ORDER OF DISMISSAL

2/3-7/14
10: Am
E K H
Raney

This matter is before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court ("ALC" or "Court") pursuant to the Notice of Appeal filed on January 7, 2014 by Julian Rochester ("Appellant"), an inmate incarcerated with the South Carolina Department of Corrections ("Department"). On or about July 11, 2013, the Appellant filed a Step One Grievance with the Department asserting that the Department has incorrectly calculated his sentence max-out date. On August 13, 2013, a response to the Appellant's Step One Grievance was issued by the Warden explaining to the Appellant how his sentence had been calculated. Thereafter, the Appellant filed a Notice of Appeal with this Court challenging the Department's response to his Step One Grievance. There is nothing in the Record reflecting that the Appellant ever filed and received a response to a Step Two Grievance. (They are 12-11 - Reg. at GPH.) page 3-4 (Lyng)

S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-380(A) states that "A party who has exhausted all administrative remedies available within the agency and who is aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case is entitled to judicial review..." See, Al-Shabazz v. State, 338 S.C. 354, 376, 527 S.E.2d 742, 754 (2000) ("An inmate may, however, seek review of the Department's final decision by an ALJ in a non-collateral or administrative matter"; citing, Bennett v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, 305 S.C. 310, 408 S.E.2d 230 (1991) (statutory requirements proffering administrative remedy and requiring exhaustion before seeking judicial review mean administrative agency has exclusive right to decide issues before it, subject only to appeal for judicial review of its decision.)).

If the Appellant's intent is to appeal a decision of the Department which jeopardizes his state-created liberty or property interests, he must first exhaust all administrative remedies. By failing to obtain a final decision from the Department, the Appellant has failed to exhaust his administrative remedies and has thus failed to meet the requirements of the Administrative Procedures Act for review by this Court.

Based upon the foregoing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this appeal is DISMISSED.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

RE: File Number: 13-DE-L-1767

Dear Mr. Rochester:

This will acknowledge your letter received on December 13, 2013. From reading your letter, I am unsure which lawyer you are complaining about. If you wish to file a complaint against a lawyer, you will need to provide us with the name of the lawyer and specific details of what the lawyer did or did not do to cause you to file your complaint.

Please keep in mind that the authority of this office is limited to issues of whether a lawyer has committed misconduct or is incapacitated within the guidelines set out in Rules 413, SCACR. This office does not have the authority to determine whether the outcome of a case was fair or to intervene in a legal matter.

Without the name of the lawyer, we will be unable to proceed with an investigation. If we do not receive it, we will close this matter without further notice to you. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Richardson
