CLERK OF COURT

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

CASE NO. 2012-CP-23-1735

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

2013 JAN 10 PM 4:32

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Defendant's motion to dismiss. Upon review of the recently produced jurisdictional discovery, this Court now makes its ruling granting Defendant's motion to dismiss. The Court finds that Delo, d/b/a Slovenske Novice is not subject to personal jurisdiction in South Carolina. In determining whether or not a foreign corporation is subject to personal jurisdiction in this State, a trial judge must conduct a two-pronged analysis. First, the Court must find that the South Carolina long-arm statute applies. Second, the Court must determine whether or not the foreign corporation's contacts within South Carolina are sufficient to satisfy the requirements of due process. See Southern Plastics Co. v. Southern Commerce Bank, 310 S.C. 256, 259, 423 S.E.2d 128, 130 (1992).

South Carolina's long-arm statute, S.C.Code Ann. § 36-2-803 (1976), allows a Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a non-resident person as to a cause of action arising from the non-resident's transacting any business in this State. The Plaintiff, Hidria USA, alleges that the Defendant published a defamatory article about the Plaintiff on its website. Hidria claims that residents of South Carolina utilized Slovenske Novice's website and were able to read the article. Hidria also alleges that Slovenske Novice publishes articles about South Carolina from time to time. The Court finds that South Carolina's long-arm statute does not apply to this case because the Defendant has not transacted any business in this State. Foreign corporations are subject to personal jurisdiction in South Carolina only when they are found to have been "transacting business" in this state. Based upon the pleadings and documents produced in this case, this Court finds that Delo, d/b/a Slovenske Novice, does not and has not conducted any business in ~~South Carolina which would subject it to the long-arm statute.~~ Slovenske Novice has no subscribers in South Carolina, does not solicit advertisers in South Carolina, has no bank accounts or registered agents in South Carolina, and has no record of ever sending agents or employees into this State in order to collect information for any publication. While the alleged defamatory article was accessible by residents of South Carolina, Slovenske Novice has no online subscriptions in South Carolina nor is there any evidence of the Defendant directing any online business activity towards this State.

Further, the requirements of due process do not allow this Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over the Defendant. The Court finds that Defendant Delo, d/b/a Slovenske Novice does not have and has not had traditional minimum contacts with the state of South Carolina which would allow this Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over the Defendant, pursuant to Int'l Shoe Co. v. State of Washington, 326 U.S. 310, 66 S.Ct. 154, 90 L.Ed. 95 (1945). Therefore, the Court grants Defendant's motion to dismiss pursuant to S.C. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

NOTE: ATTORNEYS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR NOTIFYING LOWER COURT, TRIBUNAL, OR ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY OF THE CIRCUIT COURT RULING IN THIS APPEAL.

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: ☐ See attached order; (formal order to follow) ☒ Statement of Judgment by the Court:

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion to Reconsider this Court's order dismissing the case for lack of personal jurisdiction. Plaintiff argues that this Court neglected to address S.C. Code Ann. § 36-2-803(A)(3), which permits a court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a Defendant who committed a "tortious act in whole or in part in this State." Plaintiff also argues that this Court failed to address whether Delo's actions were "expressly aimed" at South Carolina for jurisdictional purposes. For the reasons stated below, this Court denies Plaintiff's Motion to Reconsider.

Regarding § 36-2-803(A)(3), Plaintiff's complaint does not allege that Defendant committed any tortious act within the State of South Carolina. Further, § 36-2-803(A)(4) permits a court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a foreign entity for a tortious act committed elsewhere only if the foreign entity regularly solicits or engages in business in South Carolina or derives substantial revenue from goods used or services rendered in South Carolina. Again, nothing in the complaint alleges (nor does discovery show) that this section applies to Defendants. Finally, regarding whether or not Delo's out-of-state actions were "expressly aimed" at South Carolina, this Court again finds that the requirements of due process do not allow it to exercise personal jurisdiction over the Defendant.

6. Upon information and belief, Slovenske Novice's published materials are available to South Carolina residents through mail order subscriptions and through its Internet website. The Hidria USA brand and image is one of its key competitive advantages arising out of its operations in South Carolina and publication of this article to the public and business community in South Carolina has caused damage to that brand and image, thus causing Hidria USA irreparable harm.

15. As a direct and proximate consequence of the defendant's publication of the article, the business reputation of Hidria USA has been injured in that because of the irreparable harm to its image and brand, including the Tomos and Rotomatika brands, it has been damaged in its ability to sell and market its products.

18. Hidria USA's cause of action arises out of the defendant's contacts with the State of South Carolina and such contacts caused its tortious injury in South Carolina.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff Hidria USA, prays for judgment against the defendant, Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice for both actual and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the jury, together with interest thereon, for the costs of this action and for any and such other and further relief as this court shall deem just and proper.

kralj med tajkuni, pragu New Yorka

● Idrijski mogotec in šef Hidrie je pravi privatizacijski mogotec
● Največji posli in premoženje njegove družine nastanjeni v ZDA

IDRIJA O razkošnem slovenskem življenju idrijskega tajkuna Edvarda Svetlika je znano tako rekoč vsa. Na spletnih straneh Vseslovenskega združenja malih delničarjev je na voljo celih desetletje o tem, da zaposleni v Hidri pricajajo, njihov gospodar Svetlik pa medtem živi na veliki nogi. »Ko je sprizgibal podjetje, si je poleg dvorca v Idriji dal zgraditi še pravo haciendo bazenom, naokoli pa se vozi v luksuznem Jaguarju kabiroleh.«

Začeli smo brskati za premoženjem družine Svetlik v tujini, o tem je namreč znanega le malo. Podatki, do katerih smo se dokopali, bi lahko rišli dočeti oazi, na Floridi, in sicer v Plantationu, tam so kot glavni sedež Hidrie USA navedli naslov iz Greenville. Zastopnik floridske podružnice je CT Corporation Service, Svetlikovi in Andra Krapi Rejce so v register vpisali slovenske naslove. Hidria v Greenville po podatkih iz zemljiških knjig južne Karoline je Hidria USA 31. januarja 2005 kupila nepremičnino za 475.000 dolarjev. Predsednica je Urška, na istem položaju pa je tudi v HT USA, ki je delovalo od 2000. februarja 2005 pa je sprejela ime v Hidria USA. Še prej je HT USA v južni Karolini kupil nepremičnino na omenjeni lokaciji, in sicer 9. marca 2001 za 383.000 dolarjev. Iz doku-

New Jerseyju, je v resnici zgolj dvajset kilometrov oddaljena od obzolja New Yorka.

Lažni diplomat

Hidria USA uvozi izdelke Hidrie Rotomatrix v New York. Tomaž Groff je bil odgovoren za hitro izdajo podjetja Iskra Avtoelektrika v Južno Ameriko in na Kitajsko, o čemer je v Sloveniji tudi strokovno predaval v sklopu Top Class programa 2005/2010. Ob Urški in Edvardu Svetliku ter Andri Krapci ter Groffu sta bila zastopnika še Rok Robič in Mario Kranjcar, odvetnik iz New Yorka. HT USA je imel še podružnico v taksidarskem Dallasu ter Arizoni. Nihče od njih, razen Groffa, ni osebno vodil poslov v ZDA. Hidria USA se je razširila še v državo Črna gora, kjer je bila leta 2000, ima pet spalnic, štiri kopalnice, 230 kvadratnih metrov in dvorišče, na trtišču pa je vredna več kot 1,1 milijona dolarjev. Od letošnjega poletja jo ponujajo v najem za 5800 dolarjev na mesec. V njej je bil nekoč tudi generalni konzulat Bahamov v ZDA, zato jo odlikujejo razkošen in diplomatski slog ter lokacija. HT USA je bilo kupil od Tomaža Groffa, in sicer februarja 2000 za 445.000 dolarjev, transakcijo pa so vpisali v zemljiško knjigo šele tri leta pozneje, decembra 2003. Groff jo je kupil za 650.000 dolarjev februarja 2000 od podjetja Ferrell Realty Associates, L. L. C., a kar je bil Groff takrat zastopnik podjetja, kar je razvidno tudi iz prospekte slovenske Hidrie in ameriškega registra, je povsem mogoče, da je bil samo formalni kupec za Svetlikov HT USA. »Prodaja in distribucija proizvodov družbi Holdinga Hidria v Severni Ameriki, 29 Clifton Terrace, Englewood Cliffs, NJ.« je pisalo ob njegovem imenu. Navzven nastava v Cliftonu je Groff 2001. za HT USA registriral trade mark Super Tom (izpeljanka iz Tomosa).

V kupo-prodajni pogodbi je za imenom HT USA vpisan naslov za dostavo pošte v New Yorku, in sicer prav tisti, kjer stoji tudi omenjena odvetniška pisarna. Zdašnaja ocena vrednosti te nepremičnine, kar je osnova za plačevanje letnega davka, je 1.149.500 dolarjev; vilo Svetlikovih, čeprav stoji v plomatske misle Paname pri EU. O tem primeru so se hrvaški mediji razpisali, potem ko je Handanović omenil takratnega župana Požega. Groff je vpisan ob njem kot konzul, ki je tudi predsednik na spletnih straneh Swiss Hanovra, podjetja za nepremičnine. Za to se navaja, da posluje v Panami, v Sloveniji, BiH in na Hrvaškem, ni pa vpisan v trgovski register Paname. Marijan Groff je bil omenjen še aprila 2011 na portalu RTVSLO v besedilu Zaradi pranja denarja in podkupovanja ovađenih 14 oseb, Kordež ne ve nič. Po očitnih informacijah naj bi šlo za družbo Slovenian Fund Management, ki jo je vodil Marijan Groff – nekdanji prvi nadzornik Iskre Avtoelektrike. Poročev naj bi bilo kar za šest milijonov evrov, spornih pogodb pa še za dva milijona. Sicer pa oče in sin Groff ter Američan, ki že več kot desetletje deluje na Hrvaškem, Michael Glazer, tvorijo mednarodni ljubljanski SDCE, družbe tveganega kapitala, d. o. o. Glazerja so nekateri mediji na Hrvaškem omenjali zaradi sumljivih transakcij prek podjetja Auction, ki je s hrvaško medijsko hišo SPH in Damirjem Farkašem, nekdanjim Hypovirni šefom, prevzelo Hypo Consultants, nepremičninski posel Hypo Alpe-Adria Banke na Hrvaškem, torej ni izključeno, da so tudi Svetlikovi nekako povezani z neznanim uspehom podjetnika Roberta Groha.

Medeni tedni

v Vietnamu In medtem ko sta Urška in Edvard vpisana v Hidria USA, Gašper vodi posel v Veliki Britaniji. Po podatkih iz rumkajnega trgovskega registra je tam 2002. ustanovil kar tri podjetja na istem naslovu v Oxfordu, in sicer Hidria UK, Perles UK in Perles of Switzerland. Vsa so še aktivna, glede na uradne podatke s skoraj ničnim prometom, na enem od računov je računodeno -37 funtov. Ob njegovem imenu je vpisano, da je soljen februarja 1976, v rubriki naslova je vpisan ljubljanski sedež Hidrie. Gašper od istopisa v javnosti, da je tudi na družinskih omrežjih, na albumu pisavo web je predstavlja tudi slike s poročnega potovanja v Vietnamu. Tako si ga lahko radevneže v družbi lebranke ogledajo

v bazenu pred razkošnim hotelom Ana Mandara v Nha Trangu, na riki, kako bti v več z roko na mečinju, med poležavanjem. Pokazal pa je tudi dober telesni pripravljenost, saj se je na eni od fotografij spretno postavil na glavo. Gašper se je fotografiral tudi na elitnih zabavah sredi New Yorka 2006, tudi v družbi Andreja Faturja, mladega ljubljanskega odvetnika, ki je študiral v New Yorku, o njegovem visokem standardu pa prita podatek, da je živel v stanovanju, vrednem 779.000 dolarjev. Gašper se je zabave udeležil nenavadno običen, v črtasti srajci in puloverju, drugi povlačeni pa so bili napravljeni slavnostno; morda je z svojo drznostjo želel sporniti, da je bogat in uspešen ter da strogi dress code zanj ne velja.

V Memfiji ima Hidria Gif GmbH sedež v Freiburgu. Tajkun Edvard, njegova žena Ivica in hči Urška so zastopniki podjetja UG & S GmbH v Švici, hčrni pa je z Andrijo Krapi Rejce predstavniki Hidrie GmbH. Andreja z Andrijo Rejcem deluje še v podjetju Akus. Vsa podjetja imajo sedež v Zagu. V Sloveniji je Ivica Svetlik znana kot Ivica, na stimeh grace, si si je mogoče ogledati fotogalerijo srečnih zakoncev. Tam je opisan tudi Kendov dvorec, v katerem živijo, vinogradi, vinske kleti, nabiranje grofja in kot krona premoženja vino rebula grace, uskladiščeno v sodih iz slavonskega hrasta, in kider običe to spletno stran, dobi občutek, da gre za družino, ki se tradicionalno ukvarja z vinogradništvom. Ta druga podoba Svetlikovih je daleč od tiste prve, v kateri ima glavno vlogo eden največjih slovenskih privatizacijskih magov, ki si je s klasično menedžersko pogodbijo prilastil števila podjetja in izdelke, s katerimi je potom po vsem svetu zaslužil milijone. Urška in Gašper Svetlik imata tako pred seboj precej izbor, svedra pa tudi dovolj denarja, da zadovoljijo svoje hedonistične potrebe na eksotičnih potovanjih. IRENA DUKOVIC MILAVČIČ

Čeprav Svetlikovi delujejo v več evropskih državah, so njihovi večji posli in premoženje nastanjeni v ZDA, kjer sta se tudi šolala naslednika dinastije, Urška in Gašper. Prva, ki je na visokih položajih številih podjetij družinskega carstva, je diplomirala na elitni fiktivni za umetnost barmount na Manhattanu, sin pa je po Univerzi v Ljubljani končal še MBA v New Yorku. Ime Urške Svetlik lahko zasledimo v trgovskih registrih številnih ameriških zveznih držav; tako je vpisana kot predsednica podjetja Hidria USA in HT USA, ob njej pa kot predstavnika še Edvard Svetlik in Andra Krapi Rejce (Andreja, ki pa je dolgoletna tesna sodelavka ter solastnica Hidrie in povezanih družb.

