

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Transportation Services, Inc., Respondent,

v.

Joseph T. Bishop, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2013-000552

ORDER

Respondent's motion to allow the late filing of Respondent's final brief is granted. However, the final brief filed by Respondent is not in compliance with Rule 211 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Specifically, Respondent's final brief should be identical to the initial brief except for the inclusion of references to the record and corrections of typographical errors and misspellings. See Rule 211, SCACR. Accordingly, the "Final Reply Brief of Respondent" filed with this court on December 16, 2013 is stricken in its entirety. Within ten days, Respondent shall serve and file Respondent's final brief. After ten days, this court will continue with or without Respondent's final brief.
