Re: Floyd Strickland v. The State, 2011-40-03694
Appellate Case No. 2012-212313

Dear Mr. Strickland:

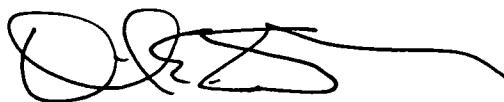

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2007-08-13-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Finally, as you know, the issue in this PCR case is whether you should have been allowed to serve your 1972 South Carolina sentences in North Carolina. Since you have apparently now completed these South Carolina sentences and have been released from custody, I ask you to please explain why this matter should not be dismissed as moot. See Jackson v. State, 331 S.C. 486, 489 S.E.2d 915(1997); McDuffie v. State, 276 S.C. 229, 277 S.E.2d 595 (1981). This explanation should be provided within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.
