RE: Antrown A. Irby v. State
Appellate Case No. 2013-000954

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

The Return to the Petition for Writ of Certiorari in the aforementioned matter is due to be served and filed today. I would respectfully request a fourth and final seven (7) day extension in which to serve and file my return. This request is not intended for the purpose of delay. Rather, this request is necessitated by my workload. While I had anticipated having my Return ready for filing, it will not be possible due to my PCR term of court this week in Spartanburg. I have been preparing 30 cases for hearings. Five of those cases had large trial transcripts, and one of those involves numerous witnesses being called to testify, local media coverage and both victim and applicant family members in attendance. I have also been required to attend mandatory training in my new supervisory position. The State would respectfully request that the Court grant this final request for an extension. Opposing counsel indicates consent by his signature below.

Sincerely, f.
