

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Rodney Green v. South Carolina Department of Corrections

Appellate Case No. 2012-212276

The Honorable Deborah Brooks Durden
Trial Court Case No. 2012ALJ040075AP

ORDER

Appellant has failed to provide proof the notice of appeal had been served on all parties to the appeal, and provide a copy of the court order to be challenged on appeal, as required by Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Furthermore, the Appellant in this case received the order on appeal on June 1, 2012. The proof of service shows the notice of appeal was mailed to the Administrative Law Court thirty-two (32) days after receipt of the order on appeal. Rule 203(b)(6) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules allows thirty (30) days for this service. Further, Rule 263(b) prohibits this Court from extending the time for service of the notice of appeal. The service of the notice of appeal on the Administrative Law Court was not timely. Under Rule 260(a), this appeal must be and is dismissed. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.