The Hidria USA brand and image is one of its key competitive advantages arising out of its operations in South Carolina and publication of the Articles to the public and business community in South Carolina has caused damage to that brand and image, thus causing Hidria USA irreparable harm.

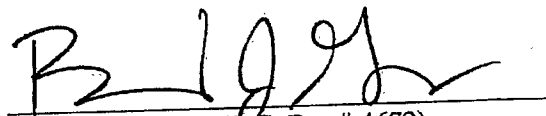

15. As a direct and proximate consequence of the defendant's publication of the Articles, the business reputation of Hidria USA has been injured in that because of the irreparable harm to its image and brand, including the Tomos and Rotomatika brands, it has been damaged in its ability to sell and market its products.

18. Hidria USA's cause of action arises out of the defendant's contacts with the State of South Carolina and such contacts caused its tortious injury in South Carolina.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff Hidria USA, prays for judgment against the defendant, Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice for both actual and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the jury, together with interest thereon, for the costs of this action and for any and such other and further relief as this court shall deem just and proper.

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO

DISCOVERY REQUESTS
- or in the alternative -
FOR JURISDICTIONAL DISCOVERY

C.A. No. 2012-CP-23-1735

TO: DELO, d.d., d/b/a SLOVENSKE NOVICE, AND ITS ATTORNEYS, WALLACE K. LIGHTSEY AND MARTIN M. TOMLINSON

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the plaintiff, Hidria USA, Inc. ("Plaintiff" or "Hidria"), by and through its undersigned attorneys, will move this Court for an order compelling Defendant, Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice ("Defendant" or "Slovenske Novice"), to provide full and complete responses to Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories and First Set of Requests For Production of Documents, which were served on Defendant, by mail to its attorneys dated July 2, 2012. Copies of Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories and First Set of Requests For Production of Documents to Defendant, along with a certificate of service for these documents are attached as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference. In the alternative, should this Court deny this Motion to Compel, Plaintiff hereby moves this Court for an order permitting Plaintiff to take jurisdictional discovery concerning Defendant's contacts with South Carolina. This motion is based on the following grounds:

1. Plaintiff served its First Set of Interrogatories and First Set of Requests For Production of Documents upon Defendant by mail on July 2, 2012.
2. Pursuant to Rules 33 and 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant's responses to Plaintiff's discovery requests were due on August 6, 2012.

3. On August 7, 2012, attorney for Plaintiff sent an e-mail to attorney for Defendant requesting responses to its discovery requests and was advised that Defendant did not intend to respond until after the outcome of the hearing on Defendant's pending Motion to Dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction scheduled for August 16, 2012 at 9:30AM.

4. To date, Defendant has failed to answer or respond to Plaintiff's interrogatories and requests for production and is in violation of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. Plaintiff requests, with the consent of attorneys for the Defendant pursuant to the email correspondence attached hereto as Exhibit B, that this motion be heard on August 16, 2012 in conjunction with Defendant's Motion to Dismiss currently scheduled for August 16, 2012 at 9:30AM.

In the alternative, Plaintiff, by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby moves this Court for an order permitting Plaintiff to take jurisdictional discovery concerning Defendant's minimum contacts with South Carolina. This motion is based on the following grounds:

1. Plaintiff has alleged a prima facie showing of jurisdiction in its Amended Complaint.

2. Defendant has contested Plaintiff's showing of jurisdiction by filing the pending Motion to Dismiss and accompanying affidavit.

3. Discovery is necessary to meet Defendant's challenge to personal jurisdiction and Plaintiff's claims are not frivolous.

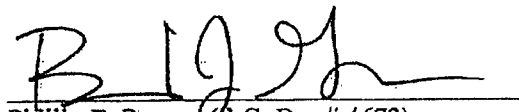

4. Defendant's reliance on the affidavit of Nada Jakopce highlights the need for jurisdictional discovery as Plaintiff has no means to test the validity of the underlying facts of the affidavit.

5. Plaintiff anticipates that jurisdictional discovery will uncover (1) more direct connections between Defendant and South Carolina, (2) facts revealing additional subscribers of Slovenske Novice located in South Carolina, (3) additional facts revealing access of the online version of Slovenske Novice by South Carolina viewers, and (4) that Defendant targets South Carolina based on the content of articles it publishes.

6. Plaintiff requests, with the consent of attorneys for the Defendant pursuant to the email correspondence attached hereto as Exhibit B, that this motion be heard on August 16, 2012 in conjunction with Defendant's Motion to Dismiss currently scheduled for August 16, 2012 at 9:30AM.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter an order compelling Defendant to provide full and complete responses to its interrogatories and requests for production of documents. In the alternative, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter an order permitting Plaintiff to take jurisdictional discovery. This motion is based upon Rules 33, 34, and 37 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and upon the applicable common and statutory laws of the State of South Carolina.

Thank you for your email.

We intend to file a Motion to Compel, or in the alternative, Motion for Jurisdictional Discovery. Given that we are less than 10 days from the hearing scheduled for your Motion to Dismiss, would you waive the 10-day notice provision so that our Motion to Compel and/or for Jurisdictional Discovery can be heard with your Motion to Dismiss?

FILED-CLERK OF COURT

GREENVILLE CO S.C.

PAUL B. WICKENS

PLAINTIFF'S MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
TO COMPEL, or in the alternative, FOR
JURISDICTIONAL DISCOVERY AND IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO DISMISS

C.A. No. 2012-CP-23-1735

This matter is before the Court on a motion to compel responses to written discovery requests, or in the alternative, for jurisdictional discovery filed by the plaintiff, Hidria USA, Inc. ("Plaintiff" or "Hidria USA"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, which is authorized to do business in the State of South Carolina, and which owns property and does business in Greenville County, South Carolina. The defendant, Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice ("Defendant" or "Slovenske Novice"), is an entity organized and existing under the laws of the Republic of Slovenia and is engaged in the business of publishing and disseminating news and information in the Republic of Slovenia and internationally, including the United States and more specifically, South Carolina. The Defendant has filed a motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction which this Court should deny because Defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with South Carolina such that exercising jurisdiction over defendant comports with fair play and substantial justice. Further, this Court should grant Plaintiff's motion because Plaintiff has made a prima facie showing of jurisdiction supported by the attached affidavit, and discovery is necessary to meet Defendant's challenge to personal jurisdiction.

FACTS

This cause of action arises out of Defendant's publication of two articles about and concerning, among other persons and entities, Hidria USA (the "Articles"). The Articles contained false statements of fact regarding Hidria USA, which statements injured Hidria USA and resulted in immediate and irreparable harm, the brunt of which was felt in South Carolina where Hidria USA's North American operations are located.

Moreover, on July 2, 2012, Plaintiff served its written discovery requests upon Defendant by mail, and responses to the same were due on August 6, 2012 pursuant to Rules 33 and 34 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. On August 7, 2012, attorney for Plaintiff requested responses by email to Defendant's attorney and was advised that Defendant did not intend to respond until the outcome of the hearing on Defendant's pending motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction. To date, Defendant has failed to answer or respond to Plaintiff's discovery requests and is in violation of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

In response to Defendant's motion to dismiss and supporting affidavit, Plaintiff files and serves herewith an affidavit of Domen Bočkor, the General Manager for Hidria USA, attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference opposing Defendant's motion to dismiss. Among other things, the affidavit of Mr. Bočkor states:

1. The Articles contained false statements of fact regarding Hidria USA which injured Hidria USA causing it immediate and irreparable harm in South Carolina. (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 6.)
2. Certain facts included in the Articles could not have been ascertained without travel to the United States and South Carolina, with extensive research performed there. (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 7.)
3. The Articles were read by all of Hidria USA's employees located in South Carolina and many employees of Hidria USA's customers in South Carolina which directly damaged Hidria USA's relationships with several customers (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 8, 9.)

4. There is a sizable Slovene Community which is very business-oriented and which regularly reads this paper in South Carolina. (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 9.)
5. The damage caused by the Articles was felt by Hidria USA in South Carolina through injury to the business reputation of Hidria USA, including the Tomos and Rotomatika brands. (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 10.)
6. Slovenske Novice markets itself to readers in South Carolina by publishing articles about and concerning South Carolina residents and/or entities. (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 12.)
7. To the best of Mr. Bočkor's knowledge, Slovenske Novice distributes articles and information in South Carolina. (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 13.)
8. An Internet search of "Slovenske Novice" by use of the Google.com search engine provides access to an Internet-translated version of Slovensk Novice. (Bočkor Aff. ¶ 14.)

Therefore, pursuant to the affidavit of Mr. Bočkor, Defendant has sufficient contacts with the State of South Carolina that this Court should deny defendant's motion to dismiss and grant Plaintiff's motion to compel discovery responses, or limited jurisdictional discovery.

ARGUMENT

- A. Plaintiff should be given the opportunity to conduct discovery before the Court rules on the motion to dismiss.

This Court should allow Plaintiff to conduct discovery of information relevant to its claims, or in the alternative, at least allow Plaintiff to conduct discovery limited to the jurisdictional issues Defendant raised in its motion to dismiss.

- 1. Discovery is necessary to meet Defendant's challenge to personal jurisdiction.

Plaintiff is entitled to discovery in order to adequately defend against Defendant's motion to dismiss. When a plaintiff "can show that discovery is necessary in order to meet [a] defendant's challenge to personal jurisdiction, a court should ordinarily permit discovery on that issue unless plaintiff's claims appears to be clearly frivolous." Sullivan v. Hawker Beechcraft Corp., 397 S.C. 143, 151, 723, S.E.2d 835, 839 (Ct. App. 2011) (citing Rich v. KIS Cal., Inc.,

121 F.R.D. 254, 259 (M.D.N.C. 1988). “However, where a plaintiff’s claim of personal jurisdiction appears to be both attenuated and based on bare allegations in the face of specific denials made by defendants, the court need not permit even limited discovery confined to issues of personal jurisdiction if it will be a fishing expedition.” Id. at 152, 723 S.E.2d at 839–40 (citing Rich, 121 F.R.D. at 259). Here, Plaintiff’s claims are not “clearly frivolous” but are rather based in fact supported by the allegations in the complaint, the affidavit of Mr. Bočkor, and the fact that Defendant caused tortious injury aimed at South Carolina.

2. Discovery requests are within permitted scope of discovery.

Plaintiff is entitled to discovery in this case because the discovery requests are relevant and reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Rule 26(a)(1) states:

“Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identify and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not a ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.”

S.C. R. Civ. P. 26. In this case, Hidria USA served discovery requests regarding the facts surrounding Plaintiff’s claims and additional facts surrounding Defendant’s contacts with the State of South Carolina. Plaintiff received no responses within the timeframe allotted by the Rules of Civil Procedure, and upon requesting responses, was notified that Defendant did not intend to respond until after the outcome of Defendant’s motion to dismiss. However, the discovery requests were relevant to the claims of this case and were primarily focused on the very issues raised by the motion to dismiss. Surely this Court would allow Plaintiff the opportunity to investigate the validity of Defendant's affidavit and conduct discovery regarding the very issues Defendant is using to attempt to dismiss the case.

B. Personal jurisdiction is appropriate in this case.

This Court's exercise of personal jurisdiction over Defendant satisfies South Carolina's long-arm statute. Defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with the State of South Carolina such that exercise of jurisdiction comports with fair play and substantial justice. The determination of whether a court may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident involves a two-step analysis. Sullivan, 397 S.C. at 150, 723, S.E.2d at 839 (citing Aviation Assocs. & Consultants, Inc. v. Jet Time, Inc., 303 S.C. 502, 505, 402 S.E.2d 177, 179 (1991)). "The trial court must (1) determine whether the South Carolina long-arm statute applies and (2) whether the non-resident's contacts in South Carolina are sufficient to satisfy due process." Sullivan, 397 S.C. at 150, 723, S.E.2d at 839 (citing Power Prods. & Servs. Co. v. Kozma, 379 S.C. 423, 431, 665 S.E.2d 660, 664 (Ct. App. 2008)). In this case, both prongs are satisfied and therefore jurisdiction is proper.

1. South Carolina's long-arm statute provides for exercise of personal jurisdiction in this case.

South Carolina's long-arm statute provides for exercise of personal jurisdiction over a foreign defendant in this particular case. Under South Carolina's long-arm statute, a court may exercise personal jurisdiction over a defendant who acts directly or by an agent as to a cause of action arising from the defendant's:

- (1) [T]ransacting any business in this State; (2) contracting to supply services or things in the State; (3) commission of a tortious act in whole or in part in this State; (4) causing tortious injury or death in this State by an act or omission outside this State if he regularly does or solicits business, or engages in any other persistent course of conduct, or derives substantial revenue from goods used or consumed or services rendered in this State; (5) having an interest in, using, or possessing real property in this State; (6) contracting to insure any person, property, or risk located within this State at the time of contracting; (7) entry into a contract to be performed in whole or in part by either party in this State; or (8) production, manufacture, or distribution of goods with the reasonable expectation that those goods are to be used or consumed in this State and are so used or consumed.

