Docket No. 13-ALJ-11-0294-AP

MOTION FOR
LEAVE TO INTERVENE

RECEIVED
APR 14 2014
SC Court of Appeals

Pursuant to Rule 20 of the Rules of Procedure for the Administrative Law Court, Movant, Naert and DuBois, LLC, hereby moves to intervene as a party in the above-captioned proceeding, and as grounds for this Motion, herein allege:

Movant is a private law firm located in Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, employing South Carolina licensed attorneys Zachary S. Naert, Esquire and Joseph DuBois, Esquire. Movant represents as legal counsel dozens of clients with pending lawsuits and other claims against "Anonymous Companies" which, at least in part, rely upon certain documents and evidence subject to that Order of the Administrative Law Court, dated March 18, 2014, attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference herein.

Insofar as such Order would seek to deprive Movant of due process regarding same, Movant will be aggrieved or adversely affected by such Order; the Movant's interests are not being adequately represented by existing parties; and intervention will not unduly prolong the proceedings or prejudice the rights of existing parties.

In view of these allegations, the Order issued by the Court in this proceeding would be binding on the Movant and its interest in these proceedings would not be adequately protected unless it is permitted to intervene.

Wherefore, Movant respectfully moves that it be granted leave to intervene in this proceeding.
