Clerk, South Carolina Court of Appeals
P.O. Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

Re: Israel Wilds v. State of South Carolina v. Israel Wilds; 2003-CP-40-05973.
Appellate Case No.: 2008-092411

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I apologize to the Court for not filing a Return to the State's Petition for Rehearing in this matter. Frankly, I had decided a Return was not necessary and I believed it was optional. Apparently there was language in the transmittal letter from the Court indicating the Court wanted a Return. I am sorry that my paralegal and I missed the importance of the wording of that correspondence from the Court.

I am heavily booked the remainder of this week. I would ask for an additional five (5) days to file a Return to the State's Petition. That would make the Return due on the fifteenth which I believe would give me until Monday, March 17, 2014 to file the Return since the fifteenth falls on Saturday. I contacted opposing counsel, David Spencer, earlier today and left him a message concerning this issue. He was kind enough to email me this afternoon and advised me that he would consent to this request. Thank you very much for your time and assistance in this matter. I remain,

Sincerely yours,
