Appellate Case No. 2012-210588

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF APPELLANTS' RESPONSE TO RESPONDENT SCDC'S MOTION TO STRIKE ITEMS FROM THE APPELLANTS' ADDITIONAL DESIGNATION OF MATTER TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL

COMES NOW, Appellants by counsel, who submit the following Memorandum in Support of Appellants' Response to Respondent SCDC's Motion to Strike Items From The Appellants' Additional Designation of Matter.

I. Introduction

On February 8, 2013, Appellants filed their Amended Initial Brief and Designation of Matter with the Court.

On July 23, 2013, SCDC filed a motion for a 30 day period within which to file a Motion to Strike items from Appellants' Designation of Matter.

On August 1, 2013, Appellants filed their response to SCDC's July 23, 2013 motion.

On November 27, 2013, SCDC filed its Initial Brief, Designation of Matter and Motion to Strike Items From The Appellants' Designation of Matter to be Included in The Record on Appeal.

On December 5, 2013, Appellants filed their Motion For Extension of Time to File Initial Reply Brief, Additional Designation of Matter, and Response to Respondent SCDC's Motion to Strike.

On January 7, 2014, Appellants filed their Initial Reply Brief and Additional Designation of Matter to be Included in The Record on Appeal.

On January 24 and 31, 2014, the Court issued orders extending the deadline to February 9, 2014 for Appellants to file their return to SCDC's November 27, 2013 Motion to Strike, and for SCDC to file its Motion to Strike concerning Appellants' Designation of Matter filed January 7, 2014.

On February 7, 2014, Appellants filed their Response to Respondent SCDC's Motion to Strike Items From The Appellants' Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal, Memorandum, Affidavit and Proof of Service.

On February 10, 2014, SCDC filed its Motion to Strike 37 of the 38 matters designated in Appellants' January 7, 2014 Additional Designation of Matter (SCDC Feb. 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, 4).

II. Matters Not Presented to ALC and Matters Duplicative of Items 4

SCDC contends certain matters were not "presented" to the ALC because they were the subject of Appellants' May 23, 2011 Motion to Supplement Record in the ALC, and that court, in its August 5, 2011 order, "explicitly rejected the appellants' efforts to include these items" (SCDC Feb. 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, 19). SCDC also notes many of the documents were previously designated in Appellants' February 8, 2013 designation (Id., 9-15).

A. Matters Not Presented to ALC

The following is a list of the contested matters, each numbered as in

Appellants' January 7, 2014 Additional Designation of Matter. (4) May 23, 2011 Appellants' cover letter and ALC Motion to Supplement Record, etc., with Exhibits 1, 2 (with proposed record documents attached), and 3, and Certificate of Service. The following proposed record documents are specifically designated:

(a) Document #8, August 8, 2008 SCDC spreadsheet; (b) Document #9, Earned Work Credit (EWC) sample record for T. Aiken, #244428; (c) Document #10, Inmate Job/School Assignment (19-54) sample record for T. Aiken, #244428; (d) Documents #12-14, Original and two class action complaints of January 29, 2002, July 1, 2002 and February 12, 2003 in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County); (e) Document #15, September 9, 2004 remittiturs for Adkins, et al. v. SCDC 2000-CP-40-04761 and Wicker v. SCDC 2001-CP-30-00330; (f) Document #16, Judge Goodstein's April 19, 2005 order, corrected June 23, 2005, in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County); (g) Documents #19-20, May 25 and 26, 2005 notices of appeal in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134; (h) Document #21, June 7, 2005 L. Summers' letter to D. Westbrook; (i) Document #22, March 22, 2007 remittitur for class action appeal in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester Cty); (j) Documents #23-24, April 19, 2007 transcript pages and April 20, 2007 order in In re Inmate Grievances of Gene Richardson, et al. v. SCDC No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County); (k) Document #26, December 8, 2008 L. Summers' fax/e-mail; (l) Document #30, April 25, 2007 D. Westbrook's letter; (m) Document #31, June 4, 2007 D. Westbrook's letter to L. Summers re Amend/Exhibits;

(n) Documents #36-48, Certificates of Service for inmates Lyles, L. Mack, Stephone Simmons, Jordan, Bogan, Busques, R. Butler, K. Carter, Clark, Hare, A. Murphy, J. Scott, R. Simmons.

Appellants contend they presented these documents to the ALC for inclusion in the ALC record. The fact that they were rejected by that court does not mean they were not "presented" under SCACR 210(c). On the contrary, Appellants contend their rejection confirms they were "presented" to that court for consideration. Appellants contend that is all the rule requires.

SCDC seems to equate "presented" in SCACR 210(c) with "admitted" into the ALC record. However, the fact that proffered evidence was not admitted in the court below does not bar such evidence from being a part of the Record on Appeal. If it did, the ability of the appellate court to rule on the propriety of its exclusion would be severely curtained (Am Jur 2d (2007), vol. 5, App. Rev., §441, citing U.S. v. Burke 781 F 2d 1234 (CA 7, 1985)).

Many of these matters were designated in Appellants' original designation of February 8, 2013. The previously designated matters were additional designated matters (January 7, 2014 Additional Designation of Matter) 4(b), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (k), (l), and (m). Additional designated matters (4) and 4(c) had not been previously designated, and only parts of additional designated matters 4(a), 4(j), and 4(n) had been previously designated.

When the previously designated matters were designated on February 8, 2013, they were designated as individual documents and not as attachments to a motion or brief proffering them to the ALC for inclusion in that court's record.

At the time of Appellants' February 8, 2013 designation, the issue of "presenting" these records to the ALC had not been raised. SCDC first raised the issue in its July 23, 2013 motion for a 30 day period within which to file a Motion to Strike items from Appellants' February 8, 2013 designation.

Furthermore, in SCDC's November 27, 2013 designation of matter #6, SCDC designated the "Order by the ALC filed August 5, 2011 concerning the Appellants' May 23, 2011 Motion to Supplement the Contents of the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal". As stated above, contemporaneous with its brief and designation, SCDC filed a Motion to Strike matters from Appellants' original designation.

In J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, Second Edition, pp. 130-131, it states:

Because the Rules do not confine the Appellant to serving the designation only with the initial brief in chief, it is permitted to serve a designation contemporaneously with the filing of the initial reply brief as well. This allows the appellant to designate matters it may not have initially thought to be relevant. However, the appellant may not "sandbag" the respondent by including in the second designation material not responsive to respondent's designation, but which should have been designated initially.

In their additional designation filed January 7, 2014, Appellants have designated many of the same records again, this time however, as attachments to Appellants' May 23, 2011 ALC Motion to Supplement Record, Exhibit 2, and their September 13, 2011 ALC Level Two brief, Appendix 2. The motion Exhibit 2 and brief Appendix 2 document that these records were attached to those filings as proffers to the ALC for inclusion in that court's record. Appellants contend that these filings and attached records demonstrate that the records were "presented" to the ALC on two separate occasions. As such, Appellants contend they are relevant, and dispositive, of SCDC's Motion to Strike, and should be in this Court's Record on Appeal.

Moreover, Appellants did not initially think the motion with attachments, and brief with attachments, were relevant (J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, Second Edition, pp. 130-131). The issue of "presenting" these documents to the ALC had not been raised when Appellants filed their original designation on February 8, 2013.

Appellants contend the motion with attachments, and brief with attachments, were also responsive to SCDC's designation of the August 5, 2011 ALC order (Id., 131). SCDC contends this order anchors its motions to strike, apparently on the theory that the documents were not presented to the ALC because that court rejected them for its record (November 27, 2013 motion, 5; February 10, 2014 motion, 6). In response, Appellants contend the motion with attachments, and brief with attachments, refute SCDC's contention that these documents were not presented to the ALC, as they demonstrate the documents were proffered to that court for consideration, which is all that SCACR 210(c) requires.

The August 5, 2011 ALC order substantially denied the proffers of documents Appellants made in their May 23, 2011 Motion to Supplement Record. However, the order invited Appellants to re-submit these same materials with their ALC Level Two brief, which they did (August 5, 2011 order, 19) ("Likewise, Appellants may submit supporting materials which they also deem relevant and dispositive in support of their principle brief on the merits, including the document identified as "Exhibit 1" by Appellants' counsel in his May 23, 2011 motion"); (Appellants' September 13, 2011 Level Two brief, p. 3, n. 1) ("SR & JN means inmates request supplementing the record and judicial notice of the document numbered in Exhibit 2 to their May 23, 2011 motion to supplement record, herein incorporated by reference. All such documents are in Appendix 2 to this brief").

Finally, Appellants contend the May 23, 2011 motion and Exhibit 2, and September 13, 2011 brief and Appendix 2, should not have been designated initially because the issue of presenting these documents to the ALC had not been raised at the time of the February 8, 2013 designation (J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, Second Edition, p. 131).

As in its first motion, SCDC points to the recent ruling in Fred Gatewood v. SCDC Dock. No. 07-ALJ-04-00517-AP (SCDC February 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, p. 9, n. 8 and p. 19, n. 10). In Gatewood, the ALC denied Gatewood's attempt to supplement the record with a portion of Appendix 1 because ALC Rule 58D allows inclusion in the record of proffers of proof of evidence excluded at the agency level, not in a prior stage of the appeal (SCDC Motion to Strike of November 27, 2013, Exhibit 3, p. 2). Thus, the Gatewood ruling involved the appropriate proceeding in which to make a proffer, while our case involves the issue of whether the proffer itself was ever made. In sum, Appellants contend the Gatewood ruling has little to do with whether records were "presented" to the ALC under SCACR 210(c).

Appellants submit that inclusion of Appellants' additional designations is proper under SCACR 209 and 210, and these documents should be in this Court's Record on Appeal.

With Exhibit A to this response, Appellants attach a copy of those documents designated in their January 7, 2014 additional designation which were not sent with the February 7, 2014 response Exhibit A. The documents attached hereto to Exhibit A include Document #8, containing 22 pages (Appellants' Feb. 8, 2013 designation of matter #42; Jan. 7, 2014 additional designation of matter #4(a)); #10, 1 sample page (ADM #4(c)); #23, containing 28 pages (DM #23; ADM #4(j)); #36-40 (ADM #4(n)).

The following documents were sent with the February 7, 2014 response (to SCDC's November 27, 2013 Motion to Strike) Exhibit A, and are not attached hereto to Exhibit A: May 23, 2011 cover letter and Motion to Supplement Record, Exhibits 1, 2 (with proposed record documents attached) and Certificate of Service (Jan. 7, 2014 additional designation of matter #4); Document #9 sample page (Feb. 8, 2013 designation of matter #42; ADM #4(b)); #12 (DM #15; ADM #4(d)); #13 (DM #16; ADM #4(d)); #14 (DM #17; ADM #4(d)); #15 (DM #10-11; ADM #4(e)); #16 (DM #1; ADM #4(f)); #19-20 (DM #25-26; ADM #4(g)); #21 (DM #37; ADM #4(h)); #22 (DM #12; ADM #4(i)); #24 (DM #9; ADM #4(j)); #26 (DM #40; ADM #4(k)); #30 (DM #38; ADM #4(l)); #31 (DM #39; ADM #4(m)); #41-48 (DM #22; ADM #4(n)); #50 (DM #19; ADM #4(o)).

