

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Auto-Owners Insurance Company, Appellant,

v.

Elouise Woody Benjamin, Melvin Benjamin, Joshua Lee
Cail, Naida L. Singleton and Pee Dee Heating and Cooling Specialists, Defendants,

Of whom Elouise Woody Benjamin and Melvin Benjamin are the Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2013-001321

ORDER

Respondents filed a motion to strike Appellant's initial reply brief. Appellant filed a return, stating Appellant's initial brief inadvertently contained a typographical error and proposing several scenarios for curing the error. After careful consideration of all the parties' filings, Appellant's initial brief is stricken and Appellant shall serve and file an amended initial brief within ten days. Respondent shall have twenty days thereafter to either serve and file an amended Respondents' initial brief or alert this court in writing that it does not intend to file an amended Respondents' initial brief. Appellant shall have ten days thereafter to serve and file Appellant's initial reply brief. Respondents' motion to toll the time for final briefing until the amended initial briefs are received is granted.
