Re: In the Matter of the Estate of Marion M. Kay, 2013-002319

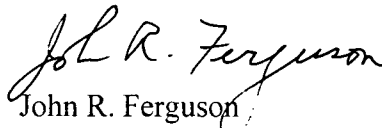

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I want to put on the record my response to matters pertaining to the above-referenced appeal.

1. As to the Appellant-Respondent's Motion to Exceed Page Limit, I do not consent to this motion. There is no need for the prolixity sought by Appellant-Respondent, as Respondents-Appellants' Initial Brief illustrates. Most of the extra pages result from an unnecessary expansion of the Statement of the Case by tacking on an Introduction and a Statement of Facts.

2. The Appendix A Appellant-Respondent added to his Initial Brief is an attempt to add to the appellate record matters not presented to the courts below and is therefore barred. It must be removed from the brief.

Sincerely,

John R. Ferguson