S.C. Code Ann. § 36-2-803 (1976). South Carolina's long-arm statute "affords broad power to exercise personal jurisdiction over causes of action arising from tortious injuries in South Carolina." Sullivan, 397 S.C. at 151, 723, S.E.2d at 839 (citing Cockrell v. Hillerich & Bradsby Co., 363 S.C. 485, 491, 611 S.E.2d 505, 508 (2005)). In this case, Defendant's publication of the Articles caused tortious injury in South Carolina, and because Defendant targets South Carolina residents for subscriptions by publishing articles with content related to South Carolina, exercising jurisdiction over defendant satisfies South Carolina's long-arm statute.

2. Defendant's minimum contacts presented in amended complaint and affidavit are sufficient to deny Defendant's motion to dismiss.

Plaintiff has alleged more than sufficient contacts between Defendant and the State of South Carolina that the Court should deny Defendant's motion to dismiss. While the burden is on the Plaintiff to show jurisdiction is proper, "[a]t the pretrial stage, the burden of proving personal jurisdiction over a non-resident is met by a prima facie showing of jurisdiction either in the complaint or in affidavits." Sullivan, 397 S.C. at 150, 723, S.E.2d at 839 (citing Cockrell, 363 S.C. at 491, 611 S.E.2d at 508). A prima facie showing of personal jurisdiction "can be made through factual allegations in the complaint or through affidavits that establish a basis for the court to assert jurisdiction over an out-of-state defendant." Sullivan, 397 S.C. at 151, 723, S.E.2d at 839 (citing S. Plastics Co. v. S. Commerce Bank, 310 S.C. 256, 259, 423 S.E.2d 128, 130 (1992)). Here, Plaintiff has alleged, in its amended complaint and its affidavit, sufficient facts to establish a prima facie case of personal jurisdiction over Defendant. Not only does Plaintiff allege significant readership and contacts with the South Carolina community, but Plaintiff makes clear that the brunt of the harm caused by the publication of the Articles was felt in South Carolina.

3. Personal jurisdiction is appropriate under “effects” test.

Even if this Court finds Defendant’s newspaper distribution and readership in South Carolina is insufficient to establish jurisdiction, this Court still has jurisdiction over Defendant pursuant to the “effects” test. Under the “effects” test “personal jurisdiction exists if the defendant’s publication is directed at the forum state; that is, if the forum state is ‘the focal point both of the story and of the harm suffered.’” Harlan v. Ahenica Wydawniczo-Reklamowa “Wprost” Sp.Zo.o, 2006 WL 360023 (D.S.C. Feb. 15, 2006) (citing Calder v. Jones, 465 U.S. 783, 788–89 (1984)). To satisfy the effects test, a plaintiff must show three elements: “(1) the defendant committed an intentional tort; (2) the plaintiff felt the brunt of the harm in the forum, such that the forum can be said to be the focal point of the harm; and (3) the defendant expressly aimed his tortious conduct at the forum, such that the forum can be said to be the focal point of the tortious activity.” Harlan, at *4.

In this case, all three elements are satisfied such that the exercise of personal jurisdiction over Defendant is appropriate. Defendant published a defamatory article aimed at Hidria USA and its primary office in South Carolina. By publishing the Articles, Defendant focused on, and targeted, the readers in South Carolina. Given the large Slovene community in South Carolina, and the fact that the Articles were about a South Carolina-based entity, Defendant intended that the Articles be read by residents of this state, and in particular, the Slovene business community. As a result of the Articles, Plaintiff suffered harm in South Carolina as described in the attached affidavit. Therefore, even if this Court finds that circulation and readership is not sufficient in South Carolina, jurisdiction is still appropriate pursuant to the “effects” test.

4. The question of personal jurisdiction is highly fact dependant and can only be evaluated in this case after discovery.

Because the question of personal jurisdiction is highly fact dependent, this Court should deny Defendant's motion to dismiss and allow for the parties to conduct discovery on the issue. "The question of personal jurisdiction over a nonresident defendant is one which must be resolved upon the facts of each particular case." Sullivan, 397 S.C. at 150, 723, S.E.2d at 839 (citing Moosally v. W.W. Norton & Co., 358 S.C. 320, 327, 594 S.E.2d 878, 882 (Ct. App. 2004)). In addition, "[w]hen a motion to dismiss attacks the allegations of the complaint on the issue of jurisdiction, the court is not confined to the allegations of the complaint but may resort to affidavits or other evidence to determine jurisdiction." Sullivan, 397 S.C. at 150, 723, S.E.2d at 839 (citing Coggeshall v. Reprod Endocrine Assocs., 376 S.C. 12, 16, 655 S.E.2d 476, 478 (2007)). However, jurisdictional discovery is particularly appropriate in cases where, as here, the question of jurisdiction turns on disputed factual allegations. See Dash v. Mayweather, 2010 WL 3420226, at *1 (D.S.C. Aug. 25, 2010) ("If the existence of jurisdiction turns on disputed factual questions the court may resolve the challenge on the basis of a separate evidentiary hearing, or may defer ruling pending receipt at trial of evidence relevant to the jurisdictional question.").

Here, the affidavits of Defendant and Plaintiff clearly create a disputed factual question which should be resolved through discovery before ruling on Defendant's motion to dismiss. Plaintiff anticipates discovery will uncover (1) more direct connections between Defendant and South Carolina, (2) facts revealing additional subscribers of Slovenske Novice located in South Carolina, (3) additional facts revealing access of the online version of Slovenske Novice by South Carolina viewers, and (4) that Defendant targets South Carolina based on the content of articles it publishes. Therefore, Plaintiff should be given the opportunity to conduct at least limited jurisdictional discovery before the Court rules on Defendant's motion to dismiss.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff, Hidria USA, Inc., respectfully requests that this court grant its motion to compel discovery responses, or in the alternative, for jurisdictional discovery and deny Defendant, Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice's motion to dismiss, and any other such relief as may be appropriate.

The plaintiff Hidria USA, Inc. ("Plaintiff") hereby moves pursuant to Rule 59 SCRCP, to alter, amend, and/or reconsider the Court's Order previously entered and filed with the Greenville County Clerk of Court on January 10, 2013, granting defendant, Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice ("Defendant")'s motion to dismiss. Plaintiff's motion is made upon the following grounds:

1. The Court's Order granting Defendant's motion to dismiss finds that South Carolina's long-arm statute does not apply to this case. The basis of the Court's decision appears to be § 36-2-803(A)(1) of the South Carolina Code. However, the Court does not address the application of South Carolina's long-arm statute to this case under § 36-2-803(A)(3) which provides for personal jurisdiction based on, as here, the "commission of a tortious act in whole or in part in this State." S.C. Code Ann. § 36-2-803(A)(3) (1976). The South Carolina Supreme Court has interpreted such language to apply "to in-state injuries resulting from out-of-state acts or omissions." Parker v. Williams & Madjanik, Inc., 270 S.C. 570, 574, 243 S.E.2d 451, 454 (1978). Moreover, because South Carolina's long-arm statute "affords broad power to exercise personal jurisdiction over causes of action arising from tortious injuries in South Carolina[.]" Sullivan v. Hawker Beechcraft Corp., 397 S.C. 143, 151, 723, S.E.2d 835, 839 (Ct. App. 2011)

(citing Cockrell v. Hillerich & Bradsby Co., 363 S.C. 485, 491, 611 S.E.2d 505, 508 (2005)), the Court should reconsider its Order.

2. The Defendant's intentional and tortious actions were expressly aimed at the State of South Carolina, the State of South Carolina was the focal point of the defamatory article at issue, and the brunt of the harm was suffered in the State of South Carolina. Under substantially similar facts, the United States Supreme Court has found that such contacts with a forum state are sufficient to satisfy due process and exercise personal jurisdiction over a defendant. See Calder v. Jones, 465 U.S. 783, 788-90 (1984).

Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court reconsider its Order granting Defendant's motion to dismiss.

P R O C E E D I N G S

(WHEREUPON, the proceedings begin on the 16th day of August, 2012 at approximately 9:31 a.m.)

THE COURT: Hidria or Hidria versus Delo.
All right. We've got defendant's motions to dismiss it looks like.

MR. REEVES: Actually, there are a couple. There's defendant's motion to dismiss and our motion to compel and to allow jurisdictional discovery, which were added last week by consent so that you could ---

THE COURT: All right.

MR. REEVES: --- hear all of this at once.

THE COURT: All right. All right. And I'll allow you to take whatever motions you'd like to first.

MR. REEVES: Your Honor, we can certainly argue our motion, uh, to compel and for jurisdictional discovery first. It doesn't matter to me.

THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

MR. TOMLINSON: Your Honor, I think they are all pretty closely tied together.

THE COURT: All right. All right.

MR. REEVES: Your Honor, I represent the

1 plaintiff, Hidria -- Mr. Galloway and I do -- in 2 this case. This is a defamation case filed here in 3 South Carolina. The defamation arises out of a 4 couple of newspaper articles that were published by 5 a Slovenian newspaper. Uh, and I'll give you the 6 background in a minute. But the articles made
7 their way to South Carolina via the internet and I
8 think that's been conceded. The issue is whether 9 this court has jurisdiction over this matter.

10 Uh, let me give you a little bit of 11 background. Hidria USA is a South Carolina
12 corporation with the principle place of business in 13 Greenville. It's been here in Greenville since the 14 early '90s. It employs people here. It does 15 business here. It's located here in Greenville.
16 It clearly is a South Carolina residence for 17 purposes of juri -- jurisdictional purposes. I
18 don't think anybody is contesting that.

19 Hidria is owned -- Hidria USA is owned by 20 Hidria Inc, which is a Slovenian corporation with 21 its primary place of business in Slovenia. The 22 defendant is a Slovenian daily newspaper that is 23 published daily, uh, also located in Slovenian, but 24 it publishes, as most of your newspapers do these 25 days, not only in a hard copy but over the internet

1 around the world including in South Carolina. I
2 think that's an admitted fact.

3 These articles -- there were two articles.
4 They were articles that have to do with alleged tax
5 scheming and perhaps tax fraud and not being
6 truthful and dishonest and that sort of thing. One
7 of the articles were published last December. A
8 followup article was published in April.

9 We subsequently filed a defamation suit here
10 in Greenville County court in June. The defendant
11 moved to dismiss on jurisdictional grounds. We 12 then filed some discovery -- served some discovery
13 limited to jurisdictional grounds. And here we 14 are. The defendant has not answered that 15 discovery, has indicated it doesn't believe it has 16 to answer that discovery because this court lacks
17 jurisdiction. Therefore, they have filed their 18 motion to dismiss. We have filed our motion to 19 compel and for the court to allow jurisdictional
20 discovery and to hold an evidentiary hearing, which 21 we think is the proper method for resolving the 22 jurisdictional issue. So that is what is before 23 you today.

24 Our motion is fairly simple. There is no
25 question but that the discovery responses are late.

1 Uh, we've had a very candid conversation with Mr.
2 Lightsey. Very straightforward. He says we don't
3 think we have to answer them. We said we think you
4 do. We think we're entitled to do discovery on the 5 jurisdictional basis that you are making for your
6 motion to dismiss. We think the case law supports
7 that and we put that law in our memorandum. We 8 also think the case law supports allowing us to 9 have an evidentiary hearing conducted by the court
10 at whatever time the court determines to see if we 11 can make our case on jurisdiction. We think we've 12 made it. We think we've made it now. But if the 13 Court has any questions at the end of these 14 arguments, then we think that we are entitled to 15 that process.

16 There are cases that we cite in our memo.
17 There's a case out of South Carolina. There's a 18 case out of the fourth circuit. The Dash case is a 19 case out of South Carolina if I recall correctly.
20 The Kerns case is the fourth circuit case. Both of 21 those cases stand for the proposition that 22 jurisdictional discovery is appropriate where a
23 plaintiff has made even a colorable case of 24 jurisdiction. Colorable is the lowest possible
25 standard, as you can imagine. So if there's

1 anything out there at all, the court says this is
2 such a substantial right. And as the Court knows,
3 South Carolina, like most states, takes the most
4 expansive and broadest view of jurisdiction that it
5 can. It says if you made a colorable claim, then
6 you are entitled to some discovery.

7 Those cases also stand for the proposition
8 that if the dispute, at this point, all 9 jurisdiction is based on affidavits, then the 10 plaintiff is obviously allowed to conduct discovery
11 to go behind those affidavits and see what the 12 facts are. That exactly what we have here. We 13 have before you counter affidavits. You have an 14 affidavit from the lawyer, as I understand it, for 15 Slovenian counsel for the newspaper, Delo. You
16 have an affidavit from the general manager of 17 Hidria setting forth the facts as Hidria
18 understands it. So you've got these accommodating
19 affidavits. The Court has said in Kerns and in 20 Dash that that is when jurisdictional discovery at 21 an evidentiary hearing is particularly appropriate.

22 The plaintiff doesn't have to assume that all
23 the facts in the defendant's affidavit is true or 24 are true and vice versa. They are entitled to 25 discovery on those issues to ferret out what the

1 facts are about jurisdiction and then to have a
2 hearing so that the Court can make that decision
3 based on facts and not based on these affidavits.

4 Based on that, Your Honor, we believe that we
5 are entitled to a couple of things. We think this 6 is not right. We think that the process needs to 7 continue. We need to be allowed to do some 8 discovery if the Court has some questions about 9 jurisdiction.

