Re: Juanica Woodruff v. SCDMV
Appellate Case No. 2013-002086

Dear Ms. Woodruff:

This is your second deficiency letter. If you fail to correct these deficiencies within ten days of the date of this letter, your document may not be considered by this Court.

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- A proof of service has not been provided naming the notice of appeal as served. The proof of service must contain all opposing parties' attorney contact information. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- A proof of service showing that a copy has been served on the Administrative Law Court has not been provided as required by Rule 203(e), SCACR.
- The notice of appeal must be accompanied by a complete copy of the court order being challenged on appeal.

Very truly yours,
