Re: YOUR APPEAL IS URGENT!

Dear Mr. Salley;

Please find copy of an e-mail I got today from Ms. Kimberly McCall today with reference to your APPEAL. The time for ordering the Transcript, for the APPEAL is drawing near, your appeal can not be perfected if you do not fill out the AFFIDAVIT that I sent to you some time ago. If for any reason you are having difficulty in filling it out, feel free to give me a call, as late as 10:30 in the evening. I will do all I can to help cause your appeal to be timely.

In the event you may have misplaced the AFFADIVIT, I sent to you some time ago, I am enclosing a new blank one for you to fill out and get to Ms. McCall. I am also sending a copy of the Affidavit to your mother, so the two of you may go over all of the questions together.

Sincerely;

Thomas D. Broadwater, Sr.

Mr. Broadwater,

regarding the deficiencies, and they indicated that they have received everything they were looking for. Our office can move forward (or your client). I

All notarized. The Court of Appeals says that the deadline for ordering the transcript is April 14, 2014, so I must have the completed and notarized . If you need more time to get the affidavit order the transcript from the Court of Appeals on or before April 14, 2014.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks,

Mr. Broadwater,

I tried to call you back, but there was no answer and your voice mail is full. I contacted the Court of Appeals regarding the deficiencies, and they indicate they were looking for. Our office can move forward once we receive the affidavit of indigency back from you (or your client). I sent a copy of the affidavit on April 14, 2014, but I have also attached a copy here. All notarized. The Court of Appeals says that the client, you can request an extension of time in which to order the transcript from the Court of Appeals on or before April 14, 2014.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks,
