

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Joshua Samuel, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2012-206675

Lower Court Case No. 2009-CP-21-00040

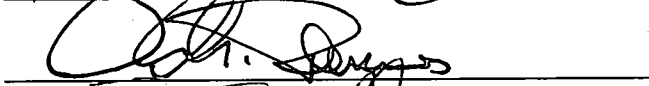

ORDER

By Order dated March 6, 2014, this Court denied petitioner's petition for a writ of certiorari from the denial of his application for post-conviction relief (PCR), which was filed pursuant to Johnson v. State, 294 S.C. 310, 364 S.E.2d 201 (1988). In its order denying the petition, the Court stated petitioner had not filed a pro se petition.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for reconsideration, which we have construed as a petition for rehearing, in which he claims he timely filed a pro se brief, but the Court failed to consider the brief in denying the petition. Petitioner has attached a copy of the pro se brief he alleges was timely filed.

The Court has reviewed the filings in this case, and there is no record of petitioner having filed a pro se brief. Nevertheless, after consideration of the issues raised in the pro se brief petitioner submitted together with his petition for rehearing, the petition for rehearing is denied.
