LETTER OF ATTEMPT

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

I attempted to file my original appeal on December 18th, 2013 in a timely manner. I was told at the Court of Appeals that I would receive correspondence regarding the case and would be offered assistance if my formatting was not in the proper form.

I waited approximately 60 days and received no correspondence in the matter. I called the court and was told that nothing was on file in regards to my case. On February 20th, 2014 I went to the court in person and was told that the documents I filed were not the proper ones and was given copies of the proper documents.

These updated documents were served and again filed on February 27, 2014.

Sincerely,

Thurman Kevin Adams

Re: Board of Assessment Appeals Hearing Case # 2011-43 Agricultural Use/ TM# R01316-01-26

Dear Mr. Adams & Ms. Bost:

The Board of Assessment Appeals has reviewed your recent appeal for tax year 2011 on the above referenced property.

After careful consideration of the documentation submitted and the testimony presented, it is the Boards' consensus and agreement that the evidence presented by Mr. Adams does not indicate that the above referenced property is being operated as a commercial farm or agricultural property. Therein, Mr. Adams' request that his property be deemed agricultural for tax purposes is denied.

If you should desire to appeal this decision, you may make written application to the Administrative Law Court, Edgar A. Brown Building, 1205 Pendleton Street, Suite 224, Columbia, South Carolina 29211-1667, within thirty (30) days of the date of this letter. A copy of the appeal must also be filed with the Richland County Board of Assessment Appeals.

Sincerely,

Board of Assessment Appeals
