ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING DECISION BY THE COURT AS REFERENCED ON PAGE 1.

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Motion to Reconsider the Court's Order of July 17, 2013, which directed that the amount awarded by the jury in this case be placed on deposit with the Clerk of Court during the pendency of the appeal, pursuant to SCRCP 67. A hearing was previously held on Defendant's motion to deposit the judgment awarded by the jury in this case on May 7, 2013 in Dillon County, South Carolina. At that hearing, counsel for Plaintiffs requested that the Court permit Plaintiffs to pursue other investment options that may produce a more favorable rate of return. The Court allowed the parties time to confer on this issue, but further ruled that the statutory interest would stop accruing either on May 14, 2013 (seven days from the date of the hearing) or the date on which an agreement was reached between the parties as to the manner of investment, whichever occurred first. Subsequent to the hearing, the Court was advised the parties were unable to come to an agreement on the manner of investment, and accordingly, the statutory interest stopped accruing on May 14, 2013, based on the Court's ruling.

In their Motion to Reconsider, Plaintiffs contend that defense counsel failed to negotiate in good faith concerning other options for investment. Specifically, Plaintiffs state that defense counsel did not respond to correspondence sent by the Plaintiff on May 13, 2013 until May 30, 2013. Plaintiffs also assert that the Defendant has failed to deposit any sum of money with the Clerk's office. Plaintiffs ask that the Court withdraw its Order, dated July 17, 2013, or in the alternative, withdraw the portion of the Order which requires statutory interest to stop accruing on May 14, 2013 if the parties were unable to come to an agreement as to an alternative manner of investment. The Court declines to withdraw or amend its prior Order, dated July 17, 2013. The Court permitted the parties to negotiate as to an alternate manner of investment, but it does not have the authority to require that the parties agree on some other form of investment. Consequently, Plaintiffs' Motion to Reconsider is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