10 THE COURT: Excuse me just one second.

11 (Pause.)

12 I apologize.

13 MR. REEVES: That's okay. We believe that 14 we are entitled to then come back to you for an 15 evidentiary hearing. Setting that aside, we 16 believe that we have made our jurisdictional
17 argument and we think that there is a prima facial 18 case of jurisdiction here. As the Court knows, at 19 this stage, again, without any evidence, without 20 any discovery, that's all we have to do. The law
21 is very, very clear in the cases cited in both 22 their memorandum and in our memorandum that all we 23 have to make is a prima facial case of 24 jurisdiction.

25 We think we made that. We've shown that the

1 articles -- they've admitted that the articles were
2 published in South Carolina via the internet.
3 They've admitted that there was at least some 4 readership of the articles here. We all agree that 5 the articles themselves are the basis for the 6 claim. And that's an important factor.

7 In some of the cases that are cited -- and we 8 can discuss as much as you would like for us to.
9 Uh, some of the cases cited, particularly the Young 10 case, for example, is a case in their memo. The 11 conduct at issue there, the court held that 12 Virginia didn't have jurisdiction. The conduct was 13 in Connecticut. The Court said that that makes a 14 difference. The Court has said over and over and 15 over, even in all of the cases that are cited by 16 both of us and the defendants -- and we're citing
17 the same cases, and just looking at them
18 differently -- the Court has said that a single 19 transaction, a single transaction in the state can 20 provide a basis for jurisdiction if that 21 transaction is the root cause of the cause of 22 action. That's what we have here.

23 We don't have a situation where we're trying
24 to take the position that this Slovenian newspaper
25 did something to us that didn't arise out of the

1 conduct that they had conducted in South Carolina
2 when it published its newspaper. We are saying the 3 very articles that it published are the ones that 4 provide the basis for our defamation claim.

5 So we believe we've made -- if you look at the 6 affidavits and when you look at them at this stage,
7 you have to assume everything in our complaint is 8 true. You have to assume everything in our 9 affidavits are true. We believe that if you do
10 that, then we have clearly made a prima facial case
11 that there is jurisdiction here. We think that we 12 have made the elements. And we think that we are 13 entitled to move forward.

14 At a minimum, at the end of the day, after you
15 hear their arguments and my counter arguments, you
16 believe there's any question, we believe certainly 17 at a minimum, we are entitled to a period of time
18 to do so some bare limited discovery just on the 19 jurisdictional issues. And then come back to you.
20 Let them put up their evidence, us put up our 21 evidence and you make a decision.

22 THE COURT: And just so I'm clear, the 23 discovery that you already served on them, was 24 that --

25 MR. REEVES: Jurisdictional. It's

1 jurisdictional. Now, we may want to, based on
2 their affidavits, we may want to take a deposition
3 or two, but we don't anticipate this becoming a
4 full-blown, you know, discovery war. We want to 5 figure out the factual jurisdiction. If there's 6 jurisdiction, we believe there is, we want to go
7 forward. If there's not, we understand the 8 defendants want the case dismissed.

9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.
10 All right. Yes, sir.

11 MR. TOMLINSON: Thank you, Your Honor. My 12 name is Marty Tomlinson. I'm with the Wyches firm.
13 Along with my colleague, Wallace Lightsey, I
14 represent Delo which does publish the newspaper, my 15 pronunciation is clearly bad.

16 THE COURT: That's alright.

17 MR. TOMLINSON: I believe it's Slovenske
18 Novice.

19 THE COURT: Mine would be bad.

20 MR. TOMLINSON: That's what we're going to 21 go with today.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. TOMLINSON: Your Honor, our case is 24 pretty straightforward. I think this is just a
25 case where we need to decide whether, this Court

1 needs to decide whether South Carolina has personal
2 jurisdiction over a newspaper which is published in 3 Slovenia directed at a Slovenian audience. It's 4 published in the language of Sloven which is a
5 regional language that's mainly spoken by the 6 people of Slovenia and spoken by, I think we can
7 probably agree, a very small minority of South
8 Carolinians. It's not published in English.

9 There's no South Carolina subscribers.
10 There's no known sales in South Carolina. We've 11 produced, the counsel to the board of Delo, we 12 produced an affidavit in which she attached some 13 Google analytics report, which was a web service
14 where you can see where your web traffic comes 15 from. It showed the web traffic that arose from 16 South Carolina to their website. It's quite 17 nominal. I think one --- over one or two month
18 period, I think there were 170 total page views.
19 That's less than two per day.

20 And specifically, with regard to these
21 articles in question -- we explained this in a
22 footnote. It's very complicated. I'm not entirely
23 sure my head is all the way around it. But 24 basically, those reports show there were no
25 specifically identified page views of either of

1 these articles in question arising from South
2 Carolina. But from the way it was recorded, it's 3 possible that somebody in South Carolina could have 4 viewed that. I think it could not have been more
5 than seven people in South Carolina, I believe, for 6 the December article. Three people in South
7 Carolina for the April article. So this is -- 8 we're talking about something that if anybody in 9 South Carolina did happen to come across this on 10 the internet, it was a very minimal number of 11 people.

12 They derived no advertising revenue from South
13 Carolina. They have no English language
14 advertisements. We are certainly here to argue
15 today that there's just no personal jurisdiction
16 under either South Carolina's long arm statute or 17 the due process clause.

18 He talked a little bit about what they needed
19 to show. We do not dispute that what they need to 20 make is a prima facie case, but he did say that you
21 have to assume everything in their complaint and 22 their affidavits are true. We would concede that 23 insofar as their specific factual allegations. We 24 believe that's the task. They need to make a 25 factual basis for this.

1 We think the case law is pretty clear. This
2 court is not obligated to accept conclusory
3 statements or general statements or allegations.
4 We also think the law is pretty clear that where
5 the defendant produced an affidavit, the plaintiff
6 has to rise to that same level of evidence and also 7 produce an affidavit.

8 Now, they have produced an affidavit, but we 9 would ask this court to review that affidavit
10 carefully. Many of the, quote, unquote, factual
11 statements in that affidavit consist of statements
12 like "I believe" or "to the best of my knowledge"
13 and statements like that that clearly demonstrate 14 that he's not making a specific factual allegation
15 but sayings things like to the best of my 16 knowledge, this paper is distributed. That does 17 not arise to the level of factual assertion that 18 they need to support their claim. That does not 19 rise to the level of factual assertion that this 20 court is obligated to accept as true.

21 We did have some case law. I think he cited
22 it in our reply ---

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. TOMLINSON: --- that said that that kind
25 of conclusory allegation in an affidavit does not

1 establish an issue of material fact.

2 Now, just briefly on the long arm statute, we
3 think they have not identified any of the eight
4 subsections of South Carolina's long arm statute
5 that apply in their memorandum. I believe they 6 stated that this, that the long arm statute applied
7 because the defendant's publication of the articles
8 caused a tortuous injury in South Carolina. I
9 believe that would attempt to establish
10 jurisdiction under subsection four of the long arm
11 statute which is South Carolina code 36-2-803. As 12 Your Honor is probably well aware, that subsection
13 says that jurisdiction can exist where the 14 defendant has caused tortuous injury or death in 15 this state by an act or omission outside the state
16 if he regularly does or solicits business or 17 engages in any other persistent course of conduct
18 or derives substantial revenue from goods used or 19 consumed or services rendered in the state. We 20 would certainly argue that they have not
21 established any of that to be the case with regard
22 to our newspaper.

23 We would also say that they bare the burden of 24 showing the two, the two different prongs of the 25 due process analysis. There's the power prong and

1 the fairness prong. With the power prong, I think
2 we are at agreement that they can do that one of 3 two different ways. One is under the minimum
4 contact standard, which we think South Carolina
5 Court of Appeals clearly stated that what you need
6 to do in that, in the defamation context is to show
7 that the defendant or the publisher has purposely
8 availed itself of doing business in South Carolina.
9 We would certainly say that they have not done
10 that.

11 Again, Your Honor, we -- just on the facts of 12 this case, if Hidria was to purposely avail itself
13 of doing business in South Carolina, it defies
14 reason that they wouldn't be publishing in English,
15 marketing in South Carolina, have at least a 16 subscriber in South Carolina or a way to sell their 17 product in South Carolina or direct revenue from 18 South Carolina. And we -- we were given the 19 impression that you were familiar with this case
20 also. I don't know how much you --

21 THE COURT: I am familiar with it. I'm 22 going to read -- I guess I'm -- I guess at this
23 point, I want to take a look at these affidavits
24 that have been submitted and I have not done that 25 yet.

1 MR. TOMLINSON: Okay. I'm happy to talk
2 about those cases, but I don't want to waste Your 3 Honor's time with it if you are familiar with 4 those, but we would emphasize that I think those 5 cases are very important. The minimum contacts
6 point, the court, as you know, did hold that South
7 Carolina had jurisdiction over the publisher, but 8 not the author. It specifically did sell on the 9 grounds that it continually endeavored to exploit
10 the South Carolina market and had a continual 11 practice of marketing and distributing books in 12 South Carolina. That was the case where this 13 company regularly sent sales agents, regularly went 14 to book fairs. I think the books were available to 15 sell in 315 different bookstores throughout the 16 state. We would certainly argue that is materially 17 distinguishable from what we have here and, in 18 fact, supports our case. That was the basis that 19 the Court exercised jurisdiction in that case. We 20 would certainly invite this Court to take a long 21 look at the Harlen case, which was the district of 22 South Carolina court case in 2006. We think that 23 actually that's very on point --

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. TOMLINSON: It involved foreign

1 publisher of a newspaper that made allegations
2 about a South Carolina citizen. The South Carolina
3 citizen brought a defamation case against them in 4 federal court here in South Carolina. But, uh, I
5 would think that the plaintiff in that case had a
6 much stronger case for jurisdiction than Hidria
7 does in the present cases. That paper did actually 8 publish the English language edition, did have
9 subscribers in South Carolina, did have English
10 language advertisements. That court, again,
11 granted the defendant's 12(b)(2) motion to dismiss
12 for lack of personal jurisdiction.

13 The other way they could satisfy the power
14 prong is fact status which was set forth by the 15 Supreme Court in Calder versus Jones. I think 16 Calder versus Jones was a unique case in that that 17 court held that California exercise jurisdiction
18 because California had the largest subscriber base
19 to the magazine in question. We would say that is 20 completely distinguishable from this case.

21 In both the Harlen case and the Young case in 22 the fourth circuit, we would say that both of those
23 cases are directly on point in defamation claims
24 against defendants where the defendants published
25 something about a resident in a foreign state.

1 Again, I think both of those cases are much
2 stronger cases for jurisdiction. There were both
3 English language. They were available on the 4 website in English. Both had mail order
5 subscribers in the foreign state. In both of those 6 cases, the courts upheld the 12(b)(2) motion to 7 dismiss and held that there was no personal
8 jurisdiction over the defendants.

9 Hidria also has the burden of showing the 10 fairness prong. We talked about this a little bit
11 in our memorandum. But in doing this, the Court
12 needs to consider a lot of different interests, the 13 plaintiffs' interest, the defendant's interest,
14 South Carolina's interest in adjudicating this 15 versus any other forums, judicial efficiency and 16 specifically the burden on the defendant. We cited
17 some case law in which courts have held that the 18 Court needs to be particularly careful about 19 exercising jurisdiction over an international 20 defendant under this prong.

21 The fact is, Your Honor, as Hidria conceded,
22 this is a United States subsidiary of a Slovenian 23 company owned by a Slovenian business. This is 24 paper that's published in Slovenia in Sloven
25 directed at a Slovenian audience. I think this

1 case would have important implications for
2 Slovenian first amendment defamation law. It seems 3 much more logical that this case be litigated in 4 Slovenia if it needs to be litigated than for South
5 Carolina to have to bring in people over from 6 Slovenia to do depositions and discovery and to get 7 interpreters to issue a decision that may have very 8 important implications for what a Slovenian
9 newspaper has directed at a Slovenian audience. We 10 think this would be a very dangerous precedent.

11 I think, I believe what Hidria is asking this 12 Court to do is basically hold that if anyone in any 13 country in the world in any language publishes 14 anything on the internet that has anything to do
15 with South Carolina, they are automatically
16 subjected to personal jurisdiction in South
17 Carolina. If a Mongolian blogger publishes about 18 Nikki Haley in Mongolia, the fact that someone in 19 South Carolina could conceivably access that on the 20 internet, they are arguing that this person be 21 subject to personal jurisdiction in South Carolina.
22 We're not aware of any court which has ever held
23 that.

24 That would have totally have been the 25 principles of due process protections for personal

1 jurisdiction. We certainly urge this court to
2 apply what we consider to be well-established
3 precedent.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MR. TOMLINSON: Can I move on briefly to the 6 motion to compel.

7 THE COURT: Just briefly because we're
8 running very long.

9 MR. TOMLINSON: Okay. I apologize, Your 10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine.

12 MR. TOMLINSON: Uh, on our motion the 13 compel, Your Honor, our position is pretty
14 straightforward, I think. We just think this 15 court does not have jurisdiction and therefore we 16 shouldn't be compelled to do discovery. Uh,
17 jurisdictional discovery, we think -- one thing we 18 would note, Your Honor, is that we would certainly
19 take exception to Hidria's, uh, to counsel's
20 characterization that the discovery is limited and 21 specifically directed at jurisdictional issues. We 22 would ask the Court to look at those. And I think 23 we cited that in footnote 4 on page 17 of our 24 memorandum. They are asking for every single mail
25 order subscriber, every single online subscriber,

1 detailed financial records considering every
2 subsidiary and everything having to do with this.
3 They are also asking, I believe, for every single 4 article that the paper has published in the last
5 three years. We think this is much, much broader
6 than necessary to get at the actual jurisdictional
7 issues, which as I explained, we think it's whether 8 Delo purposely availed itself of the privilege of 9 doing business in this state, whether they are have 10 specifically targeted South Carolina readers and 11 whether it serves the interest of fair claim and 12 substantial justice.

