Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The above case is scheduled for oral argument at 3:00 p.m. this afternoon.

The parties would respectfully like to know whether it would be possible to postpone oral arguments and grant the parties a 60-day stay in which to continue settlement negotiations. While we have not yet settled, we believe additional time will allow us to mediate, with a reasonable possibility of reaching a resolution of all issues currently before the Court.

I apologize both for the short notice and the informality of this request. As you know, I am also appearing before the Court at 10:40 this morning. This request is being made jointly and we can file a Consent Order with the motion fee this afternoon.

Thank you for your assistance in this request. I am copying Wesley Shull, Counsel for Respondents on this e-mail.

Dear Counsel:

Good afternoon. Attached please find correspondence from the court confirming the cancellation of oral argument due to inclement weather and the rescheduled date of argument. Please do not hesitate to let me know if you are unable to open or view the attachment. Thank you.
