Dear Mrs. Allen,

RECEIVED

APR 14 2014

SC Court of Appeals

I've been having trouble here at Lieber prison gaining regular access to the law library. There has been several incidents associate with this problem. The main issue being that I am in a Closed custody unit (Ashley/A) unit here at Lieber and the administration has been denying inmates access due to concerns with security. As you may or may not know a murder occurred here in Cooper Unit not to long ago which caused a lock down status. Also we had "TB" testing. Furthermore, there seemed to be an issue with the power along with the boilers for hot water and there was a "security" issue due to the large maintenance trucks being on the yard inside the fence. That is not to mention weekends and holidays. The cumulative affect of which has caused me to be denied access to Lieber law library for the majority the month of March. Regardless, I am putting forth my due diligence but the computers and actual law library contain resources and information that can not be accessed in my prison cell. Therefore, I ask that I be granted an extension due to said circumstances. Mrs. Bouch is the head officer over the law library here at Lieber. She can verify what I say to be truth. And I hereby swear that I, Steve Mennis, ^{DOC # 298627} am telling the truth.

Thank you for your time,

J. W. Mennis
