Appellate Case No. 2012-212042

CONSENT MOTION TO FILE SUBSTITUTED RECORD ON APPEAL

Pursuant to Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the undersigned counsel request leave to substitute the original Record on Appeal filed with the Court of Appeals in the above titled appeal. In support of the motion, counsel for Respondent and Petitioner submit the following.

1. The Record on Appeal filed with the Court of Appeals was missing two pages designated by Respondent. It also contained numerous instances of handwritten notes throughout the text. Several pages were upside down.

3. These problems have been corrected and the attorneys for Respondent and Petitioner concur that the corrected Record on Appeal should be substituted for what was filed below.

4. Other than the corrections made as listed above, no other changes have been made to the Record on Appeal

WHEREFORE, counsel for Petitioner requests leave to file a corrected Record on Appeal and have it substituted for the previous Record filed in this case.
