Re: State of South Carolina v. David Jamar Benjamin
Appellate Case No. 2013-001496

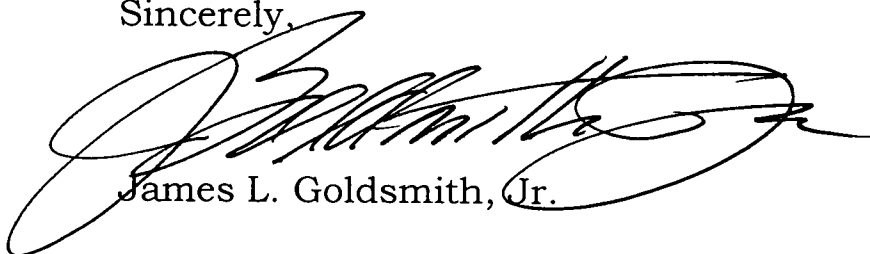

Dear Ms. Allen:

In response to your letter of 26 March 2014, I contacted the staff at the Office of Bar Admissions in the Supreme Court. We had erroneously filed the original application for admission pro hac vice with them.

The gentleman at the Office of Bar Admissions is sending the original application to you by interoffice mail since we agreed that would better expedite your receipt.

Please contact me if you need additional information, or care to discuss this matter further.

Sincerely,

James L. Goldsmith, Jr.

Re: The State v. David J. Benjamin
Appellate Case No. 2013-001496

Dear Counsel:

The original application for admission pro hac vice was to have been filed with the South Carolina Court of Appeals with a copy to the South Carolina Supreme Court Office of Bar Admissions pursuant to Rule 404(c) and (d), SCACR. We have not received an application for admission to accompany the motion for admission pro hac vice. Please file the application for admission with this Court within ten (10) days of the date of this letter so that the motion can be ruled upon.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
