Re: The State v. John Champaigne
Appellate Case No. 2014-000275
Lower Court Case Nos. 2012-GS-10-002814, -002816 and -005174

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

As you know, petitioner's counsel filed a notice of appeal in this matter, and that appeal is now pending before the South Carolina Court of Appeals under the above appellate case number. Enclosed is a pro se document that petitioner has sent to this Court. Since the appeal is pending before the Court of Appeals, I am forwarding this document to your office.

Very truly yours,

CLERK

Notice and Motion For Appeal ^{FEB 27 2014}

RECEIVED SUPREME COURT

FEB 28 2014

JOHN EDWARD CHAMPAIGNE
Defendant,

SC Court of Appeals

Please take notice that I the Defendant JOHN EDWARD CHAMPAIGNE am writing Julie J. Armstrong to file this Notice and Motion to Appeal on my behalf.

The grounds on the Appeal is based on the verdict (decision) and sentence of Honorable Judge Young of (Sumter S.C) compelling Hands of one Hands of all with my case. That should not have existed or coincide with my case due to the fact there is no Principle Perpetrator in my case. I the Defendant JOHN EDWARD CHAMPAIGNE has no co-defendants in my case.

Principle Perpetrator the person who committed the crime. So how could my case be based on such Hands of one Hands of all without the person who actually committed the crime.

I plead under the Alford Plea to save my family further pain and anguish.

I plead so the victim(s) that did not show up in court can have a piece of mind.

I plead to save the courts time and money and I was up against more than prosecution, but also my own Attorney Rodney D. Davis.

I have notified my Attorney Rodney D. Davis of these concerns on Feb 7th, 2014 by written letter, (4) Four days after my case was heard in court, the date of Feb 3rd, 2014

I have not yet gotten any response back from Mr. Davis. I feel my sentence is/was too severe for a man who just received items and mere presence.

Where is the Principal Perpetrator how did I get to be him.

Respectfully Submitted
John Champaigne
