Re: The State v. Matthew B. Fullbright
Appellate Case No. 2012-207553

State*, 298 S.C. 306, 379 S.E.2d 907 (1989).

As to her concerns about her personal information being included in your client's materials that were allegedly seized, I can only suggest that she may wish to discuss her concerns with an attorney to determine what remedies, if any, may be
