SC Court of Appeals

To whom it may concern;

The reason for my appeal are as follows;
Ineffective Counsel
Based on the following facts;

The public defender assigned to my case claimed she did not know that I was on probation when in fact I first met her I told her. Also if the Attorney would have read my complete motion of Discovery which included my NCIC, which would have stated my criminal history, without this knowledge how could she represent me properly and to the best of her ability.

Second of all when she brought forth the plea she refused to make a counter plea and failed to ask the solicitor for more time to consider the plea since the offer was made only minutes before going to court make it seem that if I didn't take it he would no longer honor it.

Sincerely,
Lawrence Beyard
