Re: The State v. Steven S. Murphy
Appellate Case No. 2013-002323

Dear Mr. Murphy:

This is your second deficiency letter. If you fail to correct these deficiencies within ten days of the date of this letter, your appeal will be dismissed.

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, counsel for appellant and respondent are not listed.
- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by the order(s) and/or judgment(s) challenged on appeal.
- The notice of appeal needs to be a separate document from the motion to waive fee and halt fine.
- The document has not been timely filed. A motion to allow the late filing will have to be made.

Very truly yours,

JOHN CANNON FEW, CHIEF JUDGE