B. Matters Duplicative of Items 4

SCDC contends certain designated matters are duplicative of materials designated in matters #4 and 4(a) - 4(n) (SCDC Feb. 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, 16-18). The following is a list of these matters, each being numbered as in Appellants' January 7, 2014 Additional Designation of Matter. (5) September 13, 2011 Appellants' cover letter and Level Two ALC brief with Appendices 1 and 2 (with proposed record documents attached), and Certificate of Service. The following Appendix 2 proposed record documents are specifically designated:

(a) Document #8, August 8, 2008 SCDC spreadsheet; (b) Document #9, SCDC Earned Work Credit (EWC) assignment records whose work dates are reflected in Appendix 1 column 9, consisting of 125 pages; (c) Document #10, SCDC Inmate/ Job Assignment (19-54) records whose work dates are reflected in Appendix 1 column 9, consisting of 87 pages; (d) Document #12, original complaint of January 29, 2002 in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County); Document #13, class action amended complaint of July 1, 2002 in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County); Document #14, class action amended complaint of February 12, 2003 in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester Cty);

(e) Document #15, September 9, 2004 remittiturs for Adkins, et al. v. SCDC 2000-CP-40-04761; and Wicker v. SCDC 2001-CP-30-00330; (f) Document #16, Judge Goodstein's April 19, 2005 order, corrected June 23, 2005, in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County);

(g) Documents 19-20, May 25 and 26, 2005 notices of appeal in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County); (h) Document #21, June 7, 2005 L. Summers' letter to D. Westbrook; (i) Document #22, March 22, 2007 remittitur for class action appeal in Darrell Williams, et al. v. SCDC, et al. No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County); (j) Documents #23-24, April 19, 2007 transcript pages and April 20, 2007 order in In re Inmate Grievances of Gene Richardson, et al. v. SCDC No. 02-CP-18-134 (Dorchester County);

(k) Document #26, December 8, 2008 L. Summers' fax/e-mail; (l) Document #30, April 25, 2007 D. Westbrook letter to L. Summers; (m) Document #31, June 4, 2007 D. Westbrook letter to L. Summers; (n) Documents 41-48, Certificates of Service for inmates Busques, R. Butler, K. Carter, Clark, Hare, A. Murphy, J. Scott, R. Simmons.

First, Appellants note additional designations 5(b) and 5(c) are not duplicative of additional designations 4(b) and 4(c), as samples were designated in 4(b) and 4(c), while 125 and 87 pages were designated in 5(b) and 5(c).

On the merits, Appellants contend the duplicative nature of many of these documents is relevant to SCDC's motion, and responsive to SCDC's designation of the ALC's August 5, 2011 order, as it constitutes a second "presenting" of these documents to the ALC under SCACR 210(c). As stated previously, pg. 13 above, by attaching Appendix 2 and these documents to Appellants' September 13, 2011 ALC brief, they were following the ALC's invitation to do so in the ALC's August 5, 2011 order, pp. 19-20.

With Exhibit C to this response, Appellants attach a copy of those documents designated in their January 7, 2014 additional designation which were not sent with the February 7, 2014 response Exhibit C. The documents attached hereto to Exhibit C include Document #8, containing 22 pages (Appellants' Feb. 8, 2013 designation of matter #42; Jan. 7, 2014 additional designation of matter #5(a)); #9, containing 125 pages (DM #42; ADM #5(b)); #10, containing 87 pages (DM #42; ADM #5(c)); #23, containing 28 pages (DM #23; ADM #5(j)).

The following documents were sent with the February 7, 2014 response Exhibit C, and are not attached hereto to Exhibit C: September 13, 2011 cover letter and Level Two ALC brief with Appendices 1 and 2 (with proposed record documents attached) and Certificate of Service (Feb. 8, 2013 designation of matter #33; Jan. 7, 2014 additional designation of matter #5); Document #12 (DM #15; ADM #5(d)); #13 (DM #16; ADM #5(d)); #14 (DM #17; ADM #5(d)); #15 (DM #10-11; ADM #5(e)); #16 (DM #1; ADM #5(f)); #19-20 (DM #25-26; ADM #5(g)); #21 (DM #37; ADM #5(h)); #22 (DM #12; ADM #5(i)); #24 (DM #9; ADM #5(j)); #26 (DM #40; ADM #5(k)); #30 (DM #38; ADM #5(l)); #31 (DM #39; ADM #5(m)); #41-48 (DM #22; ADM #5(n)).

For the reasons stated herein, Appellants submit that all documents contested in this section II. are proper under SCACR 209, 210(c) and should be in this Court's Record on Appeal.

III. Matters Appellants Did Not Proffer For ALC Record

SCDC contends Appellants made no effort to include certain items in the ALC record (SCDC Feb. 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, 8). The following is a list of these matters, each being numbered as in Appellants' January 7, 2014 additional designation of matter: (1) January 11, 2001 step 1 grievance of Darrell Williams, containing May 24/29, 2001 SCDC step 1 response; (2) June 26, 2001 step 2 grievance of Darrell Williams, containing August 3, 2001 SCDC step 2 final decision; (3) December 5, 2001 ALC Order of Dismissal of Darrell Williams' wage appeal.

To undersigned counsel's knowledge, these documents were not presented to the ALC, as they preceded counsel's involvement in this case. What was presented to the ALC, and is in the ALC 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal, p. 334, is Darrell Williams' September 22, 2004 step 1, which states:

"Darrell Williams in 2001 formally protested the improper wages, and filed a grievance which was dismissed for want of jurisdiction". There are some 90 other step 1's in the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal which have identical statements. SCDC itself has designated the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal in its November 27, 2013 designation, #5.

The above three listed contested documents show that Darrell Williams filed a wage grievance in 2001, SCDC rejected it, and the ALC dismissed his appeal for "lack of subject matter jurisdiction". Thus, Appellants contend the substance of these documents has been presented to the ALC in the form of the above quoted statement in Mr. Williams' and others' step 1's in the ALC record.

In its brief, SCDC stated "...no evidence exists in the Record that any of the 197 Appellants filed a Step 1 grievance with SCDC in which a prison industries pay claim appear prior to September 22, 2004". SCDC also stated there was no Record evidence of any Appellant appealing an SCDC summary dismissal to the ALC (SCDC Brief, p. 16, n. 31). Appellants contend that, by making these statements, SCDC has "opened the door" to inclusion of the contested documents in this Court's Record on Appeal.

Finally, Appellants are allowed to respond in their reply brief to any new arguments SCDC made in its brief, such as responding to "factually incorrect" statements (J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, Second Edition, p. 215). Appellants contend the above quoted statement from Mr.

Williams' and some 90 others' step 1's, is record evidence of an Appellant filing a pre-September 22, 2004 pay claim, thus rendering SCDC's above quoted brief statement factually incorrect. Appellants further contend they were entitled to respond to SCDC's brief statement in their reply brief, which they did at page 2 of their reply brief, citing Mr. Williams' September 22, 2004 step 1 and the herein listed three designated documents. Appellants contend that if their reply brief response was appropriate, they should also be allowed to support it with documentation in these circumstances. The three documents contested in this section are attached hereto in Exhibit D.

Appellants submit the contested documents are appropriate for inclusion in the record, and should be in this Court's Record on Appeal.

IV. Various Certificates of Service

SCDC contends certain matters should not be in the record unless they appear in the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal, or in the materials SCDC filed with the ALC on August 27, 2011 and September 6, 2011 (SCDC Feb. 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, 15). The following are the matters contested, each being numbered as in Appellants' January 7, 2014 Additional Designation of Matter: 4(n) Certificates of Service for Lyles, L. Mack, Stephone Simmons, Jordan, Bogan.

Initially, Appellants note there is no requirement that Appellants' designation be the same as SCDC's. Obviously, the rules envision different designations for different parties. Appellants contend that, normally, if the documents are relevant and were presented to the ALC, they should be in this Court's Record on Appeal.

Exhibit 2 to Appellants' May 23, 2011 Motion to Supplement Record listed documents "*36-48. 13 misc. certificates of ser." (Appellants' Feb. 7, 2014 response, Exhibit A, attaching the May 23, 2011 motion and Exhibit 2). These are the same documents designated in matter 4(n) of Appellants' January 7, 2014 Additional Designation of Matter and listed at page 15 of SCDC's February 10, 2014 Motion to Strike.

Documents 36-40 (Certificates of Service for Lyles, L. Mack, Stephone Simmons, Jordan, Bogan) are attached hereto to Exhibit A to this response, as having been proffered to the ALC in Appellants' May 23, 2011 Motion to Supplement Record. See pg. 15 herein. Thus, Appellants contend they are appropriate for inclusion in this Court's Record on Appeal.

Upon review of the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal, Appellants note that Appellant Jordan's Certificate (Document #39) is in that record at page 917. With that established, Appellants submit that the objection to Jordan's Certificate no longer stands since SCDC itself designated the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal in its November 27, 2013 designation #5.

With Exhibit A to this response, Appellants attach a copy of those documents designated in their January 7, 2014 additional designation which were not sent with Appellants' February 7, 2014 response Exhibit A. The documents attached hereto to Exhibit A include Documents #36-40 (Appellants' Jan. 7, 2014 additional designation of matter #4(n)).

Documents #41-48 (ADM #4(n) and 5(n)) were sent with the February 7, 2014 response Exhibits A and C, and are not attached to this response Exhibits A or C.

Appellants submit that inclusion of the contested matters is proper under SCACR 209, 210(c) and they should be in this Court's Record on Appeal.

V. Matters Which Are Argument

SCDC contends certain matters are argument and should not be in the record (SCDC Feb. 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, 18). The following are the matters contested, each being numbered as in Appellants' January 7, 2014 Additional Designation of Matter: (6) June 17, 2011 SCDC Response to Appellants' Motion to Supplement Record of May 23, 2011; (7) November 30, 2011 SCDC Level Two ALC brief; (8) December 22, 2011 SCDC Level Two ALC supplemental brief.

First, Appellants contend there is no basis in the rules to exclude designated matter simply because it was "argument" in the court below.

On the merits, concerning SCDC's June 17, 2011 Response to Appellants' Motion to Supplement Record, Appellants' February 7, 2014 response to SCDC's November 27, 2013 Motion to Strike discusses SCDC's June 17, 2011 detailed analysis of the documents Appellants proposed for the ALC record (Appellants' Feb. 7, 2014 response to SCDC's November 27, 2013 Motion to Strike, pp. 11-12). Appellants' February 7, 2014 response also refers to three different acknowledgements SCDC made in its June 17, 2011 response, pp. 22, 24, 36, that Appellants had submitted to SCDC "proposed documents" and "materials they submitted" for inclusion in the ALC record (Id). And finally, Appellants' February 7, 2014 response noted SCDC's June 17, 2011 response referenced only two types of documents submitted as samples, the EWC's and 19-54's (Id, 12).