13 We cited a case there in which the Supreme 14 Court specifically talk to courts against granting 15 discovery requests where they appear to be over
16 broad and specifically for the purpose of punishing
17 or imposing burden on this. And we believe that 18 what's going on here is they are upset about what 19 was published and they are using discovery as a 20 weapon, uh, to punish us. And we think this is 21 particularly dangerous in the defamation and first
22 amendment context where it could have a very severe
23 impact on free speech.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. TOMLINSON: And we think this is the

1 kind of fishing expedition that the courts warned
2 against. And just one correction, Your Honor.
3 Counsel said that we conceded that this was 4 published in South Carolina. We would certainly 5 object to that. We would say it was published in 6 Slovenia. It may have been -- it was available on 7 the internet to anybody.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. TOMLINSON: Thank you.

10 MR. REEVES: Your Honor, very, very quickly
11 and I know you are running behind. A couple of 12 points. One, on the jurisdictional discovery, uh,
13 certainly when we did our discovery, we did fairly 14 broad discovery because we thought we were in the 15 case moving forward. We are certainly willing to 16 tailor that, have a conversation with Mr. Lightsey,
17 tailor that to the jurisdictional issues in South
18 Carolina. We are not trying to be over broad. We 19 are trying to get to the bottom of those issues.
20 We think there are facts out there.

21 They mentioned the effects test. We think 22 we've met the effects test. One of the issues is 23 intent. That is clearly an issue of fact and an 24 issue that some discovery needs to be done on. Uh,
25 we think we've met it based on the prima facial

1 showing we've made.

2 THE COURT: I'm trying -- and I don't even
3 know if it's even in here. But is the discovery
4 you served on them, is a copy of that discovery in 5 the file?

6 MR. REEVES: If it's not, I'll get it to 7 you.

8 THE COURT: All right. And I'll tell you
9 what, Mr. Reeves, what I would like to see is what 10 you consider to be tailored to the jurisdictional
11 issue.

12 MR. REEVES: Certainly. We will do that as 13 well.

14 THE COURT: So I'll hold any ruling until I
15 can see what you consider to be very tailored 16 jurisdictional discovery.

17 MR. REEVES: A couple of other points, then
18 I promise I will sit down. Uh, the English issue, 19 as we pointed out in our affidavit, it is 20 translated into English. There is a website that 21 particularly does that. I'm not saying it's their 22 website, but they are aware of that website or we 23 believe they are. You basically click a button and 24 it becomes an English translation. It is certainly 25 translated into English in South Carolina. Our

1 affidavit addresses that point specifically and
2 talks about how that's done and talks about the
3 readers that saw this article in South Carolina
4 both associated with Hidria and its customers. We 5 think there certainly is an issue there that if we 6 having made a prima facial case, certainly this 7 warrants discovery.

8 The three cases they cited, Young, again, if 9 the Court reads those cases, you will see that they 10 are distinguishable. Rosali [phonetic spelling]
11 Specifically they found there was jurisdiction
12 based on the publisher. They said, the author,
13 there was no jurisdiction as to the author, there
14 was no jurisdiction as to a co-contributor because 15 they didn't, they weren't responsible for getting 16 the article or the book to South Carolina, but the 17 publisher was. They went through an analysis of 18 the facts. They didn't say these are the minimum 19 facts you have to have. They just said they've got 20 these facts and we think that's sufficient for 21 jurisdiction. We think Rosali [phonetic spelling]
22 actually supports our position.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. REEVES: Harlen, Harlen is an unreported
25 decision of the district court that has no

1 precedential value in either the federal court
2 system or the state court system. But even in 3 Harlen, it said that there was one magazine, I
4 think it was two articles published once, not a
5 daily newspaper where you got publications every 6 day. It is distinguishable. Even it made the 7 point that one single act, if it's the appropriate
8 act with the appropriate contacts, it can be a
9 sufficient basis for jurisdiction.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.. I
11 appreciate both sides' arguments. I'll look for 12 that discovery --

13 MR. REEVES: We'll get it to you very 14 quickly.

15 THE COURT: And I'll tell you what, if you
16 can get that to me within some time next week, then 17 I'll give you some period of time to respond, not 18 respond to discovery but respond in, generally, as 19 to whether or not you think this is appropriate
20 jurisdictional discovery if there's anything you
21 want to say in addition to your argument that the 22 Court just simply doesn't have jurisdiction.

23 If there's anything specifically -- if I can 24 say the word -- that you want to say about this 25 discovery, then I will look for a response from

1 you, let's say, within the following week. Other
2 than that, I'll go ahead and make a decision on it
3 shortly after that. All right.

4 MR. TOMLINSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 MR. REEVES: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 approximately 9:57 a.m.)

AFFIDAVIT OF DOMEN BOČKOR

C.A. No. 2012-CP-23-1735

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Domen Bočkor, who, first being duly sworn, deposes and states the following:

Hidria USA has made substantial financial investments in South Carolina and has a long-standing presence here.
4. The defendant, Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice ("Defendant" or "Slovenske Novice"), published two articles, one on November 12, 2011 and one on April 23, 2012, about and concerning Hidria USA (hereinafter referred to as the "Articles").

5. I believe that the purpose of the Articles was to harm Hidria USA, its image and brands.

6. The Articles contained false statements of fact regarding Hidria USA, which statements injured Hidria USA and resulted in immediate and irreparable harm, the brunt of which was felt in South Carolina which is where Hidria USA's North American operations are located.

8. The Articles were read by all of Hidria USA's employees located in South Carolina.

9. The Articles were read by many employees of Hidria USA's customers in South Carolina which directly damaged Hidria USA's relationships with several customers. Additionally, there is a sizable Slovene Community which is very business-oriented and which regularly reads this paper in South Carolina.

10. The damage caused by the Articles was felt by Hidria USA in South Carolina through injury to the business reputation of Hidria USA, including the Tomos and Rotomatika brands.

11. The damage to Hidria USA's reputation could result in irreparable harm in South Carolina, resulting in decreased industry ratings, inability to sell and market its products, and lost potential sales and new business development.

12. Slovenske Novice markets itself to readers in South Carolina by publishing articles about and concerning South Carolina residents and/or entities.

13. To the best of my knowledge, Slovenske Novice distributes articles and information in South Carolina.

14. While the content of the Slovenske Novice website is primarily in Slovene, when an Internet user searches "Slovenske Novice" by use of the Google.com search engine, there appears a link which provides an English translation of the content provided by Google.com. kralj med tajkuni, pragu New Yorka

⊙ Idrijski mogotec in šef Hldrie je pravi privatizacijski mogotec
⊙ Največji posli in premoženje njegove družine nastanjeni v ZDA

IDRIJA O razkošnem slovenskem življenju Idrijskega tajkuna Edvarda Svetlika je znano tako rekoč vse. Na spletnih straneh Vseslovenskega združenja malih delničarjev je na voljo celo besedilo o tem, da zaposleni v Hldri prejema jo mizernih 500 evrov plače, njihov gospodar Svetlik pa medtem živi na veliki nogi. »Ko je sprizical podjetje, si je poleg dvorca v Idriji dal zgraditi še pravo haciendo pri Ajdovščini z zunanjim bazenom, naokrog pa se vozi v luksuznem jaguarju kabrioletu.

Začeli smo brskati za preno-

ženjem družine Svetlik v tu-

jni, o tem je namreč znanega je malo. Podatki, do katerih smo se dokopali, bi lahko riški davčni oazi, na Floridi, in sicer v Plantationu, tam so kot glavni sedež Hldrie USA navedli naslov iz Greenville. Zastopnik Idrijske podružnice je CT Corporation Service, Svetlikovi in Andra Krapč Rejce so v register vpisali slovenske naslove. Hldria v Greenville posluje v svoji pisarni. Namreč, po podatkih iz zemljiških knjig južne Karoline je Hldria USA 31. januarja 2005 kupila nepremičnino za 475.000 dolarjev. Predsednica je Urška, na istem položaju pa je tudi v HT USA, ki je delovalo od 2000.

Februarja 2005 pa je spremenilo ime v Hldria USA. Še prej je HT USA v južni Karolini kupil nepremičnino na omenjeni lokaciji, in sicer 9. marca 2001 za 983.000 dolarjev. Iz dok-

Nov Jerseyju, je v resnici zgolj dvajset kilometrov oddaljena od obrobja New Yorka.

Lažni diplomat

Hldria USA v glavnem dobavlja Tomosove motorje v ZDA, o čemer pričajo tisočecni tovari: Julija 2008 je pošiljka krenila iz nemškega Bremerhavna proti Charlestonu v Južni Karolini, račun iz septembra 2011 potrjuje, da Hldria USA uvaža izdelke Hldrie Rotomatičke v New York. Tomaž Groff je bil odgovoren za širitev tržiska podjetja Iskra Avtoelektrika v južno Ameriko in na Kitajsko, o čemer je v Sloveniji tudi strokovno predaval v sklopu Top Class programa 2009/2010. Ob Urški in Edvardu Svetliku ter Andri Krapču Groffu sta bila zastopnika še Rok Robič in Mario Kranjac, odvetnik iz New Yorka. HT USA je imel še podružnico v taksidomski Dalasu ter Arizoni. Nihče od njih, razen Groffa, ni osebno vodil poslovanja v ZDA. Hldria USA se je razširila še v državo Connecticut: iz tamkajšnjih trgovstev je razvilno, da je bilo vne-

je Hldria USA prepuščeno

podjetju Corporation Service Company iz Hartforda. Hldria USA ima tudi spletno stran, na kateri je navedena tudi Tomos USA divizija.

Svetlikov ameriški partner Tomaž Groff je zdaj predstavnik podjetja Ekobase Globala, v katerem ima četrtinski delež tudi hitro napredujoči slovenski podjetnik Robert Grah. Podjetje dobavlja ulične LED-svetilke za ZDA. Predsednik ameriškega Ekobase Globala je tudi Samo Burja, ki je bil po pisanju časnika Delo »nekekdaj« predsednik uprave zavarovalnice Slovenica življenja, ki naj bi zlorabil svoj položaj in se okoristil z nekaj deset milijoni dolarjev. A zgodba o desni roki Edvarda Svetlika v ZDA ne bi bila popolna brez omenbe, da je Tomaž sin Marijana Groffa. O tem si je 2008, na široko, pisalo kot »lastnik« podjetja Infond Holdinga 3, ki obvladuje četrtino Iskre Avtoelektrike, sicer nekdanji predsednik nadzornega sveta družbe iz Šempetra pri Gorici. Starejši Groff je zdaj koncil v samooklicani diplomatski misli, ki jo vodi Fahroddin Handanović. Čeprav mislija ni nikjer akreditirana, tudi nima nikakršnega uradnega značaja, lažni diplomat Handanović deluje na relaciji Hrvaška-Slovenija in se predstavlja kot šef diplomatske misije Paname pri EU. O tem primeru so se hrvaški mediji razpisali, potem ko je Handanović omenil takratnega župana Požega. Groff je vpisan ob njem kot konzul, ki je tudi predsednik na spletnih straneh Swiss Hanover, podjetja za nepremičnine. Za to se navaja, da posluje v Panami, v Sloveniji, BiH in na Hrvaškem, ni pa vpisan v trgovski register Paname. Marijan Groff je bil omenjen še aprila 2011 na portalu RTVSLO v besedilu Zaradi pranja denarja in podkupovanja ovađenih 14 oseb. Kordež ne ve nič. Po neuradnih informacijah naj bi šlo za družbo Slovenian Fund Management, ki jo je vodil Marijan Groff – nekdanji prvi nadzornik Iskre Avtoelektrike. Poročitev naj bi bilo kar za šest milijonov evrov, spornih pogodb pa še za dva milijona. Sicer pa oče in sin Groff ter Američan, ki že več kot desetletje deluje na Hrvaškem, Michael Glazer, tvorijo menedžment ljubljanskega SDCC, družbe tvegane kapitala, d. o. o. Glazerja so nekateri navedli na Hrvaškem omenjali zaradi sumljivih transakcij prek podjetja Auctor, ki je s hrvaško medijsko hišo EPH in Damirjem Farkašem, nekdanjim Hypovim šefom, prevzelo Hypo Consultants, nepremičninski posel Hypo Alpe-Adria-Banke na Hrvaškem. Torej ni izključeno, da so tudi Svetlikovi nekako povezani z nedavnim uspehom podjetnika Roberta Grah.

