Subject: Breakfield v. Woods 2012-212318
Date: Monday, March 24, 2014 9:21:26 AM

I have received in this morning's mail a copies of Appellant's transmittal letter to the Court dated March 19 together with a Petition for Rehearing dated and served March 19. Once again, I receive these documents 5 days after they are allegedly mailed.

Please see my letter to you emailed on March 19. A Petition for Rehearing served on March 19 was and is untimely. I am unaware of an Order excusing Appellant's untimely Petition.

Has the Court accepted the March 19 Petition as a validly filed and served petition that requires a Return from me? Please advise.

This email is copied to the Appellant at the email address used by you last week.

Thank you.
