I am also available on that date and time (Feb 19 @10:00 a.m.).
P.S. Miracles do happen at Johns Hopkins University Hospital. My sister, Barbara, survived her cancer surgery and an infection that the Infectious Disease Department termed "a Mystery." She is still in ICU, heavily sedated and on a ventilator- but she is still alive and has no neurological damage. We have been told to be cautiously optimistic. Thank you both, again, for accommodating my schedule during that difficult time.
Best regards-