Medeni tedni v Vietnamu

In medtem ko sta Urška in Edvard vpisani v Hldria USA, Gašper vodi posel v Veliki Britaniji. Po podatkih iz tamkajšnjega trgovskega registra je tam 2002. ustanovil kar tri podjetja na istem naslovu v Oxfordu, in sicer Hldria UK, Perles UK in Perles of Switzerland. Vsa so še aktivna, glede na uradne podatke s skoraj ničnim prometom, na enem od računov je suldo denimo – 37 funtov. Da je rojen februarja 1976, v rubriki naslova je vpisan ljubljanski sedež Hldrie. Gašper rad izstopa v javnosti, dejaven je tudi na družabnih omrežjih, na albumu picasso web je predstavil tudi slike s poročnega potovanja v Vietnamu. Tako si ga lahko radovedno doživi v družbi zbranih ogle-

v bazenu pred razkošnim hotelom Ana Mandara v Nha Trangu, na riki, kako hiti v vece z roko na mednožu, med poleževanjem. Pokazal pa je tudi dobro telesno pripravljenost, saj se je na eni od fotografij spretno postavil na glavo. Gašper se je fotografiral tudi na elitnih zabavah sredi New Yorka 2006, tudi v družbi Andreja Faturja, mladega ljubljanskega odvetnika, ki je žudiral v New Yorku, o njegovem visokem standardu pa priča podatek, da je živel v stanovanju, vrednem 779.000 dolarjev. Gašper se je zabave udeležil nenavadno oblečen, v črtasti srajci in puloverju, drugi povabilenci pa so bili napravljeni slavnostno: morda je s svojo igranostjo želel sporočiti, da je bogat in uspešen ter da strogi dress code zanj ne velja. V Nemčiji ima Hldria Gif GmbH sedež v Freiburgu. Tajkun Edvard, njegova žena Ivica in hči Urška so zastopniki podjetja UG & S GmbH v Švici, Edvard pa je z Andrejo Krapč Rejcem predstavnik Hldrie GmbH. Andreja z Andrejem Rejcem deluje še v podjetju Akris. Vsi podjetja imajo sedež v Zagbi, v Sloveniji je Ivica Svetlik znana kot Ivi, na straneh grca.si si je mogel ogledati fotografije sredi srečnih zaključkov. Tam je opisan tudi Kendov dvorec, v katerem živijo, vinogradi, vinske kleti, nabiranje grozdja in kot krona premoženja vino rebula grace, uskladišeno v sodih iz slavonskega hrasta, in kot obično to spletno stran, dobi občutek, da gre za družino, ki se tradicionalno ukvarja z vinogradništvom. To druga podoba Svetlikovih je daleč od tiste prve, v kateri ima glavno vlogo eden največjih slovenskih privatizacijskih močev, ki si je s klasično menedžersko podobo prilastil številni podjetja in izdelke, s katerimi je potem po vsem svetu zaslužil milijone. Urška in Gašper Svetlik imata rako pred seboj: pester izbi, seveda pa tudi dovolj denarja, da zadovoljita svoje hedonistične potrebe na eksotičnih potovanjih. IRENA DIVKOVIĆ MILANOVIĆ družino Idrijskega tajkuna povzdigniti do vrha lestvice najpremožnejših Slovencev. Čeprav Svetlikovi delujejo v več evropskih državah, so njihovi večji posli in premoženje nastanjeni v ZDA, kjer sta se tudi šolala naslednika dinastije, Urška in Gašper. Prva, ki je na visokih položajih številnih podjetij družinskega carstva, je diplomirala na eliti fakulteti za umetnost Marymount na Manhattanu, sin pa je po Univerzi v Ljubljani končal še MBA v New Yorku. Ime Urške Svetlik lahko zasledimo v trgovskih registrih številnih ameriških zveznih držav: tako je vpisana kot predsednica podjetij Hldria USA in HT USA, ob njej pa kot predstavnika še Edvard Svetlik in Andra Krapč Rejce (Andrejka), ki pa je dolgoletna tesna sodelavka ter solastnica Hldrie in povezanih družb.

Razkošna vila s 330 kvadratnimi metri je vredna več kot 1,1 milijona dolarjev.

Vila v najem

Matično podjetje vseh ameriških podružnic je Hldria USA, registrirano v ameriškem davčnem kraju Delaware 28. junija 1999 na naslovu, kjer je bilo ustanovljenih na tisoče slavnatih podjetij. Hldria USA ima pravi sedež v južni Karolini v Greenville. Svetlikovi imajo od 25. februarja 2005 podjetje v še eni ame-menta je razvidno, da je podjetje v tej transakciji zastopala newyorška odvetniška pisarna Lazare Potter Giacovis & Kranjac LLP. Svetlikovi so prek HT USA kupili še eno nepremičnino, luksuzno vilo v Englewood Cliffsu v New Jerseyju: zgrajena je bila 1990, ima pet spalnic, štiri kopalnice, 390 kvadratnih metrov in dvoršče, na tržišču pa je vredna več kot 1,1 milijona dolarjev. Od letošnjega poletja jo ponujajo v najem za 9800 dolarjev na mesec. V njej je bil nekoč tudi generalni konzulat Bahamov v ZDA, zato jo odlikujeta razkošen in diplomatski slog ter lokacija. HT USA je vilo kupil od Tomaža Groffa, in sicer februarja 2000 za 445.000 dolarjev, transakcijo pa so vpisali v zemljiško knjigo šele tri leta pozneje, decembra 2003. Groff jo je kupil za 650.000 dolarjev februarja 2000 od podjetja Ferolie Realty Associates, L. L. C., a ker je bil Groff takrat zastopnik podjetja, kar je razvidno tudi iz prospekta slovenske Hldrie in ameriškega registra, je povsem mogoče, da je bil samo formalni kupec za Svetlikov HT USA. »Prodaja in distribucija proizvodov družbi Holding Hldria v Severni Ameriki, 29 Clifton Terrace, Englewood Cliffs, NJ,« je pisalo ob njegovem imenu. Na istem naslovu v Cliftonu je Groff 2001 za HT USA registriral trademark Super Tom (izpeljanka iz Tomos). V kupo-prodajni pogodbi je za imenom HT USA vpisan naslov za dostavo pošte v New Yorku, in sicer prav tisti, kjer stoji tudi omenjena odvetniška pisarna. Zdajšnja ocena vrednosti te nepremičnine, kar je osnova za plačevanje letnega davka, je 1.349.500 dolarjev; vilo Svetlikovih, čeprav stoji v

Ljubim deželo, ne maram države

Ne vem, če je tej znanosti vladi, pa tudi popripravnim taktičnim zagovornikom – jasnno da je kakor, koliko socialni miru zagotavljenega samo zaradi vsakega, koliko klevetane sistema. Če se mlade družine ne bi moge šepetati na urejanje manjstev, hišnih staršev, postavljenih za kredit, v socializmu razvojenih zaradi inflacije ali stanovanj, posledično počeni odkupljenih po južinskih zakonih, bi se že zdavnaj zapustila ulica. Peterlet, Drnovska, Bajuka, Ropa, Pahorja in Janšo je reselal in reselje Tito. Ampak tako ne bo šlo več, jaz mislen dobil mansarde, stari mi niso odstopili iz južinskega stanovanja. Z ljubljeno sva si kupila hišo, kakor, koliko blizu ljubljene, pa se zmeraj 60 kilometrov stran, za katero biva odplačevala pri do 40 letnega 60 letu. Pa sploh nimava delavskih plač. In kaj naj družino, prav tako brez starševsko, yu dediščine in možnosti za lastne prihranke, ki se mora sama postaviti na noge s skupnim prihodkom jurja ali nekaj več evrov? Na česte so si birokrati, se pravi firma, ki ne bi nikoli propadla. Pa gospodarsko?

Peterlet, Drnovska, Bajuka, Ropa, Pahorja in Janšo je reselal in reselje Tito.

Semotič spravi skupaj samo na trideset, podpora Gikom? Ob slovenski državi mi ure na kazanje. Od leta 1991 se ni nič spremenilo, in to v nobeni sferi, naj bo politika (Kučan, Drnovšek, Pahor, Janša, Peterle, Bavec ...), gospodarstvo (Zidarjev, Kozarčič, iz pogojenih vrtov z zagnom omenjene politike takim od Srata in Kordeza do svet Bavecja in Tosiakov), sport (Kocijanec in njegov zbir) ali kultura (Jovanović, pokojni Božič, Kardum ...). Kroži ena in ista elita, ki zna spopasti samo na državnih hišah, na čem, vse kar se je v teh letih naučila, pa je restoracija. Če ne bomo zdaj zategnili, bo samo še hujše. Zato vas bom po se malo nagovoril. Seveda je treba zategniti, seveda bo boljša. Ampak, ali lahko o tem odloči nekdo, ki bo temu kos? Ki bo politike, kvaziidolatrije (s Struklem in Semolcem na čelu) in ljudstvo z njegovim večnim, a samo zgrabarskim praznim, referendumske argumenti bodisi razsvetliti bodisi spraviti v kat in državi resnično spravili o svetlejši prihodnosti? Vem, naivem sem. Konec koncev, Slovenci smo take ovce, da si zaslužimo točno to, kar imamo. Ampak krivde ne moremo več zračati na Beograd. Zdalj smo krivi sami.

○ Revizija: Ravnatelj v deželi Miška Kranjca zaposlil brata in prijateljico
○ Hujše kršitve tudi pri porabi denarja, javnem naročanju in malicah

VELIKA POLANA Očitno je, da so številni slovenski vzgojno-izobraževalni javni zavodi zabredli v težave, bodisi zaradi goljufivih računovodij ali slabega nadzora bodisi zaradi samovolje ravnateljev in drugih odgovornih. V Prekmurju najbolj odneva dogajanje na murškosoboški osnovni šoli, kjer so odkrili številne nepravilnosti. V javnosti se je namreč pojavilo pismo, v katerem letijo očitki predvsem na ravnatelja OŠ Miška Kranjca Velika Polana, ki je zaposlil brata in njegovo partnerico, pred tem pa še prijatelja, ne nazadnje pa je šola doletela tudi revizija finančnega poslovanja, pri kateri so bili odkriti še novi spodrsiljaji: nepravilnosti pri obračunavanju stroškov prehrane za zaposlene, neupoštevanje pravil javnega naročanja. Ravnatelj Milan Matjašec je glede kadrovanja povedal, da je bila zaposlitev v skladu z zakonodajo in da gre v obeh primerih za delovno mesto za določen čas v času nadomestitve odsotnih delavcev. Da zaposli brata, pa se je odločil, ker izpolnjuje zapisane pogoje; a to se, med drugimi, zli sporno tudi predsednici Društva ravnateljev Slovenije je Nives Počkar. Nekateri ne-

ŠOLA MIŠKA KRANJCA VELIKA POLANA

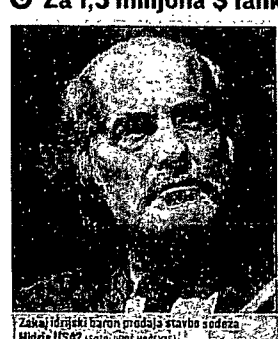

V šoli očitno ne spoštujejo zakonodaje, torej gre za odgovornosti vodstva šole z ravnateljem na čelu in odpravo finančnih nepravilnosti, ki so ugotovljene v revizijskem poročilu. Poleg nepravilnosti je šola trenutno še vedno brez zavoda in v pričakovanju novih volitev, saj so prve volitve v omenjeni svet zaradi nepravilnosti neveljavne. Zupan je v preteklih letih že večkrat dvignil glas, ko je šlo za denar. A očitno ga noče nihče slišati? Pred odločitvijo o ravnateljevi morebitni razrešitvi bodo v javnem zavodu izpeljali nove volitve, te naj bi bile predvidoma v petek.

Idrijski baron ob Hidrio?

○ Edvard Svetlik daje na razpolago stavbo ameriškega sedeža podjetja
○ Za 1,5 milijona $ lahko dobite skoraj 300 metrov pisarniških prostorov

Zakaj idrijski baron prodaja stavbo sedeža Hidria USA?

IDRIJA O idrijskem Edvardu Svetliku prodaja stavbo sedeža Hidria USA. Oglas lahko zasledimo na spletu, saj poslovni kompleks na 202 Beechtree v Greenville v južni Karolini prodaja več agencij Lyon Group ameriško nepremičnino oglašuje na younubu, iščejo pa najemnika ali kupca stavbe v industrijski coni, klase A, 2500 kvadratnih metrov industrijskega obrata, skoraj 300 metrov pisarniških prostorov in petih dokov za natovarjanje, kar med drugim pike v opisu. V fotografiji je mogoče videti reprezentativni napis ob vhodu, na stavbi pa izstopajo Tomos USA in Romatoma. Objekt je mogoče kupiti za 1,5 milijona dolarjev (1.137.052,76 evra) ali pa ga zgolj najeti. Fotografije so bile posnete 12. marca 2011, kar morda nakazuje, da je Hidria že takrat načrtovala prodajo ali oddajo.

Zemljiški podatki v ZDA so zelo pregledno predstavljeni, tako je mogoče prek spletne agencije za nepremičnine izvedeti tudi vse podatke o Hidriji in nepremičnini. Na primer, letni davek znaša 17.640 dolarjev. Od oglasu je priložen tudi dokument okrožnega davnega urada, iz katerega je razvidno, da se račun izstavlja na ime HT USA Inc., in sicer korporaciji iz Delaware. Naj spomnimo, da gre za staro ime, kajti tamkajšnje podjetje se ne imenuje več HT USA Inc., temveč Hidria USA. To so podatki ameriškega trgovskega registra države Delaware in davčnega urada okrožja iz južne Karoline, v katerem je tudi sedež Hidria USA. Sicer pa je Hidria vsa ta dejstva 19. decembra 2011 po objavi naše ga članka zanikala: «HT USA Inc. (danes Hidria USA Inc.) tudi sicer ni bila ustanovljena v davčni oazi, ampak v zvezni državi Delaware, kar je bilo za Hidrio ugodno zgolj z vidika kratkotrajnih postopkov za ustanovitve podjetja. Tako da bi Hidria očitno morala demantirati podatke davčnega urada v Greenville in državnega sekretarja za trgovino države Delaware, saj tam očitno razpolagajo z dokumenti, ki jih Svetlikova Hidria v Sloveniji zavrača. Predstavnike podjetja smo znova prusili za komentar teh neskladij, vendar nismo prejeli odgovora. Zapisali so le: »Vse odgovore na vaša vprašanja najdete v demantiji, ki je bil objavljen v Slovenskih novicah. Predlagamo, da si besedilo še enkrat pozorno preberete.»