Appellants contend this designation was proper as a matter counsel did not initially believe relevant, and one that was responsive to SCDC's designation of the ALC's August 5, 2011 order (J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, Second Edition, pp. 130-131). Initially, counsel did not think of it as relevant because the issue of "presenting" documents to the ALC had not been raised by SCDC at the time of Appellants' February 8, 2013 original designation of matter. The designation of SCDC's June 17, 2011 response is also responsive to SCDC's designation of the August 5, 2011 ALC order, since the ALC "extensively reviewed and relied upon SCDC's responses to that motion" in ruling upon the issues presented by Appellants' May 23, 2011 Motion to Supplement Record (ALC order of August 5, 2011, p. 2, n. 2, attached in Exhibit 1 to SCDC's November 27, 2013 Motion to Strike).

Regarding SCDC's November 30, 2011 ALC Level Two brief, Appellants' January 7, 2014 reply brief, in discussing SCDC's new issue of stale claims (SCDC Brief, 30), brought out SCDC's ALC contention that the six year delay in filing grievances "was unreasonable and obviously prejudices its interests", citing SCDC's ALC Level Two brief, 14 (Appellants' Jan. 7, 2014 reply brief, 10). Appellants' reply brief also mentioned their ALC reply brief contention that Historic Charleston Holdings, LLC v. Mallon 673 S.E. 2d 448, 456 (S.C., 2009) required certain elements to prove laches, and SCDC had not shown why the delay was unreasonable, or how SCDC had been prejudiced (Id).

Furthermore, Appellants' January 7, 2014 reply brief brought out that SCDC did not mention the delay in filing grievances in most of its step 1 responses, did not mention prejudice in its step 2 final decisions, and did not allege laches or stale claims until the ALC proceedings, citing SCDC's ALC Level Two brief, 14 (Id., 12). These matters concerned SCDC's waiver of these defenses.

Finally, in their January 7, 2014 reply brief, Appellants brought out the fact that SCDC made only conclusory allegations of delay and prejudice in the ALC, citing SCDC's ALC Level Two brief, 14 (Id., 12).

Appellants contend the designation of SCDC's November 30, 2011 ALC Level Two brief was proper as a matter counsel initially did not think was relevant (J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, Second Edition, p. 130). Laches and stale claims were not appealed by Appellants, and SCDC raised these issues in their brief in response (SCDC brief, 30).

Concerning SCDC's December 22, 2011 ALC Level Two supplemental brief, page 2, note 5 of that brief states "policy" and "procedure" are not "explicitly defined" in its policies or publications, and the definition provided by SCDC "comports with the manner in which correctional authorities from various states define this term". However, when the ALC quoted SCDC's definition in its order, the ALC noted in parentheses the "footnote and citations omitted" (ALC July 26, 2012 Second Amended Order, 8).

In its brief to this Court, SCDC noted the ALC had adopted "SCDC's interpretation" of the term, "policies/procedures", but did not include the ALC's parenthetical note that "footnote and citations omitted" (SCDC Court of Appeals brief, 29). Had the ALC, and subsequently SCDC, included this footnote, it would have been clear that SCDC did not have a pre-existing "policies/procedures" definition of its own, and the definition suggested by SCDC has been apparently borrowed from other states. This issue is discussed in Appellants' January 7, 2014 reply brief, 6.

For the above reasons, Appellants contend their designation of SCDC's ALC supplemental brief is proper because it is responsive to SCDC's brief, page 29, and SCDC's designation of the ALC's July 26, 2012 Second Amended Order, both of which do not include the footnote 5 information discussed above (J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, Second Edition, pp. 130-131, 215).

Appellants submit that inclusion of the matters contested in this section is proper under SCACR 209, 210(c), and they should be in this Court's Record on Appeal.

VI. Judicial Notice

As an alternative basis for inclusion in this Court's record, Appellants respectfully request the Court to take judicial notice of many of the documents SCDC seeks to strike. Appellants refer the Court to the authorities discussed at pp. 22-23 of Appellants' February 7, 2014 response to SCDC's November 27, 2013 Motion to Strike.

The following is a list of the documents Appellants submit to the Court for judicial notice consideration:

VII. Appeal of August 5, 2011 Order

SCDC again notes Appellants have not appealed the ALC's August 5, 2011 order (SCDC Feb. 10, 2014 Motion to Strike, 7). Appellants respectfully refer the Court to their response to this issue at pp. 28-29 of their February 7, 2014 response to SCDC's November 27, 2013 Motion to Strike.

VIII. Conclusion

Appellants respectfully request that SCDC's February 10, 2014 Motion to Strike be denied; Appellants' additional designations of matter be included in the Record on Appeal; and, alternatively, that the Court take judicial notice of the matters listed in section VI.

Appellants request that the Court reserve ruling on SCDC's motions to strike until the designated record has been filed for both parties and oral argument has been heard. If the Court denies this request and strikes certain matter(s) from Appellants' designations, Appellants request instructions as to whether the stricken matter(s) should nevertheless be in the record for purposes of further appellate review.

Respectfully submitted,

Appellate Case No. 2012-210588

AFFIDAVIT

I, Douglas H. Westbrook, depose and state as follows:

1. I represent the Appellants in the above captioned appeal.
2. Because the issues of presenting documents to the ALC, and laches and stale claims, had not been raised in the Court of Appeals when I filed Appellants' February 8, 2013 designation of matter, it did not occur to me that the following documents were relevant to those issues: Appellants' May 23, 2011 Motion to Supplement Record with Exhibits 1 and 2 (with proposed documents attached), and September 13, 2011 ALC Level Two brief with Appendices 1 and 2 (with proposed documents attached); SCDC's June 17, 2011 response to the May 23, 2011 motion; and SCDC's November 30, 2011 ALC Level Two brief.

Remarks by Mr. Westbrook.	6
Remarks by Mr. Summers.	13
Certificate of reporter	28

1 THE COURT: Well, this is Mr. Westbrook's motion and 2 I think the gist of it is you want me to order the
3 Department of Corrections to accept amended grievances
4 from inmates who are raising questions about their pay
5 while they were working at the industries, at prison
6 industries at Lieber.

7 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir. Very briefly, sir, I don't
8 know if you got the fax. I faxed in a motion to quash
9 this morning.

10 THE COURT: I got all your motions, and I got all
11 this much motions.

12 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, it's quite the door stop so I
13 wanted to make sure the Court had that, yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: I have that. And let me just say this,
15 we had two telephone conferences yesterday ---

16 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: ---in regard to this matter. The first 18 one -- after the first one, and I initiated the first one
19 because I knew Judge Goodstein had had some previous 20 involvement in the case and the motion asks that her order
21 be enforced and so I inquired of you two whether or not 22 she needed to hear that motion and we didn't really
23 resolve that so I called her back. I tried to call her,
24 was unable to get her yesterday, but then we called back
25 and I said, well, I will hear that but I'm not inclined to

1 enforce a motion of another judge that's not in writing.
2 And so I told both of you that yesterday and that also I
3 seriously question whether I have any jurisdiction in this
4 case at all. Yesterday -- I -- I mean, this morning, I
5 finally was able to talk to Judge Goodstein and apparently 6 y'all had a telephone conversation with her back in March.
7 In fact, I noticed that in Mr. Summers' brief; I didn't 8 know that yesterday. But Judge Goodstein also -- and she 9 said in the telephone conversation she advised that the 10 two of y'all, she was not inclined to enforce any type of 11 motion unless it was in writing, there was an order in 12 writing. So that -- and but my main question to her was 13 whether she thought this was something she needed to hear 14 and she said emphatically, no, it was nothing that she 15 needed to hear.

16 So Mr. Westbrook, that's my position on an order
17 that's not in -- alleged order that's not in writing. I
18 would deny your motion on that ground. I don't know what 19 else you can say to change my mind; it's pretty simple. I
20 mean, I don't want to cut you off. If you think there's 21 something else that might change my mind I'll be glad to 22 hear you, but I'm certainly inclined to deny the motion on 23 that ground.

24 The second ground is I think just asking the Court
25 through its inherit powers to order Department of

1 Corrections to accept amended petitions; isn't that --
2 wouldn't that be the second part of your motion?

3 MR. WESTBROOK: That's correct, Your Honor,
4 analogizing the Rule 15.

5 THE COURT: Right. And I have two questions about
6 that. We just as well put it under the table and then
7 I'll hear from you. Number one, you filed this as a
8 motion in this case number 2002-CP-18-134. That case
9 there was a final order issued by Judge Goodstein; that 10 order was appealed. The appeal was -- the case was 11 affirmed. The remittitur has been returned to the Court.
12 I can't see where that case is pending anymore. I don't 13 think there's any such case in existence as 2002-CP-18-134
14 so that causes me concern that this Court doesn't have any 15 jurisdiction because the case doesn't exist anymore. And 16 secondly, I question how this Court would have 17 jurisdiction to order the Department of Corrections to 18 change their administrative procedures. I just don't 19 think that -- I'm just not sure I've got jurisdiction to 20 do that so let me hear you on those two issue.

21 Let me hear him first, Mr. Summers, and then I'll let 22 you respond. I mean, I know that's a little backward, but 23 I mean, the reason I asked you to send me all this stuff,
24 both of you, so I can read it, be familiar with it, it
25 saves us an awful lot of time. So how about address those

1 issues for me, Mr. Westbrook.

2 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, would you prefer I come
3 up here?

4 THE COURT: Doesn't matter. Wherever you're 5 comfortable will be fine.

6 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, the first issue about the 7 case being in existence, since we talked yesterday I very 8 quickly looked for some authority as well as I could. The 9 case has been remitted back from the Supreme Court, and 10 therefore, the Circuit Court re-acquires jurisdiction as I
11 understand the rule on that. The order that is involved 12 with these filing of grievances went up on appeal, the 13 entire order as we discussed yesterday by phone.

