RE: Patti H. Spring, Appellant v. Harry L. Harris, Jr. as Personal Representative of the Estate of Geraldine M. Harris, Respondent
Case No.: 2013-CP-43-0476

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am representing the Appellant in this appeal. I served the notice of appeal by mail on February 28, 2014. Rule 207(a)(1) requires the appellant to order the transcript in an appeal from the Court of Common Pleas within ten days of the date of service of the notice of appeal. The rule goes on to provide that the appellant must order a transcript of the entire proceedings below unless the parties otherwise agree in writing. I have exchanged email with Respondent's counsel confirming that we are not going to order the transcript from the hearing in the Court of Common Pleas. This case originated in probate court, and the trial was in probate court. The matter was appealed to the circuit court. The record on appeal will contain the trial transcript(s) from the probate court (along with other documents). I have sent an Agreement to Order Less Than the Entire Transcript to Respondent's counsel for their signatures. When the signed document is returned to me, I will forward it you to for filing.

With best regards, I remain

Very truly yours,
