

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Patrick Strozier, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-002357

ORDER

Petitioner has filed a notice of appeal from an order of the circuit court denying and dismissing petitioner's fourth application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner has submitted a document he alternately describes as "arguments upon the order of the circuit court" and a "petition," but which we have construed as the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR. We find petitioner has failed to show there is an arguable basis for asserting the determination by the lower court was improper. See Rule 243(c), SCACR. Accordingly, we dismiss the notice of appeal in this matter.¹

Moreover, we hereby prohibit petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, challenging his 1984 convictions for kidnapping and first degree criminal sexual conduct without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.

C.J.
FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina

January 30, 2014

¹ To the extent petitioner seeks habeas corpus relief from this Court by way of the petition filed, such relief is denied.
