Appellant

v.

S.C.P.P.S.

Defendant

Parole Denial

Appeal

RECEIVED

JAN 08 2014

SC Court of Appeals

On Nov. 6, 2013 the appellant was present at a Parole hearing. At the outcome of this hearing the appellant was denied Parole for: Prior Criminal Record indicate poor Community adjustment.

Please be advised that the appellant was never in any position by law to be denied for the above.

Therefore, this decision is bias and have prejudiced the appellant. Also, Parole was granted to an individual the same day who was convicted of the same charge and a much worse Criminal record and poor Community adjustment, failing to complete drug Court.

This individual, being a one Jerry Beame is a Caucasian, versus the appellant who is an African American.

The appellant appeals this decision and prays that this honorable Court do hereby grant his parole.

Sincerely,
Charles Lee Currence
Charles Lee Currence, Appellant

ORDER

SC Court of Appeals

In the notice of appeal, appellant indicates that he is appealing the denial of parole by the South Carolina Board of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. Since there is no statutory provision authorizing an appeal to be taken directly from the Board to either this Court or the South Carolina Court of Appeals, the notice of appeal filed with this Court is hereby dismissed without prejudice.