Idrijski mogotec in šef Hidrie je pravi privatizacijski mogotec.

IDRIJA – O razkošnem slovenskem življenju idrijskega tajkuna Edvarda Svetlika je znano tako rekoč vse. Na spletnih straneh Vseslovenskega združenja malih delničarjev je na voljo celo besedilo o tem, da zaposleni v Hidrii prejemajo mizernih 500 evrov plače, njihov gospodar Svetlik pa medtem živi na veliki nogi. »Ko je sprivatiziral podjetje, si je poleg dvorca v Idriji dal zgraditi še pravo haciendo pri Ajdovščini z zunanjim bazenom, naokrog pa se vozi v luksuznem jaguarju kabrioletu.«

Začeli smo brskati za premoženjem družine Svetlik v tujini, o tem je namreč znanega le malo. Podatki, do katerih smo se dokopali, bi lahko družino idrijskega tajkuna povzdignili do vrha lestvice najpremožnejših Slovencev. Čeprav Svetlikovi delujejo v več evropskih državah, so njihovi večji posli in premoženje nastanjeni v ZDA, kjer sta se tudi šolala naslednika dinastije, Urška in Gašper. Prva, ki je na visokih položajih številnih podjetij družinskega carstva, je diplomirala na elitni fakulteti za umetnost Marymount na Manhattnu, sin pa je po Univerzi v Ljubljani končal še MBA v New Yorku. Ime Urške Svetlik lahko zasledimo v trgovskih registrih številnih ameriških zveznih držav: tako je vpisana kot predsednica podjetij Hidria USA in HT USA, ob njej pa kot predstavnika še Edvard Svetlik in Andra Krapš Rejc (Andrejka), ki pa je dolgoletna tesna sodelavka ter solastnica Hidrie in povezanih družb.

Vila v najem

Matično podjetje vseh ameriških podružnic je Hidria USA, registrirano v ameriškem davčnem raju Delaware 28. junija 1999 na naslovu, kjer je bilo ustanovljenih na tisoče slamnatih podjetij. Hidria USA ima pravi sedež v Južni Karolini v Greenvilleu. Svetlikovi imajo od 25. februarja 2005 podjetje v še eni ameriški davčni oazi, na Floridi, in sicer v Plantationu. Tam so kot glavni sedež Hidrie USA navedli naslov iz Greenvillea.

VEČ V TISKANI IZDAJI SLOVENSKEH NOVIC: Razkošna vila s 330 kvadratnimi metri je vredna več kot 1,1 milijona dolarjev.

Knjiga: V Slovenskih novicah objavljeni zapisi o premoženju slovenskih bogatašev v tujini bodo izšli v dopolnjeni izdaji knjige Kondo kondo. Njeno osnovno različico, ki razgalja elite iz bivše skupne države, je mogoče kupiti na Hrvaškem v kioskih Tiska in Tisak Medie.

Razkošna vila s 330 kvadratnimi metri je vredna več kot 1,1 milijona dolarjev.

družini idrijskega tajkuna povzročiti do vrha lestvice najpremožnejših Slovencev. Čeprav Svetlikovi delujejo v več evropskih državah, so njihovi večji posli in premoženje nastanjeni v ZDA; kjer sta v tujini naslednja dinstila, Ulika in Gajper. Prvi, ki je na visokih položajih številnih podjetij družinskega carstva, je diplomirani na eliti fakulteti za umetnost Mišumotni za Manhattanu, sin pa je po Univerzi v Ljubljani končal je MBA v New Yorku. Ime Ulika Svetlik lahko zagledamo v trgovskih registerjih ameriških zveznih držav; tako je vpisana kot predsednica podjetja Hldrie USA in HT USA, ob njej pa kot podpredsednika je Edward Svetlik in Andri Krapl Rej (Andrejka), ki pa je dolgoletna teina sodelavca ter sodelavca Hldrie in povezanih družin.

Vila v najem
Matko podjetje vseh ameriških podružnic je Hldrie USA, registrirano v ameriškem davčnem zakonu 28. januarja 1999 na naslovu, kjer je bilo ustanovljenih na tisoče slavnostnih podjetij. Hldrie USA ima prvi sedež v južni Karolini v Greenville. Svetlikovi imajo od 25. februarja 2005 podjetje v še eni amementu je razvidno, da je podjetje v tej transakciji zastopala newyorška odvračilna pisarna Lazarus Porter Glascovas & Krnjac LLP. Svetlikovi so prek HT USA kupili še eno nepremičnost, luksuzno vilo v Englewood Cliffsu v New Jerseyu; najbrž je bila 1999, ima pet spalnic, štiri kopalnice, 330 kvadratnih metrov in dvorazde, na vrhovi pa je vredna več kot 1,1 milijona dolarjev. Od letošnjega poletja jo ponujajo v najem za $800 dolarjev na mesec. V njej je bil nekoč tudi generalni konzulat Bahamov v ZDA, zato jo odločajo razkošno in diplomatski slog ter lokacija. HT USA je vilo kupil od Tomasa Grofa, in sicer februarja 2000 za 445.000 dolarjev, transakcijo pa so vpisali v znanstveni knjigo Rej Rej leta pozneje, decembra 2001. Grof jo je kupil za 650.000 dolarjev februarja 2000 od podjetja Remale Realty Associates, L. L. C., a kar je bil Grof takrat zastopnik podjetja, kar je razvidno tudi iz projekta slovenske Hldrie in ameriškega registra, je povsem mogoče, da je bil isto formalni kupca za Svetlikovo HT USA. »Prodaja in elektrifikacija proizvajalnih družin (Hldrie) v Severni Ameriki, 39 Cliffs Drive, Englewood Cliffs, NJ, je pisalo ob njegovem imenu. Na istem naslovu v Cliffsu je Grof 2001 za 1,1 HT USA registriral tridesetletni Super Tom (Hldrie in Tomos), v kupo-prodajni pogodbi je za imenovan HT USA vpisan naslov na dnu svoje posesti v New Yorku, in sicer prav tako, kjer stoji tudi ameriška odvračilna pisarna. Zadržanja oena vrednosti te nepremičnosti, kar je osnovna za plačevanje letnega davka, je 1.349.400 dolarjev, vila Svetlikovi, čeprav stoji v

New Jerseyu, je v resnici zgolj dvajset kilometrov oddaljena od črte New Yorka.

Lažni diplomat
Hldrie USA v glavni dobitelj Tomosove motorje v ZDA, o čemer prišlo čez ovesni tovor; julija 2008 je podjetje krenilo iz nemškega Bremerhavna proti Charlestonu v južni Karolini; račun iz septembra 2011 poroča, da Hldrie USA vnaša izdelke Hldrie Koronarine v New York. Tomos Grof je bil odgovoren za krivico krivice podjetja izkora Avioelektrika v južno Ameriko in na Karajko, o čemer je v Sloveniji tudi strokovno predaval v sklopu Top Class programa 2009/2010. Ob Uliki in Edwardu Svetliku ter Andreji Krapl ter Grofu sta bila zastopnika iz Rej Rej in Marjane Krnjac, odvračilni iz New Yorka. HT USA je imela podružnico v vseh državah Daljnega vzhoda: Nizozemska, razen Grof, ni omenjen vodil poslov v ZDA. Hldrie USA se je medletno število ameriškega podjetja v tem letu povečalo za 100 odstotkov, kar je razvidno, da je bilo vodeno: Hldrie USA prepuščeno podjetju Corporation Service Company in korporacija. Hldrie USA ima tudi spletno stran, na kateri je navedena tudi Tomos USA divizija.

Svetlikovi ameriški partner Tomos Grof je naj predstavitelj podjetja Eubene Globala, v katerem ima četrtinski delež tudi hiro napredni slovenski podjetnik Robert Grah. Podjetje doberja ulične LED-svetilke za ZDA. Predsednik ameriškega Eubene Globala je tudi Tomos Grof, ki je bil po pisanih člankih Delo vsehinski predsednik uprave zavrnitve Slovenca Zvezanja, ki naj bi stojih svoj podjetja in se okoristili z nekaj deset milijoni dolarjev. A zgodba o dani roki kovanja Svetlika v ZDA ne bi bila popolna brez omenbe, da je Tomos ali Marjan Grof. O tem se je 2008, na hrvaški spletni strani o lastniku podjetja Infanta Holdings, ki obvladuje četrtino izkora Avioelektrika, sicer nekdanji predsednik nadzornega sveta družbe in šempeta pri Grofu. Srečajo Grof je bil konzul v samozvelani diplomatski misli, ki jo vodi Panama in Handanović. Edo Svetlik, a Tycoon King with a Palace on the Doorsteps of New York

The business magnate from Idrija and Hidria's boss is a true privatisation magnate. His family's biggest businesses and property are located in the United States.

What are Edvard Svetlik's businesses abroad?

How is Tomaž Groff connected to Svetlik's businesses?

The luxurious 330 square metre villa is worth over 1.1 million dollars.

IDRIJA, There is very little known about the luxurious Slovenian lifestyle of the Idrija tycoon Edvard Svetlik. The website of the PanSlovenian Shareholders' Association even features a full article on how Hidria's employees work for a miserable EUR 500 salary, while their employer Svetlik is living large. "When he privatised the company, he built not only a mansion in Idrija but also a true hacienda near Ajdovščina with an outside pool, and he drives around in a luxurious jaguar convertible."

We started digging around for information regarding the property of the Svetlik family abroad, as very little is known about that. The information that we found might raise the family of this Idrija tycoon to the top of the list of Slovenia's wealthiest men. Even though the Svetlik family operates in several European countries, their biggest businesses and property are located in the United States, where the heirs to the dynasty, Urška and Gašper, received their education. The former, who occupies high positions in numerous companies of the family empire, graduated at the elite Marymount University's School of Art in Manhattan, while Gašper, after graduating at the University of Ljubljana, also received an MBA in New York. The name of Urška Svetlik can be found in the trade registers of numerous American states: she is entered as the president of Hidria USA and HT USA, with Edvard Svetlik and Andra Krapš Rejc (Andrejka) as active officers. The latter is a long-standing close partner and co-owner of Hidria and associated companies.

Villa for Lease

The parent company of all American subsidiaries is Hidria USA, which was registered in the American tax haven Delaware on 28 June 1999 at an address where thousands of shell companies have been registered. The true headquarters of Hidria USA is in South Carolina, in Greenville. Since 25 February 2005, the Svetlik family owns another company in another American tax haven, i.e. in Plantation, Florida, where the Greenville address is stated as the headquarters of Hidria USA. The representative of the Florida subsidiary is CT Corporation Service, while the Svetlik family and Andra Krapš Rejc entered Slovenian addresses in the register. In Greenville, Hidria operates in its own office. According to South Carolina's land register, Hidria USA bought the real estate on 31 January 2005 for 475,000 dollars. Urška is the company's president, and she also holds the same position at HT USA, which operated until 2000 and was renamed Hidria USA in February 2005. Before that, HT USA bought the real estate at the mentioned location in South Carolina for 983,000 dollars on 9 March 2001. The document clearly shows that the company was represented in this transaction by the New York law firm Lazare Potter Giacovas & Kranjac LLP. The Svetlik family bought another real estate through HT USA, i.e. a luxurious villa in the Englewood Cliffs in New Jersey. The villa was built in 1990, has five bedrooms, four bathrooms, an area of 330 square metres and a yard. Its market value stands at over 1.1 million dollars. This summer, they started renting out the villa for 5,800 dollars a month. The villa used to hold the Consulate General of the Bahamas in the United States, so it is distinguished by the luxurious and diplomatic design and its location. HT USA bought the villa from Tomaž Groff in February 2000 for 445,000 dollars, while the transaction was not entered in the land register until three years later in December of 2003. Groff bought it for 650,000 dollars in February 2000 from Ferolie Realty Associates LLC. Since Groff acted as the company's representative at the time, which is evident from the brochure published by the Slovenian Hidria and the American register, it is fully possible that he was only the formal buyer for Svetlik's HT USA. "Sale and distribution of products to a Hidria Holding company in North America. 29 Clifton Terrace. Englewood Cliffs, NJ" was entered next to his name. At the same address in Clifton, Groff registered the Super Tom (derivative from Tomos) trademark for HT USA in 2001. The sales contract states HT USA's address for mail delivery in New York, which is the same as the address where the mentioned law firm is located. The current estimated value of this property, which is the basis for annual tax calculation, is 1,349,500 dollars. The Svetlik villa, even though it is located in New Jersey, is only twenty kilometres from the outskirts of New York.

A False Diplomat

Hidria USA mainly supplies Tomos motors to the United States, as evident from ocean freights: in July 2008, a shipment was sent from the German Bremerhaven to Charleston, South Carolina, and a September 2011 invoice confirms that Hidria USA imports products of Hidria Rotomatika to New York. Tomaž Groff was responsible for the expansion of the market for Iskra Avtoelektrika to South America and China, even holding professional lectures on this subject as part of the 2009/2010 Top Class programme. Next to Urška and Edvard Svetlik, Andra Krapš and Tomaž Groff, Rok Robič and Mario Kranjac, a New York lawyer, were the company's representatives. HT USA had a subsidiary in Dallas, Texas and in Arizona. None of them, with the exception of Groff, personally managed any businesses in the United States. Hidria USA expanded to Connecticut. The state registers show that the management of Hidria USA was entrusted to the Corporation Service Company from Hartford. Hidria USA also has a website stating the Tomos USA division.

