Dear: Y. Claire Allen

Appellate Case No. 2014-000275

I received a letter from my now former Attorney Rodney D. Davis about my Appeal. I have written you previously concerning the issues, and reason for an appeal on the 12th of March 2014. I believe I have grounds for an appeal based on the fact:

- : That there are/is no (Principle Perpetrator) in my case I have no co-defendant.
- : The Honorable Judge W. Jeffrey Young viewed and base my case on the Hands of one is the Hands of all. Which is illegal and unlawful under the circumstance. My charge was not Assu: to the fact but Burglary 2nd. So who was I aiding... to be viewed and based on Hand of 1 Hand of all... no one
- : There is no fingerprints, DNA, etc.
- : Mere presence in general area not a crime. Not at crime scene
- : I received items not against the law Under United States Constitution Article 1, Section 9
- : The Court did not consider U.S Constitution Article 1, Section 13. about Prosecution.

Those are just a few amongst many. I also sent to you a notation a few weeks ago enclosed with a notation from S.C Bar Assoc. concerning my lawyer involvement with Charleston County Public Defender's office which I had conflict of interest prior to this Court date.

I plead under (alford) only stating my innocence. And Rodney degrading to fact of my innocence to get a plea for prosecution. This is my 3rd notation concerning my Appeal. Please take it to consideration. Thank You for your time and concern.

Sincerely,
John. Champaign
