RE: Basil W. Akbar v. S.C.D.C., et al., Appellate Case NO. 2013-002306

Dear Clerk Allen:

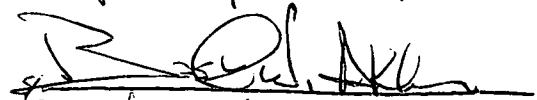

I am in receipt of your correspondence dated January 6, 2014, and attached Order filed January 2, 2014. However, my proposed Notice of Appeal was forwarded to your officer [December 23, 2013], pending the arrival of $100.00 filing fee requirement that I believe has become perfected.

Please advise me as to status of my Appeal, following denial of Rule 59(e) Motion December 9, 2013, and received December 20, 2013. Do I continue to use the same Appellate Number as advised, or will a new number be assigned.

In addition, I believe it is necessary that I inform the court that Lee County Correction Institution is in complete lock-down mode January 8, 2014, due to numerous confirm "Flu Virus" out-break, my unit (Florance) was first on lock-down January 7, 2014.

My Initial Brief is partially completed, however, I want have access to the Law Library for research, type writer, and copies until lock-down has end. Therefore I will need an enlargement in time to complete and deliver brief, and make service due to events beyond my control.

Respectfully Submitted
