

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

APPEAL FROM THE ADMINISTRATIVE LAW COURT

The Honorable N/A

RECEIVED

T. Terrell Bryan, 254538, Appellant,

MAR 24 2014

SC Court of Appeals

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.
Appellate Case No. 2014-000116

PETITION FOR REINSTATEMENT/RECONSIDERATION

Appellant hereby Petitions this Court For Reinstatement/Reconsideration, & states:

1. The Honorable Jasper M. Curton, AS dismissed this appeal because there was no final judgment, appealable order or decision.

FACTS

2. CATCH 22'S! The record before the court shows I initially filed a grievance on regular paper when there were no forms available, Griev. No. MCC1 1098-13. The grievance was unprocessed, I was told to refile on an original form. I refilled per Griev. No. MCC1 1138-13. This grievance also was unprocessed holding I've filed 5 grievances for the month. I appealed to the ALC & the ALC simply gave me a memo which I take means I filed 3 appeals for the year & can not file any more. When would the catch 22's stop! No judge made this ruling, this is a practice of the clerk.

ARGUMENT

3. This court dismissed holding the clerk's practice of issuing a memo is not a final appealable order. Under the FINALITY RULE, this court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, & in the interest of justice & Fundamental Fairness, this court should order that the clerk's practice be declared unconstitutional, violating access to this court & order that a Judge ONLY issue a final written order.

4. WHEREFORE, I pray that this court REMAND to the ACC with instructions.
