SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Oliver:

By letter dated March 10, 2014, the Clerk of the South Carolina Court of Appeals required you to notify the Court as to the status of the hearing transcript within ten days of the date of that letter. The Clerk of Court also cautioned you to "be sure to copy the Court and opposing counsel with all correspondence concerning the transcript." I have not received any responsive letter from you although I have noted that the Court's on-line docket reflects that a letter was filed on March 24, 2014. You obviously did not heed the requirement that I be copied on all correspondence with the Court. Please forward to me immediately a copy of the letter that you sent to the Court and any other correspondence with the court reporter or Court Administration.

In addition, please follow the Appellate Court Rules in the future and serve a copy of all filings and correspondence on me as counsel for the Respondents. If you refuse to do this, I will request by motion that the Court take corrective action.

By copy of this letter, I am advising the Clerk of Court that I have not received a copy of the correspondence responsive to the Court's March 20, 2014 letter.

If you have any questions, please contact me by email or in writing. Thank you for your anticipated attention to this matter.

Ms. Karen Oliver
