Response TO Respondent's Motion TO Compel Appellant TO Supplement The Record

The Respondent's are attempting to make Appellant add documents he does not have to the Record. In January and February of 2013 SCDC employees came in Appellant's cell and confiscated all his documents against S.C.D.C. and Appellant notified the General Counsel. The Respondent's cannot expect Appellant to provide something he does not have. The Respondent's have all the requested documents in their possession.

This court has ruled in at least two other cases that Appellant should not be required to provide something he doesn't have. General Counsel Shanika Johnson tried to file the same motion and this Honorable Court Ruled in Appellant's favor. The Respondent's confiscated my documents now expect me to provide them.

For the above reasons Appellant ask that this court deny Respondent's Motion just as it do before.