14 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15 MR. WESTBROOK: That has now been sent back. And the 16 Circuit Court, you and/or Judge Goodstein, now have 17 re-acquired jurisdiction of the enforcement of that order
18 as I understand the law. And Judge Goodstein's order in 19 paragraphs 4, 5, and the last paragraph which talks about 20 resumption of grievance process, all deal with the right
21 to file grievances, how to file them, and when to file
22 them, and the last page deals with resumption of the 23 grievance process. So her order is in depth and in detail
24 involved with this grievance process which now is back in 25 this Court's jurisdiction. The order that she says is to

1 file grievances. These amendments are grievances. In
2 fact, as I pointed out in my written motion, they -- the 3 amendments are the same for everybody, all 150, ever how 4 many there are, with exception of the calculations at the 5 bottom of the page. And they track the language very 6 closely, not verbatim but very closely, of the amendment
7 of the grievances that were filed in -- on September 30th
8 of 2004, almost three years ago. So they are not new 9 grievances. They are amendments adding meat on the bones,
10 if you will, to the previously acquired filed grievances.
11 So the case, I would submit, is in existence. It is back
12 in this Court to enforce that process which was part of 13 the order which went up on appeal and has now been 14 remitted to this Court. And these amendments, in spite of 15 what Lake says, in all due respect, are not new 16 grievances; they are grievances. And so, if the grievance
17 process has been sent back to this Court which I think it
18 has, for enforcement because that is part and parcel of 19 her order, then I think you have jurisdiction.

20 THE COURT: Well, ---

21 MR. WESTBROOK: I found, Your Honor ---

22 THE COURT: ---I think this Court would have, the 23 Circuit Court would have authority to enforce its own
24 order even after the case was ended. I think you're 25 probably right about that. Of course, there's nothing in

1 this order of Judge Goodstein which grants you the relief
2 you're requesting today.

3 MR. WESTBROOK: Not in the sense that it mentions
4 amendments.

5 THE COURT: All right. And in fact, your letter to 6 her after the draft of the order was circulated you
7 specifically ask her to add a language using the word

9 MR. WESTBROOK: Right.

10 THE COURT: ---and she declined to do that.

11 MR. WESTBROOK: That's correct.

12 THE COURT: So it appears to me that she ruled
13 against you. Of course Mr. Summers cited some other
14 things not quite as direct but with the same result if you
15 accept his theory, some other ways that he thinks she 16 denied your motion at that time or your request. But 17 there's no question you wrote her a letter and said, add 18 this paragraph which specifically says we can amend, and 19 she declined to do that. So wouldn't that be the law of 20 the case now?

21 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I -- she was silent on 22 that and to -- whether it's the law of the case as that 23 term is meant as a term of art, I don't know. I would 24 argue that it's not; that her silence did not mean that 25 she would not approve amendments, she just didn't mention

1 it. I reiterate if -- and I implore the Court to look at 2 the substance of what I'm asking the Court to do; and the 3 substance is whether or not you call it amendments,
4 whatever you call it. And I think when you -- when the 5 Court interprets pleadings I think the law is fairly clear
6 the well, whatever that term is, the well-meaning intent
7 of the complaint, whatever it is, but I think the point is 8 the substance here is if you put the amendment side by 9 side with the previously filed grievance it almost 10 verbatim tracks that language.

11 What I did after September of '04, I personally did 12 it, was to go back and calculate the hours based on their 13 records that each inmate worked and I did that following
14 the Wicker case where Mr. Wicker, you know, submitted his 15 hours in his grievance. And that is really the only
16 substantive change in the grievances that were filed. So
17 you know, I would submit that as their counsel I am simply 18 trying to make sure that all of the elements of proof for 19 their claims are in there. And these were inmates filing
20 their own grievances in September, and I simply tried to 21 expand on that to make it more worthy of proof. And so, I
22 found a case about remittitur and it's been cited by 23 Justice Toal in her guide book and apparently this is sort
24 of the standard that the Supreme Court looks at on 25 remittitur and enforcement of judgment. It's the Muller

1 versus Myrtle Beach Golf And Yacht case, 438 Southeast
2 Second 248. And the holding is, is this. It says once a
3 remittitur is sent down from the Supreme Court, the 4 Circuit Court acquires beyond a reasonable doubt to 5 enforce the judgment and take any action consistent with 6 the Supreme Court ruling. And for the life of me, given 7 the fact that these so-called amendments are almost 8 verbatim, the same as previously filed grievances, I don't 9 see how these amendments are anything but entirely
10 consistent with the grievances that have already been 11 filed before Judge Goodstein's order was ever issued.

12 And so, you know, I think that this matter is still 13 in existence; it's before the Court. She did not say that 14 I could file amendments except in the oral meeting six
15 months before the order; she did not put it in the order.
16 But I think that -- I think her intention was to not stray
17 from the boilerplate language and just use the word
18 grievances. I know what she told us we could do on the 19 telephone, and I don't think Lake has denied that.

20 And so, you know, the second part of your -- about 21 ordering DOC to change their administrative procedure, I'm 22 not -- I don't see that I am ordering, asking the Court to 23 do that. The grievance procedure does not say you can 24 file amendments; it doesn't say you can't. It doesn't 25 speak to amendments. It is geared obviously toward

1 inmates. And the grievance procedure explicitly states
2 that policy grievances are an exception to the 15 day
3 rule, which Mr. Summers mentioned yesterday about filing
4 grievances. There is no time for filing policy grievances
5 which is clearly what this is. So I don't -- with the 6 possible exception arguably of asking the Court to file
7 amendments which in substance are basically what has 8 already been filed, I don't see where I'm asking the Court
9 to ask DOC to change their administrative procedure. I
10 can tell the Court, as an officer of this court, that they 11 have changed procedure against their own policy in several 12 instances. Not that tit-for-tat is necessarily the right 13 way to go, but it's difficult to play by the rules when 14 the agency is not playing by the rules and they have not 15 always done this in this case.

16 These amendments are about ten pages thick when you
17 add the exhibits after we filed grievances in September of 18 '04. Now the grievance policy says that inmates are 19 supposed to tender a grievance to a designee of the 20 warden; that's step one. Step two, they are supposed to 21 give it to the inmate grievance coordinator. After we 22 filed grievances in September of '04 Lieber put up a box
23 that has a slit about a half-inch wide. Nobody ever said
24 why they did that, but I think the reason and the purpose
25 of it was obvious. My -- two of the grievances we filed

1 in September had exhibits which were hundreds of pages
2 thick, and they obviously wanted to prevent lengthy
3 grievances from being filed. So the rules have not always 4 been followed by SCDC, and we need the Court's protection
5 to help these inmates file what I believe they have a
6 right to file. And if we don't -- if we don't get it I do
7 not have the confidence that the agency is going to abide 8 by its own policy.

9 THE COURT: Well, if they don't accept the amendments
10 ---

11 MR. WESTBROOK: And they won't.

12 THE COURT: ---wouldn't your avenue be to appeal to 13 the administrative law judge rather than this Court?

14 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I thought about that and 15 I have not found anything in the procedure under the rules
16 which allow me to do that.

18 MR. WESTBROOK: If I could I would.

19 THE COURT: But wouldn't that be a ground -- I mean, 20 if they deny the grievance you have to appeal that to the 21 administrative law court, right?

22 MR. WESTBROOK: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Why would that not be additional grounds
24 to raise at the time you appeal it to the administrative 25 law court?

1 MR. WESTBROOK: Well, I've wondered how I can get it
2 in the record if they don't let me file it. I have
3 thought about having the inmates tender the grievance. I
4 tried last year to tender them -- pursuant to agreement
5 with Mr. Summers we made two or three years ago I agreed
6 to coordinate with him any future filings. Pursuant to 7 that obligation I contacted him last March and said, Lake,
8 I'd like to file these amendments. He came back and he
9 said, no, I'm recommending that you can't do that. Later
10 on in October they send me the letter which is appended as 11 an exhibit stating we will not now or any time accept 12 these amendments. So I don't know how I can get it in the 13 record to go up to the ALJ. And if they refuse it it'll 14 never get in the record. I'm not asking for anything but 15 just to file it and let the courts decide. That's all I'm 16 asking for. And they won't let me file it.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Summers.

18 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, quite a bit to chew on.
19 First and foremost, I don't know how to respond to some of 20 the allegations that Mr. Westbrook made. Safe to say that 21 he has a far different characterization recollection than 22 I did. For example, this agreement that we had where he 23 could file amendments or work through me to file documents
24 ultimately, Judge, there's nothing in the policy that 25 allows an attorney to go to a particular institution and

1 drop documents off. That's how this whole thing started
2 back in September of 2004 and was ultimately when
3 Mr. Westbrook called Judge Goodstein out of concern about 4 how the mechanics of the delivery of this grievance would 5 occur that Judge Goodstein really took a look at the 6 initial process by which grievances will be filed. And we 7 have -- what we have by way of the orders that she signed
8 and the stay that was imposed, etc. I, very respectfully,
9 Mr. Westbrook I don't think he really had a full 10 understanding at all of how the grievance policy supposed
11 to work, how it's not supposed to work. He keeps talking 12 about how something won't be able to be in the record for 13 review. He can simply submit it to the administrative law
14 court as part of any appeal and say SCDC did not properly
15 consider these documents or these materials. The ALC as 16 the Court I think foreshadowed would certainly be able to 17 look at that. And if the Court determines that we did
18 something wrong by not accepting the amended grievance, 19 the administrative law court can make its decision based 20 upon that.

21 Mr. Westbrook talked at some length about whether or 22 not this is a matter that involves an appeal or whether or 23 not he's challenging or whether or not this case
24 represents a challenge to SCDC's policies and procedures
25 when it comes to whether or not back wages are due or

1 higher wages are due. I've got a case from the 2 administrative law court that's directly on point that 3 says that a similar case in which we invoked the 4 procedural guidelines from the policy does not involve an 5 appeal challenging the Department's policies or 6 procedures. So these issues have been meted at least in 7 some degree by the administrative law court, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: So did the court hear that one?

9 MR. SUMMERS: Sir?

10 THE COURT: In the one you have?

11 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, I can hand that ---

12 THE COURT: Did the administrative law court hear the 13 complaint?

14 MR. SUMMERS: Oh, yes sir, yes, sir. It determined
15 that the grievance was not timely filed for many of the 16 same reasons that we're ultimately going to litigate
17 before the administrative law court in these proceedings.
18 I think Your Honor has hit the nail on the head.

19 Ultimately what -- I think the Court certainly 20 accurately stated the reality. The case has come back.
21 The order that Judge Goodstein signed certainly is viable
22 from the standpoint of the enforcement of that order.
23 What Mr. Westbrook wants the Court to do, however, is to 24 allow the filing of, quote, amended grievances which the 25 Court accurately indicated was subject to some

1 consideration by Judge Goodstein. She did not include
2 that language in her final order; I thinks she's ruled on
3 that. Also, that I think the Court accurately assessed
4 the situation from the standpoint of whether or not
5 there's any jurisdiction inherently before the Circuit
6 Court to allow this kind of, if you want to call it
7 intervention, or allow this kind of role for the Circuit
8 Court in procedural disputes, for lack of a better term, 9 and I think there's material in my memorandum to that 10 effect.

