Re: your case

Dear Mr. Parris,

We have determined that you are eligible for representation by this office, and have requested your December 16, 2013 hearing transcript. It will take at least two months and probably longer as court reporters are allowed several thirty-day extensions if needed. This office does not control the court reporters.

Your case will not be assigned to an attorney until we receive the transcript. Upon receipt of the transcript the attorney will then write you a letter explaining the appellate process and how you may assist in handling your appeal. You will receive a copy of your transcript and all documents filed in connection with your case.

You have requested copies of your initial trial transcript from October, 2007, and another probation revocation hearing that took place in February, 2013. Since you are only appealing your December 16, 2013 probation revocation hearing, that is the only transcript we can request. If you would like to write to us to explain why the transcripts from the previous two hearings are relevant to this appeal, we will take your explanation into consideration.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Kimberly McCall
Administrative Coordinator
