Appellant Brief

Docket No. 13-ALJ-21-0014-AP pursuant to ALE Rule 37, I Appellant Robert Lee Johnson, file this brief IN reference of appeal to South Carolina Administrative Law Court.

 Docket No. 13-ALJ-21-0014-AP. I submit the brief along with a copy of the transcript. Due to the nature of this case, I don't believe that the hearing was fair; I believe that the outcome would have been in my favor if the evidence would have been heard. I don't believe the facts were heard ~~at~~ Judge fairly; and I intend to show that due to how there were errors in the judgement, facts are the the ticket issued on 8-13-2010 ticket No. E593812 was issued on interstate during Rush hour what constitutes following to close during rush hour. I believe the ticket was unjustly issued considering the traffic conditions; furthermore, I don't believe the case was fairly tried because; because the judge in the court room; dismissed the jury before the verdict was read; why did the judge dismiss the jury before the verdict was read. the judge waited until after the court room was cleared when he said; oh they found you guilty; shouldn't the jury say what the verdict was not the judge I don't believe it because the judge hesitated to give me the verdict. I believe that the hearing should be heard and reconsidered.