11 Ultimately, Judge, Mr. Westbrook wants to have the 12 Court step in on two levels where the Court should not do
13 so. The administrative law court is the appropriate form.
14 If Mr. Westbrook seeks to have any kind of relief he can 15 certainly file some kind of motion perhaps in its original
16 jurisdiction to do so. And again, let me be very clear,
17 if an inmate seeks to file any kind of supplemental 18 document, SCDC will take a look at it and accept it but it
19 won't be, quote, an amendment. As I think we heard from 20 Mr. Westbrook during our teleconference yesterday he wants
21 the admin -- he wants SCDC under it's policy, or under its 22 practice, to consider the amendment to be a new document.
23 In other words, well, any grievance that was filed say in 24 September of 2004, well, that has been superceded by this 25 amendment that's going to come down in April of 2007.

1 There's nothing in our policy in any way, shape, or form
2 that even contemplates such a result. We'll collect those 3 documents; but ultimately, from the standpoint of 4 processing the grievance, the first date, the date upon
5 which that grievance was filed back in September of 2004
6 is going to be the effective date. The reason why Judge
7 Goodstein issued the stay in the manner in which she did
8 in this matter and the reason why her order reads the way
9 it does is she said, I'm not going to get involved nor do
10 I think the Court should be involved in the manner with 11 which SCDC processes these grievances. The origin of the 12 stay to begin with, Judge, is when Mr. Westbrook called me
13 and ultimately wound up calling Judge Goodstein and 14 said -- this is back in late October, early November of 15 2004. He asked Judge Goodstein to extend the deadlines
16 that were in our policy. Judge Goodstein declined to do
17 so. Instead, she just simply froze everything. She 18 issued the stay; everything is going to be frozen until 19 this case gets resolved. And as I think both of my 20 submissions to the Court highlight, the chronology by 21 which we find ourselves now flow from there. She 22 ultimately heard a motion to dismiss, granted the motion
23 to dismiss. Mr. Westbrook took the appeal up. A stay
24 from the South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 225(a) kicked 25 in. And finally now after the remittitur has been sent

1 down, we find ourselves in the process of the Court
2 looking at to enforce the order.

3 But again, going back to what the Court said
4 originally, Mr. Westbrook wants this Court to do far more
5 than enforce the order. He wants the Court to expand the 6 order. He wants the Court to take action that Judge
7 Goodstein considered but did not include his action in the 8 order that she signed, the two orders that she signed back
9 in 2005. So I think the Court is certainly in tune with 10 the issues in this case. And just as vigorously as Mr.
11 Westbrook wants the relief I think on behalf of SCDC, I
12 just as vigorously dispute that, number one, jurisdiction
13 exists by which such relief could be granted; and number
14 two, if this Court should issue this kind of relief. At 15 some point we have to let the policy work itself out. The 16 deadlines that are established in the policy need to be 17 allowed to continue. That's why the grievance processing 18 will resume 60 days from the day of the remit, and that's 19 why Judge Goodstein did what she did.

20 So very respectfully, Your Honor, I would submit that 21 the reasons that I've articulated a moment ago and in the 22 submissions that I've put before the Court, specifically
23 the not motion to quash for lack of jurisdiction, should 24 be the position the Court adopts in this instance. Thank 25 you, sir.

1 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. What is the harm
2 and why won't the Department accept the delivery of the 3 documents and just say, okay, we've got them and this is 4 what we got but we're not going to consider it, if that's 5 your position. Now it appears to me that your position is 6 you're not going to consider any new ---

7 MR. SUMMERS: No, sir, I ---

8 THE COURT: ---new allegations made or any new 9 evidence. It seems to me that's the crucial thing,
10 whether it's filed or not filed.

11 MR. SUMMERS: Well, sir, number one ---

12 THE COURT: But that gets it into the record, it
13 protects the inmate, it protects Mr. Westbrook's position.
14 And I mean, I've had things presented to me and I'll say,
15 I'm sorry, you're out of the deadline, I'll mark it as an 16 exhibit and hand it to the court reporter but I'm not 17 going to consider it. Why can't you do that?

18 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, and I -- what I wanted to,
19 hopefully I made that clear. I'm willing -- SCDC is 20 willing to do that but there may be some confusion about
21 some letter I sent in the context of what Mr. Westbrook
22 was talking about. Again, we'll consider it, but as far 23 as it restarting the clock, as far as it being an 24 amendment in the context of a civil procedure ---

25 THE COURT: So you're saying you will consider it?

1 MR. SUMMERS: Oh, yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Well then what's the problem,

3 Mr. Westbrook?

4 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, he's told me in the 5 letter October 19th they won't accept any of my 6 grievances. If he will accept it ---

7 THE COURT: He's telling me now that he will 8 physically accept whatever it is that you want to submit,
9 and he's telling me now that they will consider whatever
10 you submit on the merits but they will not go back and 11 change any deadlines. And I don't ---

12 MR. SUMMERS: Or any submission dates from the 13 original step one or step two grievance.

14 THE COURT: I do not have any knowledge about any of 15 the deadlines that we're talking about so I can't even 16 enter into that discussion. I'm just not -- I just don't 17 have enough knowledge about the whole situation to know
18 whether that's what we're talking about when deadlines.
19 But what he's saying is he will consider your submissions
20 on the merits, but he's not going to change any of the 21 procedures that set deadlines and set numbers of days to 22 do certain things; they're going to all be in place just 23 like they were prior to Judge Goodstein's order. They 24 were suspended for that period which is like two or three 25 years and then start back 60 days from now. All of that

1 is going to continue to return.

2 MR. WESTBROOK: Judge, that's certainly more than
3 I've gotten so far. I would ask the Court to find out
4 when I can tender the documents, to whom do I give the 5 documents, and so forth.

6 MR. SUMMERS: Judge, he can give them to me whenever 7 he's ready. If he wants to give me one set with all the 8 names that they represent, that might be logistically
9 easier for me and the agency. He has 150 odd folks.
10 That's a bunch of documents.

11 THE COURT: Well now, you've said in your -- to me
12 that makes sense.

13 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: But I think you've said contrary in your 15 brief, you know, you're saying that he can't submit them
16 on behalf of everybody because that -- he would be going
17 back and having a pseudoclass action. But now, to me it
18 makes sense to you would accept one set of documents and 19 say, okay, give us a list, it's 183 people this applies to 20 and we'll put it in each file.

21 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, and I will be happy to do
22 that as long as it is not in any way, shape, or form
23 considered by the Court for future purposes as any kind of 24 acceptance or any kind of recognition of a class. Merely 25 for logistical purposes to save paper, in other words.

1 I'd be happy to do that. If Mr. Westbrook wants to give 2 me a list, he can give me all the documents he wants to
3 submit. As long as it's not a class, we don't consider it
4 to be a class, it is a method by which we facilitate the 5 acceptance of these materials. And again, it will not
6 change any filing dates of any grievance in whatever phase
7 that has already been established to this point in 8 litigation.

9 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I'd like to know, I'd 10 like -- can I -- will this be considered filing with the 11 SCDC because, I mean, that's what the thing requires, not 12 just giving to its lawyer. I want to file it with SCDC,
13 Lieber Correctional, and these other ---

14 THE COURT: Will you accept service of the filings on 15 behalf of Department of Corrections?

16 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, I will.

17 MR. WESTBROOK: I think we've got, you know, I think 18 that's a heck of a lot more than I've had so far and I do
19 appreciate it, Mr. Summers.

20 THE COURT: All right. Now, let me put my position
21 on the record. My position is that this Court is without 22 authority to grant you the relief that you've requested.
23 I think this Court has unquestionably authority to enforce
24 Judge Goodstein's order, but what you're asking me to do
25 is not provided in Judge Goodstein's order. And so I'm

1 dismissing your motion, Mr. Westbrook, but you have on the
2 record -- the court reporter will be glad to give you a
3 copy of it -- on admission from Mr. Summers as an officer
4 of this court and as an attorney for the Department of 5 Corrections, he's agreed to do certain things. Now I
6 think those are binding on the Department of Corrections,
7 but understand, I'm not granting an order. All I have 8 done is facilitate the two of y'all reach an agreement
9 which has been memorialized here on the record, and it
10 would show up in the court reporter's transcript but I'm 11 not ordering him to do anything. I think ---

12 MR. SUMMERS: I will abide by ---

13 THE COURT: I think this resolution is proper because 14 I think -- well, I think certainly he should accept the 15 documents, but he says he's willing to go further than 16 that and consider the merits of the documents you wish to 17 file under the circumstances that he's outlined that it's 18 not going to change any dates or any procedural 19 requirements or anything of that nature. I think that's 20 probably all you're entitled to and I think you've got 21 that by agreement. Now you've got it memorialized on the 22 record.

23 MR. WESTBROOK: All right, sir. Very well, sir.

24 THE COURT: All right. And so with that ---

25 MR. WESTBROOK: I might add, Your Honor, discussion

1 whether to do, to give him a class grievance or individual
2 ones, I think since I've already done the individual ones
3 I'd rather tender that if for no other reason but that the 4 calculations for each one are different and they're 5 particularized to each and I've already done individual
6 ones.

7 MR. SUMMERS: Whatever makes Mr. Westbrook ---

8 THE COURT: He will accept them either way.

9 MR. SUMMERS: Whatever is easier for his system is 10 fine.

11 THE COURT: So what I'm going to do is call
12 Ms. Carolyn Ayer, and I'm going to tell her to prepare me
13 a form order saying that the parties have resolved their 14 differences and their resolution is in the record by the 15 court reporter and that on that basis the matter is 16 settled and the motion is dismissed.

17 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I appreciate your doing
18 this and I think Lake does too. I would -- my only 19 concern is this: Is whether SCDC follows through on what 20 Lake has -- I think Lake is stating to the Court in good 21 faith his intentions, but he has a battery of attorneys in 22 Columbia and he is not the only one calling the shots. I
23 mean, I've seen this for five years now.

24 THE COURT: Well, why can't -- I mean, when an 25 agreement is reached and it's put on the record it becomes

1 an order of the Court.

2 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir.

3 MR. WESTBROOK: And may I ---

4 THE COURT: And so in that respect I'll have to back
5 up a little bit. What I'm going to say is based on the 6 agreement stated into the record by the parties the Court
7 accepts that agreement and the motion is dismissed. How 8 about that?

9 And I think, Mr. Summers, that if you decide to back
10 up on what you say I think he can come back to me.

11 MR. SUMMERS: Oh, I understand, sir.

12 THE COURT: And ask for me to get involved at that 13 time.

14 MR. SUMMERS: I would agree. And again, ultimately 15 we keep hearing Mr. Westbrook talking about for five 16 years. Quite candidly, Judge, he and I have a vastly 17 different perspective on that. I think we've done the 18 right thing, but that's another issue for another day.
19 Ultimately Mr. Westbrook may not get the relief he wants 20 or thinks these clients deserves, but that's separate and 21 apart from the procedural solution that the Court has 22 fashioned here today.

23 THE COURT: Well, I think he's got the procedural
24 solution he wanted. You will certain have in the record
25 what you want in the record, and then I think the proper

1 procedure is to go through administrative law court if 2 you're not happy. Once they deal with it, now if they 3 refuse to accept it or then I think you got relief in this 4 court but that's all.

