Appellate Case # 2012-213198

Dear Mr. Sheardouse
Clerk of Court

I am writing to find out was my prose to my Johnson Brief was received and filed with the court in a timely manner I have not been served proof of service from the respondent by my last attorney on record Lavelle Durant by the court. It has been well over 120 days since I mailed my prose brief to the court on October 15 2013. Do I get a chance to reply as stated under Rule 243(h) if the respondent return brief for some unknown reason rephrase my question with counter-statement? I also raised a issue against the trial court judge. Was that issue sent to court of appeal?

Sincerely
Cedric Kears
