

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Antonio Gordon, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2013-000975

---

ORDER

---

Appellant has filed a "motion to be furnished transcript." Because the transcript from the hearing on Appellant's motion pursuant to Rule 29(b) of the South Carolina Rules of Criminal Procedure is necessary for a meaningful judicial review of this appeal, Appellant's motion is granted. The Office of Appellate Defense shall provide this Court with proof it has ordered and arranged for payment of the transcript within ten days. Furthermore, within thirty days of receipt of the transcript, Appellant shall serve and file an amended initial brief, which includes citations to the transcript, and a designation of matter.

Appellant has filed a second motion to appoint counsel. Appellant's motion is denied. See State v. Clinkscales, 318 S.C. 513, 515, 458 S.E.2d 548, 549 (1995) (holding the defendant's motion for a new trial on the ground of after-discovered evidence was not heard and decided at a critical stage of his criminal prosecution; therefore, the defendant's constitutional right to counsel did not extend to his motion for a new trial).