5 MR. WESTBROOK: And just so I clarify the record,
6 Your Honor, I'm going to tender Mr. Summers after we 7 finish it's roughly 100 to 200 -- I'm not sure exact
8 number. I think are at legal or original grievances with 9 exhibits, and I'm also going to tender roughly 100 copies
10 of amendments without exhibits for people whose grievances
11 I have sent to other institutions and that's why in most 12 cases I don't have those exhibits nor the original
13 grievances so that's what I'm going to give to him.

14 MR. SUMMERS: That will be fine, sir. I'll make sure
15 it goes through general counsel and to grievance branch
16 for management and placement in individual files.

17 THE COURT: That a record has been preserved of these 18 materials and then ultimately decisions will flow from 19 those submissions and we'll go on through hopefully not 20 back before this Court but before administrative law
21 court, perhaps even the Court of Appeals beyond. All
22 right. And I suggest y'all request a transcript. I'm not 23 going to put all that in that order.

24 MR. SUMMERS: I think that's a wise course of action,
25 sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. Court is in
2 recess.

Introductory remarks by the Court	3
Remarks by Mr. Summers.	13

1 THE COURT: Well, this is Mr. Westbrook's motion and
2 I think the gist of it is you want me to order the
3 Department of Corrections to accept amended grievances
4 from inmates who are raising questions about their pay
5 while they were working at the industries, at prison
6 industries at Lieber.

7 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir. Very briefly, sir, I don't
8 know if you got the fax. I faxed in a motion to quash
9 this morning.

10 THE COURT: I got all your motions, and I got all
11 this much motions.

12 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, it's quite the door stop so I
13 wanted to make sure the Court had that, yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: I have that. And let me just say this,
15 we had two telephone conferences yesterday ---

16 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: ---in regard to this matter. The first
18 one -- after the first one, and I initiated the first one
19 because I knew Judge Goodstein had had some previous 20 involvement in the case and the motion asks that her order
21 be enforced and so I inquired of you two whether or not 22 she needed to hear that motion and we didn't really
23 resolve that so I called her back. I tried to call her,
24 was unable to get her yesterday, but then we called back
25 and I said, well, I will hear that but I'm not inclined to

1 enforce a motion of another judge that's not in writing.
2 And so I told both of you that yesterday and that also I
3 seriously question whether I have any jurisdiction in this
4 case at all. Yesterday -- I -- I mean, this morning, I
5 finally was able to talk to Judge Goodstein and apparently 6 y'all had a telephone conversation with her back in March.
7 In fact, I noticed that in Mr. Summers' brief; I didn't
8 know that yesterday. But Judge Goodstein also -- and she 9 said in the telephone conversation she advised that the 10 two of y'all, she was not inclined to enforce any type of 11 motion unless it was in writing, there was an order in 12 writing. So that -- and but my main question to her was 13 whether she thought this was something she needed to hear 14 and she said emphatically, no, it was nothing that she 15 needed to hear.

16 So Mr. Westbrook, that's my position on an order
17 that's not in -- alleged order that's not in writing. I
18 would deny your motion on that ground. I don't know what
19 else you can say to change my mind; it's pretty simple. I
20 mean, I don't want to cut you off. If you think there's 21 something else that might change my mind I'll be glad to 22 hear you, but I'm certainly inclined to deny the motion on 23 that ground.

24 The second ground is I think just asking the Court
25 through its inherit powers to order Department of

1 Corrections to accept amended petitions; isn't that --
2 wouldn't that be the second part of your motion?

3 MR. WESTBROOK: That's correct, Your Honor,
4 analogizing the Rule 15.

5 THE COURT: Right. And I have two questions about
6 that. We just as well put it under the table and then
7 I'll hear from you. Number one, you filed this as a
8 motion in this case number 2002-CP-18-134. That case
9 there was a final order issued by Judge Goodstein; that 10 order was appealed. The appeal was -- the case was 11 affirmed. The remittitur has been returned to the Court.
12 I can't see where that case is pending anymore. I don't 13 think there's any such case in existence as 2002-CP-18-134
14 so that causes me concern that this Court doesn't have any 15 jurisdiction because the case doesn't exist anymore. And 16 secondly, I question how this Court would have 17 jurisdiction to order the Department of Corrections to 18 change their administrative procedures. I just don't 19 think that -- I'm just not sure I've got jurisdiction to 20 do that so let me hear you on those two issue.

21 Let me hear him first, Mr. Summers, and then I'll let 22 you respond. I mean, I know that's a little backward, but 23 I mean, the reason I asked you to send me all this stuff,
24 both of you, so I can read it, be familiar with it, it
25 saves us an awful lot of time. So how about address those

1 issues for me, Mr. Westbrook.

3 up here?

4 THE COURT: Doesn't matter. Wherever you're
5 comfortable will be fine.

6 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, the first issue about the 7 case being in existence, since we talked yesterday I very 8 quickly looked for some authority as well as I could. The 9 case has been remitted back from the Supreme Court, and
10 therefore, the Circuit Court re-acquires jurisdiction as I
11 understand the rule on that. The order that is involved
12 with these filing of grievances went up on appeal, the

14 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15 MR. WESTBROOK: That has now been sent back. And the 16 Circuit Court, you and/or Judge Goodstein, now have
17 re-acquired jurisdiction of the enforcement of that order
18 as I understand the law. And Judge Goodstein's order in 19 paragraphs 4, 5, and the last paragraph which talks about
20 resumption of grievance process, all deal with the right
22 them, and the last page deals with resumption of the 23 grievance process. So her order is in depth and in detail
24 involved with this grievance process which now is back in 25 this Court's jurisdiction. The order that she says is to

1 file grievances. These amendments are grievances. In
2 fact, as I pointed out in my written motion, they -- the
3 amendments are the same for everybody, all 150, ever how 4 many there are, with exception of the calculations at the 5 bottom of the page. And they track the language very 6 closely, not verbatim but very closely, of the amendment
7 of the grievances that were filed in -- on September 30th
8 of 2004, almost three years ago. So they are not new 9 grievances. They are amendments adding meat on the bones,
10 if you will, to the previously acquired filed grievances.
11 So the case, I would submit, is in existence. It is back
12 in this Court to enforce that process which was part of 13 the order which went up on appeal and has now been
15 what Lake says, in all due respect, are not new 16 grievances; they are grievances. And so, if the grievance
17 process has been sent back to this Court which I think it
18 has, for enforcement because that is part and parcel of 19 her order, then I think you have jurisdiction.

21 MR. WESTBROOK: I found, Your Honor ---

22 THE COURT: ---I think this Court would have, the
23 Circuit Court would have authority to enforce its own
24 order even after the case was ended. I think you're 25 probably right about that. Of course, there's nothing in

1 this order of Judge Goodstein which grants you the relief.
2 you're requesting today.

4 amendments.

5 THE COURT: All right. And in fact, your letter to 6 her after the draft of the order was circulated you
7 specifically ask her to add a language using the word

9 MR. WESTBROOK: Right.

10 THE COURT: ---and she declined to do that.

11 MR. WESTBROOK: That's correct.

12 THE COURT: So it appears to me that she ruled
13 against you. Of course Mr. Summers cited some other
14 things not quite as direct but with the same result if you
15 accept his theory, some other ways that he thinks she 16 denied your motion at that time or your request. But 17 there's no question you wrote her a letter and said, add
18 this paragraph which specifically says we can amend, and
20 the case now?

21 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I -- she was silent on 22 that and to -- whether it's the law of the case as that 23 term is meant as a term of art, I don't know. I would 24 argue that it's not; that her silence did not mean that 25 she would not approve amendments, she just didn't mention

1 it. I reiterate if -- and I implore the Court to look at 2 the substance of what I'm asking the Court to do; and the 3 substance is whether or not you call it amendments,
4 whatever you call it. And I think when you -- when the
5 Court interprets pleadings I think the law is fairly clear
6 the well, whatever that term is, the well-meaning intent
7 of the complaint, whatever it is, but I think the point is 8 the substance here is if you put the amendment side by 9 side with the previously filed grievance it almost 10 verbatim tracks that language.

11 What I did after September of '04, I personally did
12 it, was to go back and calculate the hours based on their 13 records that each inmate worked and I did that following
14 the Wicker case where Mr. Wicker, you know, submitted his 15 hours in his grievance. And that is really the only
16 substantive change in the grievances that were filed. So
17 you know, I would submit that as their counsel I am simply 18 trying to make sure that all of the elements of proof for 19 their claims are in there. And these were inmates filing
20 their own grievances in September, and I simply tried to 21 expand on that to make it more worthy of proof. And so, I
22 found a case about remittitur and it's been cited by
23 Justice Toal in her guide book and apparently this is sort
24 of the standard that the Supreme Court looks at on

1 versus Myrtle Beach Golf And Yacht case, 438 Southeast
2 Second 248. And the holding is, is this. It says once a
3 remittitur is sent down from the Supreme Court, the
4 Circuit Court acquires beyond a reasonable doubt to 5 enforce the judgment and take any action consistent with
6 the Supreme Court ruling. And for the life of me, given
7 the fact that these so-called amendments are almost
8 verbatim, the same as previously filed grievances, I don't 9 see how these amendments are anything but entirely
10 consistent with the grievances that have already been 11 filed before Judge Goodstein's order was ever issued.

12 And so, you know, I think that this matter is still 13 in existence; it's before the Court. She did not say that 14 I could file amendments except in the oral meeting six
15 months before the order; she did not put it in the order.
16 But I think that -- I think her intention was to not stray
17 from the boilerplate language and just use the word
18 grievances. I know what she told us we could do on the 19 telephone, and I don't think Lake has denied that.

20 And so, you know, the second part of your -- about
21 ordering DOC to change their administrative procedure, I'm 22 not -- I don't see that I am ordering, asking the Court to 23 do that. The grievance procedure does not say you can
24 file amendments; it doesn't say you can't. It doesn't 25 speak to amendments. It is geared obviously toward

1 inmates. And the grievance procedure explicitly states
2 that policy grievances are an exception to the 15 day
3 rule, which Mr. Summers mentioned yesterday about filing
4 grievances. There is no time for filing policy grievances
5 which is clearly what this is. So I don't -- with the 6 possible exception arguably of asking the Court to file
7 amendments which in substance are basically what has
8 already been filed, I don't see where I'm asking the Court
9 to ask DOC to change their administrative procedure. I
10 can tell the Court, as an officer of this court, that they 11 have changed procedure against their own policy in several 12 instances. Not that tit-for-tat is necessarily the right
13 way to go, but it's difficult to play by the rules when
15 always done this in this case.

