

Jeremy McMillan
SCDC# 332273
PCI (2A-205)
430 Oaklawn Rd.
Pelzer, SC. 29669

April 15, 2014

RE: disposition of State v. McMillan (certiorari pending)

Dear Mr. Shearouse,

I am writing in reference to the above captioned. On October 17, 2012 I was granted a new trial by the Appellate Court (Op.No. 5038). The State filed a timely rehearing which was denied.

The States filed their Petition for Writ of Certiorari March 1, 2013, and my lawyer (Nicole Mace, Esq.) filed our Return April 8, 2013.

It has now been almost 19-months since I was granted a new trial. I apologize if I am being overbearing, but I have been incarcerated since my trial December 8-11, 2008 for a crime I did not commit. At this time could you please tell me what the disposition is of my case, if my case has not been heard yet, where am I on the Court's docket. I thank you very much for your time and consideration in this matter.

Kindest Regards
/s/
Jeremy McMillan

Shawmy McMillen

SEDC #332213

PCI (24-205)

430 Alderson Rd

Polson, SC 29669

RECEIVED
APR 6 2014
#101A1
P.C.I. MAILROOM

GREENVILLE SC 295

13 APR 2014 PM 3 L

Mr. Justice Shearson, Clerk

South Carolina Supreme Court

P.O. Box 11330

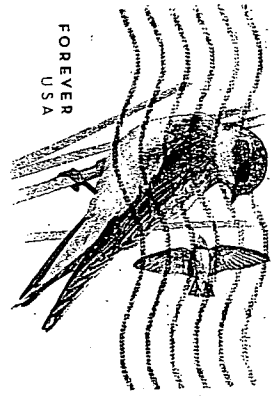

Columbia, SC

29211

2921139390

192

Bank Swallow