Re: The State, Respondent vs. Darius Ransom-Williams, Appellant
Trial Case No.: 2011GS3800114, 2011GS3800124
Appellate Case No. 2012-212566
Our File No.: 095-559

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am writing to provide an update on this matter per this Court's request. As I mentioned in my previous letter, we are awaiting the delivery of the transcript of the reconstruction hearing to continue to perfect the appeal. We had calendared the date for delivery as March 7, 2014. Upon information and belief, the transcript was not delivered to Appellate Defense on that date. I have coordinated with Mr. Dudek's office regarding transcript delivery. I was informed that it was the policy of Appellate Defense to wait ten days after the scheduled date of delivery to send a letter in accordance with Rule 207(5), SCACR to account for any delays in delivery—of the transcript or extension request from the court report—which may have been caused by mail. Based on my conversation, it is my understanding that letter will be mailed today—March 17, 2014. I will continue to keep the Court updated on the future developments. Thank you so much for consideration.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

Sheila M. Bias