17 add the exhibits after we filed grievances in September of 18 '04. Now the grievance policy says that inmates are 19 supposed to tender a grievance to a designee of the 20 warden; that's step one. Step two, they are supposed to 21 give it to the inmate grievance coordinator. After we 22 filed grievances in September of '04 Lieber put up a box
23 that has a slit about a half-inch wide. Nobody ever said
24 why they did that, but I think the reason and the purpose
25 of it was obvious. My -- two of the grievances we filed

1 in September had exhibits which were hundreds of pages
2 thick, and they obviously wanted to prevent lengthy
3 grievances from being filed. So the rules have not always
4 been followed by SCDC, and we need the Court's protection
5 to help these inmates file what I believe they have a
6 right to file. And if we don't -- if we don't get it I do
7 not have the confidence that the agency is going to abide 8 by its own policy.

9 THE COURT: Well, if they don't accept the amendments
10 ---

11 MR. WESTBROOK: And they won't.

12 THE COURT: ---wouldn't your avenue be to appeal to 13 the administrative law judge rather than this Court?

14 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I thought about that and 15 I have not found anything in the procedure under the rules
16 which allow me to do that.

18 MR. WESTBROOK: If I could I would.

19 THE COURT: But wouldn't that be a ground -- I mean,
20 if they deny the grievance you have to appeal that to the 21 administrative law court, right?

22 MR. WESTBROOK: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Why would that not be additional grounds
24 to raise at the time you appeal it to the administrative 25 law court?

1 MR. WESTBROOK: Well, I've wondered how I can get it
2 in the record if they don't let me file it. I have
3 thought about having the inmates tender the grievance. I
4 tried last year to tender them -- pursuant to agreement
5 with Mr. Summers we made two or three years ago I agreed
6 to coordinate with him any future filings. Pursuant to 7 that obligation I contacted him last March and said, Lake,
8 I'd like to file these amendments. He came back and he
9 said, no, I'm recommending that you can't do that. Later
10 on in October they send me the letter which is appended as 11 an exhibit stating we will not now or any time accept
13 record to go up to the ALJ. And if they refuse it it'll

17 THE COURT: Mr. Summers.

18 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, quite a bit to chew on.
19 First and foremost, I don't know how to respond to some of 20 the allegations that Mr. Westbrook made. Safe to say that 21 he has a far different characterization recollection than 22 I did. For example, this agreement that we had where he 23 could file amendments or work through me to file documents
24 ultimately, Judge, there's nothing in the policy that 25 allows an attorney to go to a particular institution and

1 drop documents off. That's how this whole thing started
2 back in September of 2004 and was ultimately when
3 Mr. Westbrook called Judge Goodstein out of concern about
4 how the mechanics of the delivery of this grievance would 5 occur that Judge Goodstein really took a look at the 6 initial process by which grievances will be filed. And we 7 have -- what we have by way of the orders that she signed
8 and the stay that was imposed, etc. I, very respectfully,
9 Mr. Westbrook I don't think he really had a full
10 understanding at all of how the grievance policy supposed
11 to work, how it's not supposed to work. He keeps talking
12 about how something won't be able to be in the record for 13 review. He can simply submit it to the administrative law
14 court as part of any appeal and say SCDC did not properly
15 consider these documents or these materials. The ALC as 16 the Court I think foreshadowed would certainly be able to 17 look at that. And if the Court determines that we did
18 something wrong by not accepting the amended grievance,
19 the administrative law court can make its decision based 20 upon that.

21 Mr. Westbrook talked at some length about whether or 22 not this is a matter that involves an appeal or whether or 23 not he's challenging or whether or not this case
24 represents a challenge to SCDC's policies and procedures
25 when it comes to whether or not back wages are due or

1 higher wages are due. I've got a case from the
2 administrative law court that's directly on point that
3 says that a similar case in which we invoked the
4 procedural guidelines from the policy does not involve an 5 appeal challenging the Department's policies or
6 procedures. So these issues have been meted at least in 7 some degree by the administrative law court, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: So did the court hear that one?

9 MR. SUMMERS: Sir?

10 THE COURT: In the one you have?

11 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, I can hand that ---

12 THE COURT: Did the administrative law court hear the 13 complaint?

14 MR. SUMMERS: Oh, yes sir, yes, sir. It determined
15 that the grievance was not timely filed for many of the 16 same reasons that we're ultimately going to litigate
17 before the administrative law court in these proceedings.
18 I think Your Honor has hit the nail on the head.

19 Ultimately what -- I think the Court certainly
20 accurately stated the reality. The case has come back.
21 The order that Judge Goodstein signed certainly is viable
22 from the standpoint of the enforcement of that order.
23 What Mr. Westbrook wants the Court to do, however, is to 24 allow the filing of, quote, amended grievances which the 25 Court accurately indicated was subject to some

1 consideration by Judge Goodstein. She did not include
2 that language in her final order; I thinks she's ruled on
3 that. Also, that I think the Court accurately assessed
4 the situation from the standpoint of whether or not
5 there's any jurisdiction inherently before the Circuit
6 Court to allow this kind of, if you want to call it
7 intervention, or allow this kind of role for the Circuit
8 Court in procedural disputes, for lack of a better term, 9 and I think there's material in my memorandum to that 10 effect.

11 Ultimately, Judge, Mr. Westbrook wants to have the 12 Court step in on two levels where the Court should not do
13 so. The administrative law court is the appropriate form.
14 If Mr. Westbrook seeks to have any kind of relief he can 15 certainly file some kind of motion perhaps in its original
16 jurisdiction to do so. And again, let me be very clear,
17 if an inmate seeks to file any kind of supplemental
18 document, SCDC will take a look at it and accept it but it
19 won't be, quote, an amendment. As I think we heard from 20 Mr. Westbrook during our teleconference yesterday he wants
21 the admin -- he wants SCDC under it's policy, or under its 22 practice, to consider the amendment to be a new document.
23 In other words, well, any grievance that was filed say in 24 September of 2004, well, that has been superceded by this 25 amendment that's going to come down in April of 2007.

1 There's nothing in our policy in any way, shape, or form
2 that even contemplates such a result. We'll collect those 3 documents; but ultimately, from the standpoint of 4 processing the grievance, the first date, the date upon
5 which that grievance was filed back in September of 2004
6 is going to be the effective date. The reason why Judge
7 Goodstein issued the stay in the manner in which she did
8 in this matter and the reason why her order reads the way
9 it does is she said, I'm not going to get involved nor do
10 I think the Court should be involved in the manner with 11 which SCDC processes these grievances. The origin of the 12 stay to begin with, Judge, is when Mr. Westbrook called me
13 and ultimately wound up calling Judge Goodstein and
14 said -- this is back in late October, early November of 15 2004. He asked Judge Goodstein to extend the deadlines
16 that were in our policy. Judge Goodstein declined to do
17 so. Instead, she just simply froze everything. She 18 issued the stay; everything is going to be frozen until
20 submissions to the Court highlight, the chronology by 21 which we find ourselves now flow from there. She 22 ultimately heard a motion to dismiss, granted the motion
23 to dismiss. Mr. Westbrook took the appeal up. A stay
24 from the South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 225(a) kicked 25 in. And finally now after the remittitur has been sent

1 down, we find ourselves in the process of the Court
2 looking at to enforce the order.

3 But again, going back to what the Court said
4 originally, Mr. Westbrook wants this Court to do far more
5 than enforce the order. He wants the Court to expand the 6 order. He wants the Court to take action that Judge
7 Goodstein considered but did not include his action in the 8 order that she signed, the two orders that she signed back
9 in 2005. So I think the Court is certainly in tune with 10 the issues in this case. And just as vigorously as Mr.
11 Westbrook wants the relief I think on behalf of SCDC, I
12 just as vigorously dispute that, number one, jurisdiction
13 exists by which such relief could be granted; and number
14 two, if this Court should issue this kind of relief. At 15 some point we have to let the policy work itself out. The 16 deadlines that are established in the policy need to be
17 allowed to continue. That's why the grievance processing
18 will resume 60 days from the day of the remit, and that's 19 why Judge Goodstein did what she did.

20 So very respectfully, Your Honor, I would submit that 21 the reasons that I've articulated a moment ago and in the 22 submissions that I've put before the Court, specifically
23 the not motion to quash for lack of jurisdiction, should 24 be the position the Court adopts in this instance. Thank 25 you, sir.

1 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. What is the harm
2 and why won't the Department accept the delivery of the 3 documents and just say, okay, we've got them and this is 4 what we got but we're not going to consider it, if that's 5 your position. Now it appears to me that your position is 6 you're not going to consider any new ---

7 MR. SUMMERS: No, sir, I ---

8 THE COURT: ---new allegations made or any new 9 evidence. It seems to me that's the crucial thing,
10 whether it's filed or not filed.

11 MR. SUMMERS: Well, sir, number one ---

12 THE COURT: But that gets it into the record, it
13 protects the inmate, it protects Mr. Westbrook's position.
14 And I mean, I've had things presented to me and I'll say,
15 I'm sorry, you're out of the deadline, I'll mark it as an 16 exhibit and hand it to the court reporter but I'm not 17 going to consider it. Why can't you do that?

18 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, and I -- what I wanted to,
19 hopefully I made that clear. I'm willing -- SCDC is 20 willing to do that but there may be some confusion about
21 some letter I sent in the context of what Mr. Westbrook
22 was talking about. Again, we'll consider it, but as far
23 as it restarting the clock, as far as it being an 24 amendment in the context of a civil procedure ---

25 THE COURT: So you're saying you will consider it?

1 MR. SUMMERS: Oh, yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: We'll then what's the problem,

3 Mr. Westbrook?

4 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, he's told me in the 5 letter October 19th they won't accept any of my 6 grievances. If he will accept it ---

7 THE COURT: He's telling me now that he will 8 physically accept whatever it is that you want to submit,
9 and he's telling me now that they will consider whatever
10 you submit on the merits but they will not go back and 11 change any deadlines. And I don't ---

12 MR. SUMMERS: Or any submission dates from the 13 original step one or step two grievance

14 THE COURT: I do not have any knowledge about any of 15 the deadlines that we're talking about so I can't even 16 enter into that discussion. I'm just not -- I just don't 17 have enough knowledge about the whole situation to know
18 whether that's what we're talking about when deadlines.
19 But what he's saying is he will consider your submissions
20 on the merits, but he's not going to change any of the 21 procedures that set deadlines and set numbers of days to 22 do certain things; they're going to all be in place just 23 like they were prior to Judge Goodstein's order. They 24 were suspended for that period which is like two or three 25 years and then start back 60 days from now. All of that

1 is going to continue to return.

2 MR. WESTBROOK: Judge, that's certainly more than
3 I've gotten so far. I would ask the Court to find out
4 when I can tender the documents, to whom do I give the 5 documents, and so forth.

6 MR. SUMMERS: Judge, he can give them to me whenever 7 he's ready. If he wants to give me one set with all the 8 names that they represent, that might be logistically
9 easier for me and the agency. He has 150 odd folks.
10 That's a bunch of documents.

