RE: Sorcia v. Brady K. Mathis, et al., 2011-CP-23-08455

Dear Miss McBride,

This letter is in reference to your letter I received on February 19, 2014, in which you informed me that the estimated cost of the transcript will be $60.00.

Pleas be advised that I am in prison and that a check will be cut from the available funds of my prison account in the amount you requested.

However, Miss McBride, please also remember that I am on a strict time-table with the process in the Appellate Court, and it is essential that you communicate with me in a timely manner; in order for me to be timely in my notification to the Court as to the status of obtaining the transcript in this matter.

Please be further advised that by copy of this letter the following individuals have been notified that I have corresponded with you concerning arrangement of payment:
