THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

In The Supreme Court

APPEAL FROM GREENVILLE COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

G. Edward Welmaker, Circuit Court Judge

Case No. 2010-CP-23-9792

Charles Christopher Williams,

Appellant,

v.

The State of South Carolina,

Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The undersigned was appointed to represent the petitioner in filing a petition for writ of certiorari. I have made one request for an extension under Order 2009-03-18-01 and the petition and appendix are currently due April 28, 2014. I now move for a second extension upon the showing of what I believe is good cause. The facts supporting the good cause are as follows. This case is a capital case that is extremely complicated with approximately 3,500 pages of transcript. I have already spent considerable time working on the petition but I believe will need significant more time to present a quality product before this Court. I have plans to take my family to Arkansas (including my sole law partner and wife) to visit my family, and particularly my father who has had significant health issues this last year. Because taking a full week off will inevitably mean suspending the rest of my private practice as well as work on this appeal, it will most likely take some time to return to normal operating capacity on return. Although it is three weeks until the petition is due, I feel it is imperative to make this motion now so that if my vacation plans are not considered good cause, I can cancel them and spend that time on the petition.

On behalf of petitioner, I so move.
