

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Billy Lee Lisenby, Jr., #200273, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.
AND Billy Lee Lisenby, Jr., #200273, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2012-213396

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to file an amended initial brief out of time and a motion to file an amended final brief out of time. After careful consideration, Appellant's motions are denied.

Respondent has filed a renewed motion to compel Appellant to supplement the record on appeal. Subsequently, Appellant filed what he titles a "motion to compel," which this Court construes as a return to Respondent's motion. In his return, Appellant maintains he is unable to supplement the record on appeal because he is currently in solitary confinement with the Department of Corrections and he does not currently have access to the documents Respondent wants included in a supplemental record on appeal. Within ten days of this order, Respondent will file written proof with this Court that Appellant has been granted access to the documents with which Respondent wishes to supplement the record on appeal for the limited purpose of filing a supplemental record on appeal. Furthermore, within thirty days of this order, Appellant will file the supplemental record with this Court.