Svetlik's American partner, Tomaž Groff, now acts as a representative of Ekobase Global, where a 25-percent share is held by the fast advancing Slovenian entrepreneur Robert Grah. The company supplies street LED lamps to the USA. The President of the American Ekobase Global is Samo Burja, who the Delo daily newspaper characterised as "the former chairman of the management board of the Slovenica Življenje insurance company who supposedly abused his position and profited several dozen million tolar." The story of Edvard Svetlik's right hand in the United States would not be complete without mentioning that Tomaž is Marijan Groff's son. There was a lot written about that in 2008, when he was mentioned as the owner of Infond Holding 3, which controls one quarter of Iskra Avtoelektrika. He is a former president of the supervisory board of the company located in Šempeter pri Gorici.

Groff senior is now a consul in the self-proclaimed diplomatic mission led by Fahrudin Handanović. Even though the mission has not been accredited and has no official meaning, the false diplomat Handanović operates on Croatia-Slovenia relations, presenting himself as the head of the Panama mission with the EU. The Croatian media wrote about this case after Handanović mentioned the mayor of the city of Požega at the time. Groff is entered next to him as a consul, who the website of Swiss Hannover, a real estate company, states as its President. The company is stated to be operating in Panama, Slovenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina and in Croatia, but it is not entered in the trade register of Panama. Marijan Groff was also mentioned in April 2011 at the RTV SLO portal in the article Charges Brought against 14 People for Money Laundering and Bribery, Kordež does not know anything: Unofficial information states that we are dealing with the Slovenian Fund Management led by Marijan Groff – the former chief supervisor of Iskra Avtoelektrika. There were supposedly six million euro of guarantees and another two million euro worth of disputable contracts. The Groff father and son and an American, who has been operating in Croatia for over a decade, Michael Glazer, form the management of the Ljubljana-based venture capital company SDFC d.o.o. Some Croatian media mentioned Glazer in connection with suspicious transactions through Auctor, which, in connection with the Croatian EPH media house and Damir Farkaš, the former head of Hypo, took over Hypo Consultants, Hypo Alpe-Adria Bank's real-estate business in Croatia. It is therefore not excluded that the Svetlik family is somehow connected to the sudden success of entrepreneur Robert Grah.

Honeymoon in Vietnam

While Urška and Edvard are entered in Hidria USA, Gašper manages the business in Great Britain. According to their trade register, Gašper set up three companies there in 2002, all located at the same Oxford address: Hidria UK, Perles UK and Perles of Switzerland. They are still active and according to official data, their turnover equals almost nil, as the balance on one of the accounts is for example 37 pounds. The date of birth next to his name states that he was born in February 1976, and the address column bears the Ljubljana headquarters of Hidria. Gašper likes to stand out in public and is active on social networks. His Picasa Web album shows pictures from his honeymoon in Vietnam. Those curious can see him and his chosen lady in a pool in front of the luxurious Ana Mandara hotel in Nha Trang, on a rickshaw, how he is hurrying to the toilet with his hand on his crotch and also while resting. He also displays his physical fitness, as he is standing on his head in one of the photos. Gašper also had his photo taken at elite parties in New York in 2006, in the company of Andrej Fatur, a young Ljubljana lawyer who studied in New York, while his high standard is corroborated by the fact that he used to live in a 779,000 dollar flat. Gašper attended the party unusually dressed, wearing a striped shirt and sweater, while other guests were festively dressed. Perhaps his boldness was aimed to say that he was rich and successful and that a strict dress code does not apply to him. In Germany, Hidria Gif GmbH has its headquarters in Freiburg. The tycoon Edvard, his wife Ivica and daughter Urška are representatives of UG&S GmbH in Switzerland and Edvard and Andrejka Krapš Rejc are representatives of Hidria GmbH. Andrejka and Andrej Rejc also operate in the Akres Company. All companies have their headquarters in Zug. In Slovenia, Ivica Svetlik is known as Ivi and on the grace.si website, you can see a photo gallery of the happy couple.

The website also features a description of the Kenda Manor, where they live, of the vineyards, the wine cellar, grape picking and as the crown of their wealth, the rebula grape wine aged in oak barrels from Slavonian oak. Whoever visits these websites gets the impression that this is a family traditionally involved in wine-growing. This second image of the Svetlik family is far away from the first one, in which the main role pertains to one of the biggest Slovenian privatisation magicians, who was able to acquire numerous companies and products via a conventional manager contract, then earning millions across the globe. Urška and Gašper Svetlik thus have a wide choice and of course enough money to satisfy their hedonistic need for exotic trips.

Idrijski baron ob Hidrio?

● Edvard Svetlik daje na razpolago stavbo ameriškega sedeža podjetja
● Za 1,5 milijona $ lahko dobite skoraj 300 metrov pisarniških prostorov

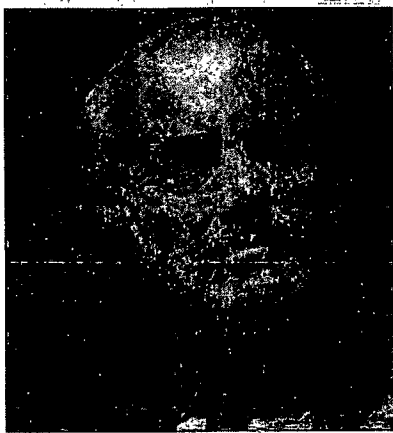

IDRIJA ● Idričan Edvard Svetlik prodaja stavbo sedeža Hidrie USA. Oglas lahko zasledimo na spletu, saj poslovni kompleks na 202 Bechtree v Greenville v Južni Karolini prodaja več agencij. Lyon Group ameriško nepremičnino oglašuje na youtube, iščejo pa najemnika ali kupca stavbe v industrijski coni, klase A, 2500 kvadratnih metrov industrijskega obrata, skoraj 300 metrov pisarniških prostorov in petih dokov za natovarjanje, kot med drugim piše v opisu. V fotogaleriji je mogoče videti reprezentativni napis ob vhodu, na stavbi pa izstopajo Tomos USA in Ro-tomatika. Objekt je mogoče kupiti za 1,5 milijona dolarjev (1.137.052,76 evra) ali pa ga zgolj najeti. Fotografije so bile posnete 12. marca 2011, kar morda nakazuje, da je Hidria že takrat načrtovala prodajo ali oddajo. Zemljiški podatki v ZDA so zelo pregledno predstavljeni, tako je mogoče prek spletne agencije za nepremičnine izvedeti tudi vse podatke o Hidrijini nepremičnini. Na primer, letni davek znaša 17.640 dolarjev. Ob oglasu je priložen tudi dokument okrožnega davčnega urada, iz katerega je razvidno, da se račun izstavlja na ime HT USA Inc., in sicer korporaciji iz Delaware. Naj spomnimo, da gre za staro ime, kajti tamkajšnje podjetje se ne imenuje več HT USA Inc., temveč Hidria USA. To so podatki ameriškega trgovskega registra države Delaware in davčnega urada okrožja iz Južne Karoline, v katerem je tudi sedež Hidrie USA. Sicer pa je Hidria vsa ta dejstva 19. decembra 2011 po objavi našega članka zanikala: »HT USA Inc. (danes Hidria USA Inc.) tudi sicer ni bila ustanovljena v davčni oazi, ampak v zvezni državi Delaware, kar je bilo za Hidrio ugodno zgolj z vidika kratkotrajnih postopkov za ustanovitev podjetja.« Tako da bi Hidria očitno morala demantirati podatke davčnega urada v Greenville in državnega sekretarja za trgovino države Delaware, saj tam očitno razpolagajo z dokumenti, ki jih Svetlikova Hidria v Sloveniji zavrača. Predstavnike podjetja smo znova prosili za komentar teh neskladij, vendar nismo prejeli odgovora. Zapisali so le: »Vse odgovore na vaša vprašanja najdete v demantiju, ki je bil objavljen v Slovenskih novicah. Predlagamo, da si besedilo še enkrat pozorno preberete.«

Is the Idrija Baron Giving Up Hidria?

Edvard Svetlik is advertising the building that houses the company's American offices
Close to 300 m² of office space selling for USD 1.5 million

IDRIJA

Idrija native Edvard Svetlik is selling the building that houses the Hidria USA offices. The advertisement can be found online – the business complex at 202 Beechtree in Greenville, South Carolina, is being advertised by several agencies. Lyons Group is advertising the American property to potential tenants and buyers on YouTube, describing it as a 2500 m² Class A industrial facility featuring close to 300 m² of office space and five loading docks. The photo gallery shows imposing signs above the entrance reading Tomos USA and Rotomatika. The facility can be purchased for USD 1.5 million (EUR 1,137,052.76) or rented. The photographs were taken on 12 March 2011, possibly showing that Hidria was planning to sell or rent the property even then.

Land register information in the US is clearly and transparently presented, allowing us to find information about the Hidria property through an online real estate agency. For instance, the annual tax on the property is USD 17,640. Attached to the advertisement is a document from the district tax office that shows that invoices are issued to HT USA Inc., a corporation based in Delaware. The name is an old one, and the company has since been renamed to Hidria USA. This is the information held by the Delaware trade register and the district tax office of South Carolina, where the Hidria USA registered office is located. On 19 December 2011, following the publication of our article, Hidria denied these facts: "HT USA Inc. (now Hidria USA Inc.) was not established in a tax haven; rather, it was established in the state of Delaware, which was advantageous to Hidria only as far as shorter procedures for founding a company are concerned." This means that Hidria apparently disputes the information held by the Greenville tax office and the state secretary of trade in Delaware; it would seem that they are in possession of documents that Svetlik's Hidria in Slovenia refutes. We contacted the company representatives again to request a comment regarding these discrepancies, but we received no answer. Their only reply was this: "The answers to every one of your questions can be found in the official denial that was published in Slovenske novice. We suggest that you carefully read the text again."

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

CASE NO. 2012-CP-23-1735

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

2013 JAN 10 PM 4:32
FILED
GREENVILLE CO. SC

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Defendant's motion to dismiss. Upon review of the recently produced jurisdictional discovery, this Court now makes its ruling granting Defendant's motion to dismiss. The Court finds that Delo, d/b/a Slovenske Novice is not subject to personal jurisdiction in South Carolina. In determining whether or not a foreign corporation is subject to personal jurisdiction in this State, a trial judge must conduct a two-pronged analysis. First, the Court must find that the South Carolina long-arm statute applies. Second, the Court must determine whether or not the foreign corporation's contacts within South Carolina are sufficient to satisfy the requirements of due process. See Southern Plastics Co. v. Southern Commerce Bank, 310 S.C. 256, 259, 423 S.E.2d 128, 130 (1992).

South Carolina's long-arm statute, S.C.Code Ann. § 36-2-803 (1976), allows a Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a non-resident person as to a cause of action arising from the non-resident's transacting any business in this State. The Plaintiff, Hidria USA, alleges that the Defendant published a defamatory article about the Plaintiff on its website. Hidria claims that residents of South Carolina utilized Slovenske Novice's website and were able to read the article. Hidria also alleges that Slovenske Novice publishes articles about South Carolina from time to time. The Court finds that South Carolina's long-arm statute does not apply to this case because the Defendant has not transacted any business in this State. Foreign corporations are subject to personal jurisdiction in South Carolina only when they are found to have been "transacting business" in this state. Based upon the pleadings and documents produced in this case, this Court finds that Delo, d/b/a Slovenske Novice, does not and has not conducted any business in South Carolina which would subject it to the long-arm statute. Slovenske Novice has no subscribers in South Carolina, does not solicit advertisers in South Carolina, has no bank accounts or registered agents in South Carolina, and has no record of ever sending agents or employees into this State in order to collect information for any publication. While the alleged defamatory article was accessible by residents of South Carolina, Slovenske Novice has no online subscriptions in South Carolina nor is there any evidence of the Defendant directing any online business activity towards this State.

Further, the requirements of due process do not allow this Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over the Defendant. The Court finds that Defendant Delo, d/b/a/ Slovenske Novice does not have and has not had traditional minimum contacts with the state of South Carolina which would allow this Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over the Defendant, pursuant to Int'l Shoe Co. v. State of Washington, 326 U.S. 310, 66 S.Ct. 154, 90 L.Ed. 95 (1945). Therefore, the Court grants Defendant's motion to dismiss pursuant to S.C. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: ☐ See attached order; (formal order to follow) ☒ Statement of Judgment by the Court:
This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion to Reconsider this Court's order dismissing the case for lack of personal jurisdiction. Plaintiff argues that this Court neglected to address S.C. Code Ann. § 36-2-803(A)(3), which permits a court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a Defendant who committed a "tortious act in whole or in part in this State." Plaintiff also argues that this Court failed to address whether Delo's actions were "expressly aimed" at South Carolina for jurisdictional purposes. For the reasons stated below, this Court denies Plaintiff's Motion to Reconsider.

Regarding § 36-2-803(A)(3), Plaintiff's complaint does not allege that Defendant committed any tortious act within the State of South Carolina. Further, § 36-2-803(A)(4) permits a court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a foreign entity for a tortious act committed elsewhere only if the foreign entity regularly solicits or engages in business in South Carolina or derives substantial revenue from goods used or services rendered in South Carolina. Again, nothing in the complaint alleges (nor does discovery show) that this section applies to Defendants. Finally, regarding whether or not Delo's out-of-state actions were "expressly aimed" at South Carolina, this Court again finds that the requirements of due process do not allow it to exercise personal jurisdiction over the Defendant.