11 THE COURT: Well now, you've said in your -- to me
12 that makes sense.

13 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: But I think you've said contrary in your 15 brief, you know, you're saying that he can't submit them
16 on behalf of everybody because that -- he would be going
17 back and having a pseudoclass action. But now, to me, it
18 makes sense to you would accept one set of documents and 19 say, okay, give us a list, it's 183 people this applies to 20 and we'll put it in each file.

21 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, and I will be happy to do
22 that as long as it is not in any way, shape, or form
23 considered by the Court for future purposes as any kind of 24 acceptance or any kind of recognition of a class. Merely 25 for logistical purposes to save paper, in other words.

1 I'd be happy to do that. If Mr. Westbrook wants to give 2 me a list, he can give me all the documents he wants to
3 submit. As long as it's not a class, we don't consider it
4 to be a class, it is a method by which we facilitate the 5 acceptance of these materials. And again, it will not
6 change any filing dates of any grievance in whatever phase
7 that has already been established to this point in 8 litigation.

9 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I'd like to know, I'd 10 like -- can I -- will this be considered filing with the 11 SCDC because, I mean, that's what the thing requires, not
12 just giving to its lawyer. I want to file it with SCDC,
13 Lieber Correctional, and these other ---

14 THE COURT: Will you accept service of the filings on 15 behalf of Department of Corrections?

16 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, I will.

17 MR. WESTBROOK: I think we've got, you know, I think
18 that's a heck of a lot more than I've had so far and I do
19 appreciate it, Mr. Summers.

20 THE COURT: All right. Now, let me put my position
21 on the record. My position is that this Court is without 22 authority to grant you the relief that you've requested.
23 I think this Court has unquestionably authority to enforce
24 Judge Goodstein's order, but what you're asking me to do
25 is not provided in Judge Goodstein's order. And so I'm

1 dismissing your motion, Mr. Westbrook, but you have on the
2 record -- the court reporter will be glad to give you a
3 copy of it -- on admission from Mr. Summers as an officer
4 of this court and as an attorney for the Department of
5 Corrections, he's agreed to do certain things. Now I
6 think those are binding on the Department of Corrections,
7 but understand, I'm not granting an order. All I have
8 done is facilitate the two of y'all reach an agreement
9 which has been memorialized here on the record, and it
10 would show up in the court reporter's transcript but I'm 11 not ordering him to do anything. I think ---

12 MR. SUMMERS: I will abide by ---

13 THE COURT: I think this resolution is proper because 14 I think -- well, I think certainly he should accept the 15 documents, but he says he's willing to go further than 16 that and consider the merits of the documents you wish to 17 file under the circumstances that he's outlined that it's 18 not going to change any dates or any procedural
19 requirements or anything of that nature. I think that's 20 probably all you're entitled to and I think you've got 21 that by agreement. Now you've got it memorialized on the 22 record.

23 MR. WESTBROOK: All right, sir. Very well, sir.

24 THE COURT: All right. And so with that ---

25 MR. WESTBROOK: I might add, Your Honor, discussion

1 whether to do, to give him a class grievance or individual
2 ones, I think since I've already done the individual ones
3 I'd rather tender that if for no other reason but that the 4 calculations for each one are different and they're
5 particularized to each and I've already done individual
6 ones.

7 MR. SUMMERS: Whatever makes Mr. Westbrook ---

8 THE COURT: He will accept them either way.

10 fine.

11 THE COURT: So what I'm going to do is call
12 Ms. Carolyn Ayer, and I'm going to tell her to prepare me
13 a form order saying that the parties have resolved their 14 differences and their resolution is in the record by the 15 court reporter and that on that basis the matter is 16 settled and the motion is dismissed.

17 MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I appreciate your doing
18 this and I think Lake does too. I would -- my only
19 concern is this: Is whether SCDC follows through on what 20 Lake has -- I think Lake is stating to the Court in good
21 faith his intentions, but he has a battery of attorneys in 22 Columbia and he is not the only one calling the shots. I
23 mean, I've seen this for five years now.

24 THE COURT: Well, why can't -- I mean, when an 25 agreement is reached and it's put on the record it becomes

2 MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir.

3 MR. WESTBROOK: And may I ---

4 THE COURT: And so in that respect I'll have to back
5 up a little bit. What I'm going to say is based on the 6 agreement stated into the record by the parties the Court
7 accepts that agreement and the motion is dismissed. How 8 about that?

9 And I think, Mr. Summers, that if you decide to back
10 up on what you say I think he can come back to me.

11 MR. SUMMERS: Oh, I understand, sir.

12 THE COURT: And ask for me to get involved at that 13 time.

14 MR. SUMMERS: I would agree. And again, ultimately
15 we keep hearing Mr. Westbrook talking about for five
16 years. Quite candidly, Judge, he and I have a vastly 17 different perspective on that. I think we've done the 18 right thing, but that's another issue for another day.
19 Ultimately Mr. Westbrook may not get the relief he wants
20 or thinks these clients deserves, but that's separate and 21 apart from the procedural solution that the Court has 22 fashioned here today.

23 THE COURT: Well, I think he's got the procedural
24 solution he wanted. You will certain have in the record
25 what you want in the record, and then I think the proper

1 procedure is to go through administrative law court if
2 you're not happy. Once they deal with it, now if they
3 refuse to accept it or then I think you got relief in this 4 court but that's all.

5 MR. WESTBROOK: And just so I clarify the record,
6 Your Honor, I'm going to tender Mr. Summers after we
7 finish it's roughly 100 to 200 -- I'm not sure exact
8 number. I think are at legal or original grievances with 9 exhibits, and I'm also going to tender roughly 100 copies
10 of amendments without exhibits for people whose grievances
11 I have sent to other institutions and that's why in most 12 cases I don't have those exhibits nor the original
13 grievances so that's what I'm going to give to him.

14 MR. SUMMERS: That will be fine, sir. I'll make sure
15 it goes through general counsel and to grievance branch
16 for management and placement in individual files.

17 THE COURT: That a record has been preserved of these 18 materials and then ultimately decisions will flow from 19 those submissions and we'll go on through hopefully not
20 back before this Court but before administrative law
21 court, perhaps even the Court of Appeals beyond. All
22 right. And I suggest y'all request a transcript. I'm not 23 going to put all that in that order.

24 MR. SUMMERS: I think that's a wise course of action,
25 sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. Court is in
2 recess.

This is a complaint, within which Mr. J. Robbins and Williams Technology employees have been violating the law as well as Policy.

First, according to South Carolina Code Ann. Sec. 24-3-430(1,2,3,4,5) the conditions of employment implemented by above-named individuals is the equivalent of a Sweat Shop while the inmates may work they are nonetheless forcing and allowing inmates to work without Pay and according to Policy and law by permitting inmates to work without Pay is a violation of Policy and law because these conditions permitted by Williams Tech + Mr. Robbins are violating law since to do so is outside conditions that individuals in society would be subjected to.

Furthermore, according to relevant law as it is applied the rate of Pay likewise violates law due to fact that individuals in society were not paid .35-.75 cents an hour and this is what I was paid. Accordingly, doing so was a clear violation of applicable law. Where law mandates that my Pay be not below what society would be paid. Further, the law does not restrict me from getting minimum wage as law therefore permits me to pay taxes since this is a Private industry as well as to pay room and board and other deductions.

Moreover,
South Carolina Code Ann. Sec. 24-3-430(5) makes it vital to pay me the minimum wage that Williams Technology is paying and for S.C.D.C. to take the deductions in accordance with law.

Similarly, to have me working without Pay and knowing full well no one in street would be subjected to this, also brings forth this conclusion that billing and receiving money from Williams Tech. I do not get is fraud and all this money by law is due to me.

INMATE'S REASON FOR APPEAL (state specific dissatisfaction):

The warden misreads the applicable law and therefore his decision denies justice is wrong. Under the Justice Assistance Act and title 24 inmates working in P I 2 shall be paid minimum wage and this law has been violated when state entered a contract paying far below this (see attached documents) and have failed to protect the health and safety of its workers.

This Grievance, is my second one concerning Prison Industries Two, however, this likewise concerns how medical is treating those who are affected by chemicals in the Transmission Plant:

First, according to relevant law, it is clear the inmates in South Carolina Department of Corrections, are legally wards of state, as such S.C.D.C. acquires role of Guardian, to provide health, safety and educational, food, housing and suitable working conditions.

Therefore, under applicable Federal/State law as it relates to Private industry in correctional facilities, which provides that all money must be paid to South Carolina Department of Corrections, for inmates participating in this enhancement Program.

The department, is currently violating these provisions as well as Williams Technologies Inc., because Williams Tech is only paying $4.00 an hour, and to compound this the department is not giving this money to inmates in accordance with State law. On basis of law, which instructs department to deduct money, inter alia, as our Guardian they are not abiding legally by this law which technically is a contract between inmates and department. Hence, while a legal Guardian under law may charge for living expenses i.e., Room, Board & department is not doing so and all money to be deducted is not and S.C.D.C. is making approximately $1.2 million dollars not including overtime and overwhelming it. The money goes to department, while we receive only a small portion treated. Furthermore, this institution and medical staff is not taking precautionary measures to ensure Williams Tech is not skimping on providing proper protective clothing so as to avoid this.

Whereas, these infections stem primarily from inadequate protective clothing and none of Osha or any other guidelines are being enforced to have inmates wear protective devices for hearing, body, breathing.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DIVISION

Darrell Williams, #219730
Appellant,

Docket No. 01-ALJ-04-01079-AP

South Carolina Department of Corrections,
Respondent.

FILED

ADMIN. LAW JUDGE DIV.

Introduction

 This matter comes before the Administrative Law Judge Division ("Division") pursuant to the appeal of Darrell Williams, an inmate incarcerated with the Department of Corrections ("Department"). In his appeal, Williams disputes the pay he is receiving in the Prison Industries Service program. On November 20, 2001, the Department filed a motion to dismiss asserting that the Division does not have jurisdiction to entertain Appellant's appeal. On December 4, 2001, Williams filed his motion to strike. For reasons set forth below, the Department's motion is granted and Williams's appeal is dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

Analysis

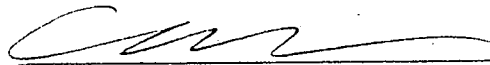

On September 5, 2001, the Division issued an En Banc Order in McNeil v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, 00-ALJ-04-00336-AP (September 5, 2001). The decision holds that the Division's appellate jurisdiction in inmate appeals is limited to two types of cases: (1) cases in which an inmate contends that prison officials have erroneously calculated his sentence, sentence-related credits, or custody status; and (2) cases in which the Department has taken an inmate's created liberty interest as punishment in a major disciplinary hearing.

Williams does not challenge the calculation of a sentence, sentence-related credits, or custody status. Nor is Williams the object of punishment in a major disciplinary hearing in the instant case. Accordingly, no jurisdiction exists in the ALJD to decide this matter.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Department's Motion to Dismiss is granted and that Williams's appeal is dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.
