary (if not below market) for attorneys' services in New York for litigated civil cases. Accordingly, these rates and the total of fees are in line with those customarily charged in this locality for similar services.

f. Beneficial Results Obtained. On the Mr. Roman's behalf, we were able to procure an order of this Court stopping the issuance of a subpoena to our client's banking institution. In addition to stopping the subpoena's issuance, Mr. Roman is protected from identifying information of sources and methods central to his work as newsgatherer. Both stopping the subpoena and protecting this sensitive information are beneficial results.

7. Petitioners are the prevailing parties in this action. All of the law firm's efforts contributed to the success we had in this case.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Scott J. Sholder
