Re: SC Public Interest v. Robert Harrell
Appellate Case No. 2013-001273

Dear Counsel:

On January 3, 2014, counsel filed a letter indicating the State of South Carolina joins in the legal arguments made by the other respondents to the appeal. On March 7 and 12, 2014, counsel for the State inquired as to whether a formal motion or final brief will be required. Pursuant to Rule 208(b)(6) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, any party may join in the brief of another party. Accordingly, we will consider the January 3, 2014 letter to be the State's indication that it joins in the brief of the other respondents. Consequently, we are not expecting a final brief on behalf of the State.

Very truly yours,
