Re: Withdrawal of Notice of Appeal in State of South Carolina vs. Mare Baracco
2013-CP-07-00918

Dear Clerk Gee and Clerk Shearouse:

Previously I filed pro se a Notice of Appeal with the Court of Appeals in the matter referenced above. At the same time I also filed a Motion for Reconsideration before Judge Marvin Dukes, a Master-in-Equity in Beaufort County, who heard the appeal from Beaufort Magistrate Court. It is Judge Dukes' Order I am appealing. I would like for Judge Dukes to hear my Motion for Reconsideration but I understand that is not possible if an appeal is pending because Judge Dukes would not have jurisdiction or the legal authority to hear the Motion.

I am herewith withdrawing my Notice of Appeal without prejudice so I can have Judge Dukes hear and rule upon my Motion for Reconsideration.

By copy of this letter to the Beaufort County Clerk of Court, I am notifying them of withdrawal of my Notice of Appeal and would respectfully request that the Clerk's office schedule the hearing on my Motion for Reconsideration before Judge Dukes.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours truly,

Mare Baracco
