

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Mr. William C. McKinney, III
107 Shale Ct.
Greenville, S.C. 29607

RECEIVED

February 27th, 2014

MAR 03 2014

Hon. Daniel F. Shearouse
Clerk of Court
Columbia, S.C. 29201

S.C. SUPREME COURT

RE: William C. McKinney, III (#2) vs SCDC
Appellate Case No. 3:2011-2018-16

Dear Clerk(s): I have a "New (Changed) Address (107 Shale Ct., Greenville, S.C. 29607).

Which I do need to proceed with this appeal only. Because, it has merit for (SCDC) violating my S.C. Const. Rights) and/or my "Plea - Agreement" that shows and proves, that I did not have an understanding of my sentence, that I was sentenced to on 2/3/99 by the Hon. Mr. W. Watson.

Wherefore, I am still reporting and paying parole fees after SCDC took away my paroleable offense and earlier max-out (2/2009) without the sentencing Court's Order(s).

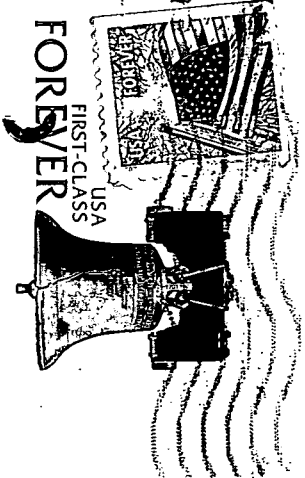

Sincerely Yours
Mr. William C. McKinney, III
107 Shale Ct.
Greenville, S.C. 29607

WMCM-III / cc: file S.C. Supreme Court /
SCDC Attorney(s)

Mr. William C. McKinney III
107 Shade Ct.
Greenville, S.C. 29607

GREENVILLE SC

27 FEB 2014 PM

The Supreme Court of South Carolina
Daniel E. Shearouse, Clerk of Court
P.O. Box 11330
Columbia, S.C. 29211

2521 1133030

